Democrats Nominate Wilson and Marshall

For president, Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey.

This is the ticket completed by the democratic national convention at Baltimore at 1:56 a. m. Tuesday. There were 46 ballots cast for president.

The nomination of Governor Marshall for vice president by acclamation after the second ballot came as something of a surprise, for when the night's balloting for vice president began it seemed that the Bryan-Wilson contingent in the convention had definitely settled upon Governor Burke of North Dakota.

There was not much of a fight, however, and when two ballots disclosed Marshall steadily in the lead, Governor Burke's name was withdrawn and Marshall proclaimed the nominee by acclamation.

A minute later the convention had adjourned sine die.

A Pleasant Time at the M. E. Church

A very pleasant social event occurred Monday evening at the M. E. Church, when the gentlemen of the church entertained the Ladies' Aid Society and the choir.

About forty guests were present and at a late hour departed for their homes with feelings of highest praise and gratitude to the Methodist men who had left nothing undone in showing the ladies a royal good time.

Sylvan Michel and a couple of small companions had an exciting time for a little while Monday while out driving. Sylvan got out on the shafts to fix the checkrein and then horse commenced to buck. The little chap that was holding the lines dropped them and the horse started to run. It made for the alley between White's Cash Grocery and the Journal office. The buggy struck the sidewalk at the entrance and turned bottom side up. Sylvan stuck to the back of the horse and his companions crawled out from underneath the buggy unhurt. Beyond smashing the shafts very little damage was done.

Prineville Tennis Players Enjoy Trip

Prineville added more laurels to her athletic fame last week when a tennis team, consisting of Dr. J. H. Rosenberg, H. McCall, A. R. Bowman, R. L. Brewster and L. M. Bechtell, defeated the The Dalles club in three straight sets and tied with the Hood River men with five sets each.

The boys made the trip overland with Dale Barker in his Pope-Hartford, leaving Prineville Tuesday morning at 4 a. m. and arrived at The Dalles at 3 p. m., meeting the Dalles team that afternoon and defeated them. That evening the Prineville boys were treated to a banquet and shown a general good time. The next afternoon the Hood River Benedict Tennis Club was met, and it was agreed before the match that eight Hood River men could participate, which necessitated the Prineville men meeting a first team after each "best two out of three set," and was a decided advantage to the Hood River men. Each team won five "best two out of three sets." The Hood River club also gave the local boys a nice banquet and wanted to take them through the famous valley the next forenoon on an automobile trip, but the boys could not stay on account of getting an early start on the return journey. Frank Cram, a prominent Hood River merchant and former Prineville boy, was one of the Hood River players.

Both The Dalles and Hood River clubs will come to Prineville later on to play a return match with the local players.

"The Colleen Bawn" At the Lyric

In order that it might produce a number of distinctly Irish photo-plays under conditions where all possible local color and exact details could be brought out and accurately shown, the Kalem Company last year sent a thoroughly equipped company of actors, actresses, camera men, etc., to Ireland, where the above entitled play, by Dion Boucicault, was produced in the exact places as described by the playwright in the original play.

The story is well told in three reels of pictures, and show many typical scenes of the Emerald Isle, among others, Lake Killarney, the Gap of Dunloe, and many of the identical places immortalized by the dramatist. The entire three reels will be shown Friday and Saturday evening at the Lyric at the regular admission price.
