

Band Concert In Circus Tent

The band that is furnishing the music for the fair is proving a very strong attraction. Tonight it will give a concert in the circus tent from 7:45 to 9.

E. CIOFFI, LEADER.

After the concert the circus will hold sway for the rest of the evening. The tent has been moved to the Masonic lot on Main street.

LOCAL MENTION

Will Ford and wife are over from John Day to see the fair.

The Burns-Prineville baseball tournament ended in favor of Prineville.

Mrs. Alex Thomson of Portland is visiting relatives in Prineville this week.

Rev. M. A. Prater has returned from the Synod at Oregon. He reports a good meeting.

William McMurray, general passenger agent, and D. E. Clark, livestock agent, O.-W. R. & N. Co., came up from Portland today to see the fair.

A tennis tournament is being held today. There are eight men from Hood River, two from Metolius and two from Redmond to contend on the Prineville courts. Bend could not come.

Sheriff Balfour started for Lakeview Sunday to bring in Shorty Allen and Punk Robison, who were arrested by the Lake county officials last week and who are badly wanted in this county on the charge of shipping three cars of horses stolen from the local range during August.

Fire of unknown origin at 5 o'clock Saturday morning destroyed Linster's Hall, Bend's big opera house, the dance hall and the skating rink, together with the machine shop and garage in the building. The loss is $17,000, with insurance of $11,500.

Indian Agent Gilbert Hall and party arrived in the city Sunday evening from the Warm Springs reservation and have been in attendance at the teachers' institute and fair. The party included Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Gaffin, Mrs. Shirk, Mr. MacNeilly and Mr. Knox of the Simnasho day school and a dozen Indian scholars, six boys and six girls. The youngsters are good representatives of Uncle Sam's wards and have attracted considerable attention during their visit. The trip from the reservation was made by wagon and hacks, the party camping at Madras Saturday night, and the return journey will be commenced Thursday, after a day at the fair.

The concert given by the M. W. A. Band, assisted by some of Prineville's best musical talent, at the M. E. church last Thursday, was a success from every standpoint. Each number was rendered in a creditable manner and each responded to an encore. Owing to the inability of Mr. Ashley Forrest, of Redmond, to attend as advertised, his number was filled by Warren Glaze.

C. H. Curtis, for many years a resident of Tillamook county, after a thorough inspection of several localities in Central Oregon, has purchased of F. W. Dunn a 320-acre relinquishment on the south side of Powell Buttes, and will soon move his family to their new home. The land is well adapted to orchard use and Mr. Curtis plans to set out a goodly number of trees as a starter.

Born—October 11, to the wife of Walter M. Messinger, a girl.

Mr. Lounsbury, general freight agent of the O.-W. R. & N. Co. was in Prineville this week attending the fair.
