

Buggy Peddlers

Arrested

The representatives of the Spaulding Manufacturing Co., of Grinnell, Iowa, were arrested last week at Redmond for selling goods in the county without a license. They had a hearing before Justice Kennedy, who held them under $100 bonds pending the final determination of injunction proceedings now before the supreme court. The buggy company has engaged several prosecuting attorneys of different counties in Oregon from interfering with its agents in any way until its case is settled by the courts. The company maintains that under the inter-state commerce law it does not have to pay a license.

This buggy company has a big advantage over our merchants in selling its goods. The outside concern has no settled habitation in this county. It pays no taxes. It does not help keep in repair the county roads over which it trails its wares to the consumer. It does not help maintain our schools, or in any way benefit the country. The money spent with outside concerns is lost to the county forever—it goes to build up communities elsewhere. Just as good buggies and just as cheap can be bought at home. Keep your money here.

Paulina Notes

Paulina, Ore., Sept. 23, 1912. The wind is blowing a gale here today. Boys look out for those straw hats and young ladies for that hobble skirt.

Miss Laura Leweling came in on the stage last Saturday from Prineville where she has been for the past few months to visit her sister who is sick.

Grant Miller returned to Paulina last week from Prineville where he has been with his wife who is very sick at the hospital.

Burt Cane gave a dance at the Paulina hall last Friday. A pleasant time was spent. Lots of fun and good music furnished by Chas. Birdsong and Ray Pordy. The people of this section wish Burt would get busy again soon.

Mr. Battie and sister left Paulina Sunday for Twin Falls, Idaho. They will be greatly missed by all who knew them and we hope they will soon return.

Miss Nettie McCullough, the Paulina postmistress, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Jennie Brown.

Mary Campbell who is working for Mrs. Brown spent last Sunday on her homestead near Barnes, Oregon. She reports everything fine in that section.

Miss Gracie Bland came home last week from a visit in the valley.

In the city it is fashionable to "rush the can." We know a place where they "rush a jar." How about it?

A. L. Mackintosh of Portland was in Paulina last week. He is visiting at the homes of M. L. Brown and I. B. Meyer.

Mr. Gardner is living in J. T. Faulkner's house where he will remain for the winter for the purpose of schooling his children.

Charlie Morris is working at the Paulina hotel.

Lost, strayed or stolen—One Roy Morris. When last seen was ranging near the hind wheels of a 3-inch wagon. Some pronounced him "Battie" when he left Paulina. A liberal reward will be paid for his whereabouts. RAMBLER.

Lamonta Items.

Miss Eva Hussey, who has been away for a long trip in the valley, visiting friends and relatives, has returned.

The harvest dance held in the Lamonta hall last Friday night was well attended. It was a pleasant affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Kerwood were visiting at the Lone Pine ranch Sunday.

One dozen black hens; 1 pen Silver Spangled Hamburgs, all good layers. Also a number of chickens and a few good roasts, dressed or undressed. Refer Dr. Fox's office or by letter. 9-19-12

Fine Farm for Sale.

Three hundred and twenty acres river bottom land, located on Crooked river, ten miles west of Prineville and ten miles from Redmond; 100 acres in alfalfa; 135 acres in wheat—the wheat is not threshed yet—and from 200 to 300 tons of hay and all the machinery; two gasoline engines; one automobile; one hay press; two wagons; hay hook; hay scales; one 2000-gallon water tank; and pipe to every corral; two large barns on place; good house and other outbuildings; alfalfa meal grinder; one-half interest in hay cutter; I own the ditch for irrigating it—the land is all under irrigation; two centrifugal pumps on the place; cement cellar and good tank house; one power wood saw, and other things too numerous to mention. This property is worth $35,000, but $27,000 will get the place if sold in thirty days. T. F. McALLISTER, Prineville, Ore. 9-19

Rev. Bulgin Had

A Close Call

Rev. Bulgin, the evangelist, and hunting party had a thrilling time in a terrific snowstorm in the Wyoming mountains, says a Vancouver, Wash., special to the Oregonian. Mr. and Mrs. Bulgin and son and Mr. and Mrs. Rose lived three days on three cans of frozen tomatoes and elk meat. The hunting party went in from Teton, Wyo., after making a trip through Yellowstone National Park with Mr. and Mrs. George L. Rose, singers, who travel with them. At Norris Basin a bear chased Mr. Bulgin's horse into a mudhole where the animal met death. Several elk were killed by the party.
