

LOCAL MENTION

J. M. Hays of Silver Lake was over for a load of freight Tuesday.

Mrs. H. P. Belknap was the guest of honor at a delightful afternoon luncheon given by Mrs. C. W. Elkins Monday.

James Pelton and Lindsey Sizmore who were former residents of Crook county, came in last week from Klamath Falls in their touring car. The gentlemen were accompanied by their wives and were warmly welcomed by their many old time friends.

C. P. Judge was in Prineville Tuesday, coming over from Redmond to look up business matters. Mr. Judge has headquarters at North Portland, where he keeps a plentiful supply of high grade cattle. Most of this stock will be disposed of in Central Oregon. Our ranges are sadly depleted just now, and they will be replaced by blooded animals, as it pays better in the end.

Frank Long and wife of McMinnville, are visiting relatives in Crook county. Frank came direct from Texas, and says that Central Oregon looks better to him than any part of Texas. It seems that a realty company's literature attracted Frank's attention to Texas, and upon arrival there he found the land being boomed was under two feet of water during the winter. They will be in Prineville for a while.

Requirements of a Legal Fence

E. A. Simons came down from Camp creek the first of the week. Crops are looking fine up his way. Lots of new people settling up the country, he says.

"There is one thing these newcomers do not understand," Mr. Simons says, "and that is the legal requirements of a fence."

What is a legal fence? The law reads as follows:

"Posts must be 6 1/2 feet in length, not less than 4 inches in diameter, made of sound timber; such posts shall be set in the ground 2 feet, and shall not be farther than 32 feet apart. There shall not be less than three wires. The lower wire shall be 2 feet from the ground, the second 15 inches above, the upper 15 inches above that one. There shall be poles or false posts set up on the ground, 4 1/2 feet high, to which the wires of such fence shall be securely fastened." In substance this is what the statutes says is a legal fence.
