Senate Committee Agrees to a Modified Form of Bourne's Parcels Post Measure.

Washington.-After a dispute of more than two months the senate committee on postoffices and post-Yoads reached an agreement on the postoffice appropriation bill, and the measure will be reported promptly.

Senators Bristow and Bourne, sitting as a sub-committee on the parcels post, agreed on a modified form of Senator Bourne's plan. It retains Senator Bourne's scheme for a division of the country into zones within which rates for the transmission of parcels shall be the same.

Senator Bristow believed the Bourne plan would place rates so low that the project would be found impracticable. To meet his objections, eight zones were outlined instead of six, as originally planned, and the rates proposed by Senator Bourne were increased.

Country Divided Into Zones. Senators Bourne and Bristow agreed upon the parcels post zones as

First zone, length 50 miles, rate 5 cents for the first pound, 3 cents for each additional pound; second zone, length 150 miles, rate 6 and 4 cents; third zone, length 300 miles, rate 7 and 5 cents; fourth zone, length 600 miles, rate 8 and 6 cents; fifth zone, length 1000 miles, rate 9 and 7 cents; sixth sone, length 1400 miles, rate 10 and 9 cents; seventh zone, length 1800 miles, rate 11 and 10 cents; eighth zone, length over 1800 miles, rate 12 cents per pound straight. Maximum packages 11 pounds.

A provision is made for local delivthe first pound and one cent for each 11-pound package.

ZAPATISTAS MAKE ATTACK ON TRAIN

84 Soldiers and Passengers Killed by Mexican Rebels.

Mexico City.-Eighty-four persons. were killed and many were wounded in an attack by Zapatistas on a passenger train between this city and Cuernavaca, Morelos.

The Zapatistas, said to have numbered 500, placed a mine under the railroad track, which exploded as the locomotive passed over it. The overturned engine hardly had settled when the Zapatistas sprang up from all sides and poured a murderous fire into the train

The first object of their attack was a second-class coach in which were siding a federal military escort, with a captain and two lieutenants. The federals got out of the car as quickly as possible to answer the fire of the assatiants, but their efforts were futile. The command, with the exception of five wounded and two who escaped, were killed.

Forty-one passengers were killed and many were wounded. After the train had been swept by their fire, the Zapatistas rushed on their stricken victims and began killing the wounded. A priest, unburt, pleaded with DeLoa, the rebel leader, to stop the slaughter, and it censed.

After sacking the express and baggage cars the rebels poured oil on the cars and, putting the bodies of the dead into them, set fire to the train. When the relief train arrived there was nothing but debris and a few persons, mst of whom were hurt, to tell the tale.
