

REMOVAL SALE! REMOVAL SALE!

Removal Sale!

Last Saturday was a big day in our store. People bought easily and briskly and were more than satisfied with the qualities and prices. And for that matter why shouldn't they?

Removal Sale!

A Few Removal Sale Prices

Heavy 12 1-2c Outings 10c. 75 Dress Goods 55c. 20c Curtain Scrims 16c; 27 1-2 Curtain Scrims 20c. Little boys' all wool Suits $1 to $1.50. Little Pants 45c. 10c Apron Checks 12 yards for $1.

We are selling ladies' Shoes for $1 to $1.50 that are up to today and made by the best shoe builders of America. Then there's a fine Navy Blue Serge suit for ladies at $12.45 that cannot be had regular under $17.50. We are making prices on Children's Coats that will really make you stop and consider how they could be made for the amount of the price on the ticket.

Men's $4 Corduroy Pants for $2.95; $3.50 grade for $2.75; woolen pants for $2 and less—in fact you would need to see them to believe it.

Choice Dried Prunes 12 pounds for $1.

Slightly used Bed Springs $1.10. We can save you from 50c to $1.50 per pair on Blankets to put over them.

We have some bargains in Cream Separators, Disc Harrows, Iron Wheel Farm Wagons and Sewing Machines, that will save you the big profit generally made on them. We are looking for you at our store, to look over our many special savings during our Removal sale.

Make a Saving

You might as well make a saving if you are going to spend the money, for here's where a dollar will go further than anywhere else in the town. And now that the people are really talking about it we are more than anxious to show you what we can save you money on.

Saves Money!

Collins W. Elkins, Prineville, Ore.

LOCAL MENTION.

Dr. Ketchum and wife are over from Bend.

The Eastern Star will hold their regular meeting Thanksgiving evening.

Mrs. Kayler left Saturday for The Dalles where she will visit relatives and friends for a few weeks.

The members of the W. C. T. U. have called off their entertainment on account of the revival services now going on at the Baptist church.

Clement W. Ausman, a young reporter from Portland, was in Prineville yesterday on his way to Burns. He will visit Bill Hanley over there for a time in order to regain his health.

The Artisans celebrated their 18th anniversary Monday evening. Members and invited guests had a pleasant time at Belknap hall where lunch was served and a short musical program was rendered.

Walter D. Talley was thrown from a horse at Gus Rose's place on the McKay, and suffered the fracture of a couple of ribs, besides injuring his spine. Dr. Edwards received a hurry call to patch up his injuries, which will confine him to his bed for some time.

Methodist church Sunday, Nov. 24—Morning subject, "A Christian, or What It Takes to Constitute a Person a Christian." Evening subject, "Is the World Getting Better?" You will find a cordial welcome at all our services. Strangers especially invited. The choir will render special music at each service, Mrs. E. L. Coe, leader.

R. O. Hooven of Roberts was buying his winter supplies in Prineville the first of the week. Mr. Hooven is comparatively a new comer in this country. He bought several hundred acres of land near Roberts where he is getting close to nature. He was formerly in business in Oakland, Calif., but his health demanded a change of occupation. He thinks this country is all right and has a most promising future.

Miss Jacques was tendered a complimentary dinner at the Oregon Grill by friends Sunday afternoon. The young lady was over on a visit from her school near Bend and the occasion was celebrated by a "turkey feed." A special musical program was given during the afternoon. Those present were: Messrs. A. R. Bowman, Warren Brown, D. H. Peoples, John Stevenson, A. W. Battles, Robertson, Warren Glaze, and the Misses Jacques, Cassidy, Hubbard, Engdahl, Knox, Barnes.

LOCAL MENTION

There will be a thanksgiving ball at Templeton hall, Thursday evening, Nov. 28.

Chas. Paxton and C. W. Freeman of Lamonta were business visitors the last of the week.

Frank Brocius and party got back Saturday from a duck hunt at Crain Prairie. Ducks are plentiful, they say.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Peck of Culver leave this week for a three months' visit to Missouri, Kentucky and Southern California.

John E. Ryan of the Tules was over Monday. He met Mrs. Ryan at Redmond Tuesday morning and both left for a trip to Portland.

There was a good attendance and a good time at the 500 party given by the ladies of the Annex last Friday evening at Club Hall. Mrs. Haner and Mr. Ellis won the prizes.

Material for the Cove Power Co.'s lines is coming in by train every day. Eight miles of the line is completed, connecting Culver and Metolius. Work will be pushed to Madras and then to Prineville. Car shortage is responsible for the delay in securing supplies.

The members of the Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church have closed their contest for new members. The ladies were divided into two divisions—one headed by Mrs. Collins Elkins and the other by Mrs. J. W. Smith. The losing side had to furnish a banquet. Mrs. Smith and collaborators lost. Thirty new names were added to the membership roll.

The Ladies Annex held a business meeting Monday afternoon. Among other things the ladies ordered a set of Stoddard's Lectures for the Annex library. Members of the club will now be able to take delightful journeys to other lands without the inconvenience of travel. The ladies decided to meet tomorrow afternoon for the purpose of embellishing their club rooms. Every member is wanted. Take your needle with you.

J. F. Taylor has sold his ranch below town to Thos. F. Barnes. The price paid was $30,000. There are 440 acres in the place. Mr. Taylor reserved a team of horses, some cows, hay, grain, etc. Everything else is included in the deal. Mr. Barnes is a wealthy New Yorker who wants to get close to nature in the salubrious climate of Central Oregon.

M. R. Biggs is at Portland this week, visiting the Northwest Products Exposition. He also will go to Heppner and purchase some blooded stock before returning.

LOCAL MENTION

George H. Russell of Spokane is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Chas. F. Condart, this week.

Poles for the extension of the P. L. & P. Co.'s new service began to arrive in Prineville last Saturday.

C. Sam Smith and wife are registered at the Perkins in Portland. They are taking in the Land Products Show.

The Ladies of the Baptist church have changed the date for holding their bazaar to Thursday, December 5. The place for holding the same will be announced next week.

Revs. Vernon and Williams, noted Sabbath School men, will spend next Sabbath at the Presbyterian church. They will occupy the pulpit both morning and evening and hold an educational institute Sunday in the afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The Thanksgiving dinner which was advertised to be given in the interest of the M. W. A. band has been withdrawn and instead the ladies will give their Saturday pastry sale at R. L. Jordan & Co.'s store, beginning at 10 o'clock a. m. Come out and help a good cause and assist the boys to swell the instrument fund.

Rebekah Convention

District Convention No. 30 was held in Prineville Saturday, November 15, with May Greer, grand president of the Rebekah Assembly in attendance.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Aithena Weston of Redmond, chairman; Sister French of Bend, vice-chairman; E. True Shattuck of Prineville, secretary.

The following officers were appointed: Amanda Cohrs, marshal; Ethel Reams, conductor; Sister Gillette of Redmond, chaplain; Sisters Bates and Lattin of Bend as I. G. and O. G.

Some very instructive remarks were made by Sister Greer.

In the evening the initiatory work was exemplified by Lookout, Rebekah Lodge, after which all were seated to a bountiful lunch.

E. T. S.

Dr. Ketchum

Will be in Prineville this week. Old and new patients can secure his services by leaving word at the home of St. Hodges. 11-21

For Sale or Trade

Light 2-seated hack; good as new. See R. B. or C. E. Cross. 10-10-imp

Lost

Dark bay mare, weight 1200 pounds, brand three bars on right hip, another brand on left, shod, mane roached, short tail, star in forehead, chunky built. Reward. Write Walter M. Brown Fort Rock, Ore. 11-14-imp

A Pretty Wedding.

Tuesday evening in this city a very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Mills, when Madge Ethel Mills became the bride of Arthur Wurzeiler, Justice of the Peace A. H. Kennedy officiating. Only immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present, but they made a numerous gathering. After the ceremony the happy young couple took an automobile for the railroad are now in Portland for the honeymoon.

Arthur Wurzeiler is the eldest son of Will Wurzeiler, long a merchant of Prineville. He is a promising young business man, well liked throughout the county, and his bride is equally popular in city and county social circles.

Hamilton-Montgomery Wedding

One of the prettiest weddings of the year at Grizzly was when Geo. E. Hamilton made Miss Florence C. Montgomery his bride Nov. 10 at the Grizzly school house.

The building was beautifully decorated with white and pink garlands and flowers. After the ceremony there was a basket dinner.

The bride and groom were the recipients of many valuable and useful presents. Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton will be at home to their friends at the old Wills place.

Married.

At the office of Justice of the Peace Kennedy, this city, at high noon today, George F. Storkmann to Mrs. Pearl Weisgerber. The happy couple will remain in the city for a few days and then take their departure for Lakeview, where they will reside. Mr. Storkmann was for some years a resident of Prineville, while Mrs. Storkmann is a Harney county girl.

Buckingham & Hecht Boots and Shoes

Cannot be beaten. We have a large stock of the best styles.—Collins W. Elkins.

Fruit Trees!

Central Oregon Grown

The only kind you can afford to plant. ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUE FREE. Write for one. Prices low enough to surprise you.

Lafollette Nursery Co.

Prineville, - 6-5 - Oregon

Gormley, The Tailor

Tailoring

Blues, Browns Purples, and Grays just arrived. Most select assortment of popular shades for mens winter wear, tailored to your order and built to your figure. You choose the cloth. Fit or no sale. Sample Suits for sale, ready to wear, $16.50 to $40

GORMLEY, The Tailor

You Can't Beat 'Em

But you CAN eat 'em, and enjoy 'em, too. There is no better or fresher or nicer flavored fish in the market than we are receiving consignments of daily. We carry every kind in its proper season and guarantee the freshness of all we sell.

City Meat Market

D. P. Adamson & Co.,

Druggists

For Drugs, Patent Medicines, Chemicals Lowney's Candies, Ice Cream Soda, Stationery and Prescriptions see

D. P. Adamson & Co.

W. A. BOOTH, Pres. D. F. STEWART, Vice-Pres. C. M. ELKINS, Cashier

CROOK COUNTY BANK

PRINEVILLE, OREGON

Assets		Liabilities
Loans and Discounts	$129,876.26	Capital paid in full	$50,000.00
Overdrafts	2,311.33	Surplus	10,000.00
Furniture and fixtures	2,395.44	Undivided profits	2,860.32
Real estate	6,706.00	Deposits	140,140.75
Cash on hand and due from banks	$47,809.95
	$188,099.98		$188,099.98