The Direct Way

By Frances Squire Potter.

When pushed to the wall, objectors to equal suffrage nowadays take refuge behind one of two platitudes. The first is used too often by women whose suffrage is bound to come, but at present there are more pressing needs. "Let us get our schools improved, and our cities cleaned up, and then we shall have time to take up the cause of equal suffrage." Is not this a survival of that old vice of womankind—indirection? What is the use of getting the power to do something after you have had it done by somebody else? How much harder it is to get someone else to do it for you than to do it yourself!

But that is not the worst. Besides being harder, it is less effective. It is humiliating. It is false to American principles. We educate our men and women alike and together; on the same terms they engage in business and bear the burdens of taxation. Shall we go back on this whole theory when it comes to its fundamental application? The suffrage issue should not be put off, but it should be placed first, as making the other issues easier and permanent. pd. adv.

Deny Liquor Men Issued Pamphlet

The following self explanatory letter of denial has been received by The Journal, accompanied by a request for publication, from the Oregon State Association Opposed to the Extension of Suffrage to Women:

"The Oregon State Association Opposed to the Extension of the Suffrage to Women wishes to deny statements made last Monday at the W. C. T. U. convention, when, according to press reports, it was announced from the platform that the liquor interests were circulating thousands of copies of a pamphlet of which Rev. Clarence True Wilson is the author." That pamphlet is issued by and bears the name of the Oregon State Association Opposed to the Extension of the Suffrage to Women, so that the statement that it was issued by any other persons or organization was a gratuitous fabrication, and known to be such by all persons making it.

"It has become the fashion for suffragists to attribute all their defeats to the 'liquor men.' This has been the cry in Ohio, and after the successive majorities rolled up against them, in Oregon. As a matter of fact, not one of the six suffrage states has prohibition, and in a recent map published by the national W. C. T. U., Oregon stands out conspicuously dry among the surrounding wet and suffrage states.

Dr. Wilson's pamphlet is a valued part of the organized protest against the imposition of woman suffrage upon the women of Oregon, a protest which is signed and sent out by the following women of the association:

"Mrs. J. F. Bailey, president; Miss Failing, first vice president; Mrs. R. W. Wilbur, second vice president; Mrs. Wallace McCamant, treasurer; Miss Eleanor Gile, secretary; Mrs. H. W. Corbett, Mrs. A. E. Rockey, Mrs. C. H. Lewis, Mrs. David Loring, Mrs. J. B. Montgomery, Mrs. W. C. Alvord, Mrs. Gordon Voorhies, Mrs. R. W. Lewis, Mrs. James N. Davis, Mrs. Alma D. Katz, Mrs. S. T. Hamilton, Mrs. Herbert Holman, Mrs. C. A. Johns, Baker; Mrs. J. H. Templeton, Prineville; Miss Bush, Salem; Mrs. W. I. Vawter, Medford; Mrs. Elizabeth Voekey, Ashland, executive committee; Mrs. E. H. Shepard, Hood River; Mrs. A. J. Richardson, Joseph; Mrs. J. M. Connell, Hillsboro; Miss Rita Alderman, Falls City; Mrs. M. C. McFarland, Airlie; Mrs. F. E. Harlow, Troutdale; Mrs. George T. Flavel, Astoria; Mrs. W. S. McFadden, Corvallis; Mrs. Dan O'Neill, Oregon City; Miss Emily Loveridge, superintendent Good Samaritan hospital, Portland." pd. adv.

One on the Duke.

On the occasion of the Duke of Connaught's recent visit to New York the royal gentleman got a jolt from a sprightly young American woman. During a dinner the duke humorously rallied her on the liberty taken by Americans in clipping the king's English. Later in the evening his royal highness, in the course of conversation, asked the young lady what place in London had most impressed her during her last visit.

"Sinful, your highness," was the reply.

"Sinful?" said the duke, with a puzzled air.

"Oh, yes, there is nothing in the town so wonderful to me."

"I'm afraid," answered the duke, with a kindly smile, "that you know my London better than I. Sinful? Is it a theater, a cafe—what is it?"

"A church, your highness. We Americans call it St. Paul, but as you call St. John, St. John, this, it seems, must be Sinful!"

Why Should a Woman?

Why should a woman be born, educated, married, divorced and buried under laws made exclusively by men?

The right to govern is conferred by the governed and the governed are not exclusively males, the governed are men and women, for women are responsible before the law.

Why, if we desire to be just and fair, should we not allow the women to exercise what should be an equal right with men.

Free Speech By Foul Mouths

There is a foul-mouthed, indecent element in the city of Portland nightly insulting the decent, law-abiding citizens and openly reviling the flag. They have sent representatives to surrounding towns and in the name of free speech denounce the efforts to remove them from the streets. In the names of our wives and children we ask your support and vote for No. 370, Voters' pamphlet.

The Boycot and Picket

The employers of Oregon are not slave drivers, as is claimed by those who live by the sweat of their deluded victims. This fact is self-evident in any part of the state. The boycott and the picket are the representative of a low order of intelligence, seeking by fear and bludgeon to force a bad cause. Remove the system by a vote for No. 368.
