

A Very Pretty Church Wedding

One of the prettiest church weddings that Prineville has seen in a long time was solemnized last evening at the Presbyterian church when Mr. Hugh Lakin and Miss Lorene Winnek were united in marriage by Rev. B. F. Harper.

Before the ceremony Miss Conway sang "I Love You Truly." Promptly at the time appointed Miss Estes, who presided at the organ, played a beautiful wedding march from Lohengrin, and during the services played "Hearts and Flowers" in a minor key.

The bridegroom entered by the south door, accompanied by Mr. Willard Wurtz, as best man, and Messrs. Bowman and Robinson as ushers. They took up positions at the chancelry. Shortly afterwards the bridal party arrived and entered the church by the north door. The bride was leaning upon the arm of her father. She was attended by Miss Oaks, cousin of the bride, maid of honor, Miss Fay Baldwin and Miss Beulah Crooks as bridesmaids. The bridal party took up positions at the altar, facing Rev. Harper, where the beautiful and impressive revised church service was performed. During the second prayer the bride and groom knelt on a white satin pillow while the reverend gentleman invoked divine blessing on the young couple.

After the ceremony to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march the bridal party left the church for the home of the bride's parents, where the wedding party stood in line, the mother by the side of the bride. About sixty guests called during the evening.

The bride wore a hand-embroidered white satin gown, en traine, with pearl trimmings and a tulle veil caught in place with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and carnations. Miss Oaks wore pink crepe de chene with shadow lace. She carried a muff of pink roses. Miss Fay Baldwin wore a dress of pink chiffon over pink silk with trimmings of lavender paeon-velvet. She carried pink carnations. Miss Beulah Crooks wore a gown of white embroidery. She carried a bouquet of white carnations. Mrs. Winnek wore a black satin gown, with trimmings of white lace and coral silk. Mrs. Oaks, aunt of the bride, wore black crepe de meteor with overdress of silk marquise and veil Persian trimmings.

The Winnek home was decorated with apple blossoms and carnations. The color scheme—pink and white—was carried out in both decorations and refreshments.

The church was also decorated with apple and cherry blossoms, whose fragrance laddened the atmosphere with the perfume of spring.

There were many costly presents of cut glass, silver, brass, linen and Haviland.

The M. W. A. Band, serenaded the newly wedded couple during the evening.

The newly wedded couple left later in the evening for a brief wedding trip on the sound. They will be home to friends after May 20.

The Dalles Debaters Defeat C. C. H. S.

The debate with The Dalles High School is over and the decision of the judges was with The Dalles team. The C. C. H. S. boys—Van Brink and Roy Lowther—did excellent work and Crook County High may well be and is proud of their showing. They labored under adverse circumstances, being compelled to do original work almost entirely, yet so well had they outlined the subject and so forcefully did they present it that in the minds of most of the unprejudiced they won beyond a question. The opposing team was strong and had access to an abundance of material on their side of the question. The encouragement of a sympathetic audience gave them two out of three votes.

Friday's Offering at the Lyric.

On account of the dance at the club hall Friday evening, the Leota Howard Company playing there this week, will show at the Lyric that night presenting the five-act farce comedy, "The Bosom Friend of Mr. Bulger." The usual three reels of pictures will also be shown, one of which, by the Kalem Company is a great spectacular war drama entitled "To the Aid of Stonewall Jackson."

"The Rubber Industry on the Amazon" is an interesting educational picture, while the laugh-maker for the evening "Satan on a Rampage" shows the evil spirit on a lark in the gay City of Paris.

There will be a meeting of the Eastern Star this evening. All visiting members welcome.

The Ladies' Annex will have a tea on the afternoon of May 18. Everybody invited. Bring a dime.

Cyrus Long, an old soldier, who has been a county charge for some time, was brought in Wednesday by Dr. Edwards and placed in the Home Hospital. He was suffering from a complication of diseases.

G. H. Brewster returned Tuesday from Salem where he attended a meeting of the State Water Board. He says that Water Superintendent Cochrane will soon be here to take up the final adjudication of Crooked river.

The annual junior play will be given in the Club Hall Friday evening, May 10. The name of the play is "Esmeralda," a very popular and clever drama. The class possesses an abundance of talent and they are working hard. The entertainment will unquestionably be first class.

The Commercial Club smoker last Saturday night was well attended. The evening was spent at card-playing, bowling and billiards, after which lunch was served. Music by the orchestra added much to the entertainment and the old country style fiddling contest made a decided hit. It is hoped that something of similar nature will take place at the club rooms often.

The Leota Howard Dramatic Co.

The Leota Howard Co. that is filling an engagement of seven nights at the Commercial Club Hall are drawing good houses nightly.

Miss Howard was here last fall with the Iles Co., as was Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Thompson. We are glad to see them back in Prineville and with such a good company. Every play that has been staged by them so far has been well worth seeing and we are promised a new and better play every night.

Tonight "Forget-Me-Not" will be the attraction. It is a story of life in Rome. Friday night, owing to the dance in the hall, the company will move over to the Lyric Theatre and play the three-act comedy, "The Bosom Friend of Bulger." This is a scream from start to finish. On Saturday night, "Our Irish American Cousin" will be played, and on Sunday the great western drama, "The Gambler," will close the engagement of the strongest company that has visited Prineville for a long time.
