

Madras Feels Aggrieved

Madras, Or., Aug. 18.—"Without wishing to become a party to the controversy into which Governor West and Sheriff Balfour, of Crook County, have been engaged. I would like to state the position that Madras has taken in the vice crusade in Crook County," said a city official last night.

"In the story printed in the Oregonian, Saturday, Mr. Balfour in offering justification of his conduct as Sheriff of the county, makes reference to the report of the grand jury for May 1910, in which report that body indicates to the Circuit Court that the suppression of the vice in the various incorporated cities of the county should be left in the hands of the municipal authorities, thus insinuating that all of the lack of proper efforts toward suppressing vice should be laid at the door of the city authorities and not the county officers, and mentioning Madras as prominently among the delinquents.

"The truth of the matter is this: The report Mr. Balfour refers to was made in May, 1910, which we believe was some seven months before Mr. Balfour was sheriff, and only a month after the city of Madras was incorporated. When Madras was incorporated in April, 1910, everything was wide open, and vices of all varieties were running, unchecked by county authorities. Naturally the cleaning up of the city was not to be accomplished in a week or in a month, especially where no assistance was given by the county authorities. Other cities were trying to rid themselves of undesirable characters, both men and women.

This class of people habitually follow railroad construction work into frontier country, and as fast as they would be driven from one city, they would light in another, thus making it doubly hard for the city authorities to cope successfully with the work. However Madras has been persistent until today there is less crime in this city, possibly, than in any frontier city of the same size in the West. There are four saloons in operation, all working under a license, notwithstanding the fact that in a neighboring town, only five miles to the south an equal number of saloons are in operation, and are paying no license, save to the internal revenue department, and despite the further fact that the town, which is not incorporated, is in a dry precinct.

"Such a state of affairs has existed for the last year or more. There are no members of the underworld in Madras now. The present condition has been brought about solely by the city officials, acting on the knowledge that no assistance would be tendered by the county."

Crook County Items

A son was born to J. F. Banta and wife of Culver.

Frank F. Chase and wife of Riverside, Calif., passed through a portion of Crook county one day last week in their auto. Mr. Chase spoke in high and complimentary terms of things in this county, and predicts a great future for Crook county and Central Oregon.

A tower seventy feet high with a 50,000 gallon tank at the top, at a cost of $3000 was commenced by the water system company at Metolius last Monday.

The Terrebonne and Metolius baseball teams played ball at the latter place last week. Score 15 to 12 in favor of Metolius.

Col. Chas. W. Thatcher, a college-bred Virginian, known as "The Apostle of Good Roads," will lecture on that subject at La Pine tomorrow evening. He advocates building a "yellow stone boulevard from New York to the Pacific coast."

W. H. Hollishead, a rancher, near La Pine, showed a bundle of timothy from his place five feet high, the heads seven and eight inches in length. Yes, Crook county is great.

J. G. Redmond has been engaged as teacher for the La Pine school for the ensuing year. A teacher for the Paulina school has not yet been engaged.

A party of Crescent hunters killed four deer at the headwaters of the east fork of the west fork of the Deschutes river the other day.

The Redmond potato show will be held October 14 and 15.

A Masonic lodge was instituted in Redmond last Friday evening.

An Odd Fellows lodge has been instituted at Terrebonne.

Work on the reservoir for the Redmond water works commenced last week.

E. J. McCaustland, professor of municipal engineering at Washington University, Seattle, E. M. Walker and Irving Williams, squatters on the Metolius river, were thrown from a boat in which they were rowing in the Dischutes river near Sherar the other day, and before help could reach them the two latter were drowned.

GARDINER, ORE., MAN IS GLAD.

"I am glad to note the steps being taken," remarked Fred Assenheimer, a confectioner of Gardiner, Ore., the other day, "to stamp out such an unjust law as Single Tax." While Mr. Assenheimer would benefit personally under Single Tax by reduced taxation, he declared that he did not consider it fair that he should escape while his farmer friends were taxed out of existence. "I am glad there are not many Single Tax people around here," he told an interviewer.

Notice of Contest.

Department of the Interior, United States Land Office.

The Dalles, Oregon, July 24, 1912.

To John N. Parks, Ellensburg, Washington, Contestee:

You are hereby notified that Abner W. Martin, who gives Heid, Oregon, as his postoffice address, did on June 28, 1912 file in this office his duly corroborated application to contest and secure the cancellation of your homestead, Entry No. 9628, Serial No. 9628, made November 8, 1909, for 8 1/2 sw 1/4, section 1, s 1; s 2, section 2, n 1/2 nw 1/4, section 12, township 20 s, range 10 e, Willamette meridian, and as grounds for his contest he alleges that John N. Parks has wholly abandoned the said tract of land for over two years last past; that he has wholly failed to reside upon, improve or cultivate said tract of land as required by law, or all since making said entry.

You are therefore further notified that the said allegations will be taken by this office as having been confessed by you, and your said entry will be cancelled thereunder without your further right to be heard therein, unless before this office or on appeal, if you fail to file in this office within twenty days after the FOURTH publication of this notice, as shown below, your answer, under oath, specifically meeting and responding to these allegations of contest, or if you fail within that time to file in this office due proof that you have served a copy of your answer on the said contestant either in person or by registered mail. If this service is made by the delivery of a copy of your answer to the contestant in person, proof of such service must be either the said contestant's written acknowledgment of his receipt of the copy, showing the date of its receipt, or the affidavit of the person by whom the delivery was made stating when and where the copy was delivered; if made by registered mail, proof of such service must consist of the affidavit of the person by whom the copy was mailed, stating when and the post office to which it was mailed, and this affidavit must be accompanied by the postmaster's receipt for the letter.

You should state in your answer the name of the postoffice to which you desire future notices to be sent to you.

Attachment Execution on Real Property.

In the Circuit Court of the state of Oregon for Crook county.

Firststone Tire and Rubber Company, a corporation—plaintiff, vs.

Emmet Harris and Maude B. Harris his wife—defendants.

By virtue of an execution in attachment an order of sale issued out of the above entitled court and cause on the 6th day of May, A. D. 1912, in favor of the above named plaintiff and against the above named defendants, Emmet Harris and Maude B. Harris, his wife, upon a judgment against the above named defendants for the sum of $928.30 and interest thereon from the 20th day of January, 1912, at the rate of 8 per cent per annum, and for the further sum of $75 attorney's fees and the sum of $20 costs and disbursements, which judgment was entered in the office of the clerk of the office of said court on the 6th day of May, 1912, and whereas it appeared that real property was attached in said action, it was further ordered and adjudged by said court that said real property described as follows to-wit: The southeast quarter of section 16, in township 17 south of range twelve east of the Willamette meridian in Crook county, Oregon, be sold by the sheriff of said county as under execution and the proceeds of said sale, after paying the costs and disbursements thereon, shall be applied upon the said judgment, and if the proceeds of such sale be insufficient the plaintiff to have judgment and execution against the said defendants to recover such balance unpaid. Notice is hereby given that I have levied upon the above property and that I will on the 20th day of September, 1912,

the same being Friday of said week, at 2 o'clock p. m. of the said day, at the north door of the court house in Prineville, Crook county, Oregon, sell to the highest bidder for cash, all the right, title and interest the said defendants, Emmet Harris and Maude B. Harris, his wife, had in and to the said real property on the 6th day of May, 1912, to satisfy said judgment costs and disbursements and accruing costs.

Dated and published for the first time, this 8th day of August, 1912.

T. S. BALFOUR,
Sheriff of Crook county, Oregon.
