

Before you sign an application for Life insurance in any other company Examine the superiority of

OREGON LIFE

The Only Life Insurance Company "Exclusively Oregon"

The sworn statement of all Life Insurance Companies on file at the State Insurance Department, Salem, show that

In 1906) Oregon Life The Only
In 1908) Life Insurance
In 1911) Company

Exclusively Oregon, sold more policies than any other company.

Oregon Life is keeping all of its policies

OREGON LIFE has more insurance in force in Crook County than any other company

BEST FOR OREGONIANS

Main Office Corbett Building, Fifth and Morrison, Portland

A. L. MILLS, Pres. L. SAMUEL, Gen'l Man'g E. N. STRONG, Agency Supervisor

LOCAL MENTION

J. H. Fryer was a business visitor Monday.

Hugh Lister returned from Portland Friday where his family will spend the winter.

C. E. Miller, Pacific coast manager of the American Bankers' Insurance Co., is in Prineville this week. He has established an agency at the Crook County Bank.

The M. W. A. Band, assisted by some of the best local talent in the city, will give a musical entertainment at the M. E. church Thursday, October 10. Program will appear next week.

There will be a Food Exchange given by the ladies of the Equal Suffrage League, Saturday, September 28, from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. at Winick's store. Come and purchase some of the good things for your Sunday dinner.

At the Presbyterian church Sunday, Sept. 29th.—Bible school, 10 a. m.; public worship, 11 a. m. Subject for morning sermon, "A Square Deal Plus a Homestead. Good music. Young People's meeting at 6:30 p. m. Public worship at 7:30 p. m.—M. A. Prater, minister.

Houston & Morris of Paulina sold a bunch of dry cows the first of the week to Stroud & Hall of this place for $15 a head. The owners of the stock left Paulina with the intention of going to Portland, but concluded the Prineville offer was better than taking a chance further away from home.

Miss Alma Gitchel, assisted by local talent, will give a recital Friday evening, Oct. 4, in Commercial Club hall, for the purpose of raising funds to buy a piano for the Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church. The need of an instrument has long been felt by the young people, and Miss Gitchel has kindly tendered her services to help supply the want.

Mrs. T. H. Beeman and family have moved into town from Paulina to take advantage of our excellent school system.

Rev. Prater says that it pays to advertise as he had more men at his morning service last week than at any one time since he came here.

The Ladies Annex will meet next Tuesday, October 1st. Mrs. Chas. Elkins, Mrs. Frank Elkins and Mrs. Hauer will be the hostesses for the afternoon.

The ladies in charge of the art department for the Crook county fair request that all persons having anything in this line to exhibit will be sure to have it at the pavilion not later than October 15th. Those living in outside districts and wishing to send their exhibits may do so by addressing it to committee in charge of Art Department, Fair Grounds.

Mrs. Elmer Clark is teaching school at Vastora.

J. E. Parsons and son Guy passed through town Monday with two loads of fruit on their way to the Beaver creek country.—Mitchell Sentinel.

The owners and occupiers of lands in Prineville have one more chance to clean up the weeds before getting into trouble. Commencing next Tuesday all those who fail to comply with the ordinance will be arrested. Its money in your pocket to get busy now.

At the meeting of the Music Lover's Club last Tuesday Mrs. C. M. Elkins was elected president and Mrs. Edwards was re-elected secretary-treasurer. Beethoven was the subject of study in the musical history. Miss Frances Williams was elected to membership. Mrs. Adams was hostess.

...Second Annual...

Redmond Potato Show and Fair

To be held at

REDMOND, OREGON,
October 11 and 12

Liberal Premiums will be given on potatoes, and all kinds of Farm Produce. Competition open to any person in Crook county. For further particulars send for premium list to

A. J. HANEY, Secretary Redmond Commercial Club

LOCAL MENTION

Andrew Morrow was here from Grizzly Monday.

Born—Sept. 23, to the wife of Lloyd Powell, a boy.

Born—Sept. 23, to the wife of Clarence Ferguson, a boy.

Wm. Johnson of Deschutes was a business visitor to Prineville Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Warrweiler and Earl are registered at the Prineville.

Thomas Houston's little girl broke her leg while playing in a buggy at the Powell Butte school last Friday.

O. A. Pierre, cashier of the Mar-ra State Bank, and Attorney Irving were county seat visitors the first of the week.

The Misses Blanche and Ethel Williams left Monday for school. Miss Blanche goes to Oberlin to study music and Miss Ethel to enter the Willamette University.

Bill Hanley of Burns and C. E. S. Wood of Portland are slated to appear in Prineville October 15. They will speak on equal suffrage at Commercial Club Hall. Both are unique characters and have decided views on the subject. They will be worth hearing.

R. C. Horigan, who has been visiting his brother, J. W., left for his home in Missouri the first of the week. Mr. Horigan is an old railroad man. He has a passenger run out of St. Joe. Mrs. Cottrill, his mother, left with her son and his family to spend the winter back East.

Mrs. Eng of Chicago is visiting her brothers Ed and George Slayton. She was born and raised in Crook county. This is her first visit home in fourteen years. She was not prepared to see so many changes in Prineville, she said, but was delighted to meet her old schoolmates again. She will remain several weeks.

An old man by the name of Fleetwood was thrown from a horse Saturday afternoon at the Dixon ranch, north of town, and sustained severe cuts and bruises. He was riding after horses when the one he was on stumbled and threw the old man through a barbed wire fence. Dr. Edwards patched him up but it is too early to predict the result of his injuries.

Crook county will have some contenders for prizes at the Pendleton round-up in the persons of John Muir and Bill Smith, Old Pless Cheney of Harney county, but formerly of Crook, wants to get into the game, too, at Pendleton. He thinks he can show a few tricks to the younger buckaroos. By Bennett and Calvin Morris will help root the Crook county boys to victory.

LOCAL MENTION

Fred Powell was here from Paulina, Monday.

Judge Ellis was here Monday attending to probate matters.

Albert Noble left yesterday to take in the Pendleton round-up.

Ruben Boyton, Jr., of Post, left Tuesday for the round-up at Pendleton.

Messrs. Staats, McKeynolds, Linton and Beaver were Bend visitors to the dance Saturday evening.

LOCAL MENTION.

State Bank Inspector Wright was in Prineville Saturday.

Mrs. James Cantrell returned from Portland last week.

Miss Wanda Logan left Monday for Portland. Mrs. Squier, her mother, accompanied her for a short visit.

Thos. Summers and family of Cross Keys are visiting Mr. Sommer's mother in town for a few days.

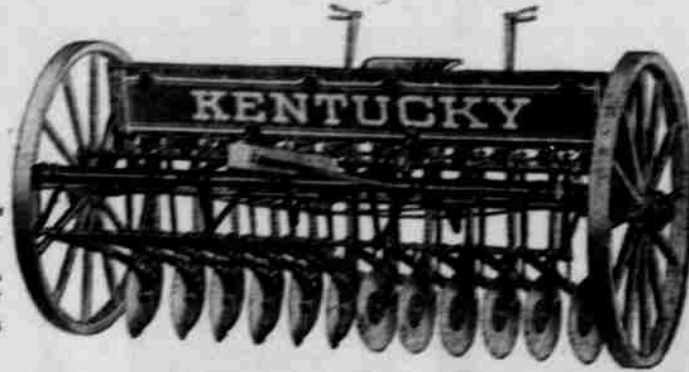

Good Farming

Requires Good Implements

The Leading
Grain Drill
is the

Kentucky

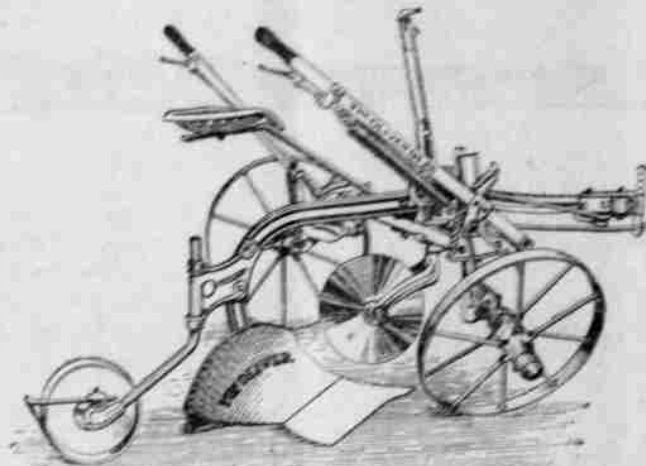

Light Weight,
Extra Strength,
Light Draft,
Requires few Repairs,
Will not Clog
Thousands in Use,

Satisfaction Sure,
We want to show
you where it beats
other drills.

Ask the man who owns one how he likes it. You need a drill now.
Call and see us about it.

We are selling lots of Oliver Plows in Sulky and Gangs

If you want a Plow come and look through our stock

Farming Tools
of all kinds at

C. W. Elkins

Prineville Flour Mis

We can supply your needs in the
Flour and Feed Line

FARMERS, Don't fail to take advantage of our
LIBERAL EXCHANGE SYSTEM
Stewart & Carlson

25 Pr. Ct. Discount

—On All—

Lumber, Shingles, Lath,
Doors, Windows,
Building Paper,
Roofing, Moulding
Etc. Etc. Etc.

25
Per Cent
Discount

TRUSTEE in bankruptcy offers above discount for cash. Limited time only.

Oregon Central Lumber and Supply Co.

OTTO C. PRICE, Trustee's Agent
METOLIUS, ORE.

D. P. Adamson & Co.,
Druggists

For Drugs, Patent Medicines, Chemicals
Lowney's Candies, Ice Cream Soda, Stationery and Prescriptions see

D. P. Adamson & Co.