

WILSON DECIDES ON AN EXTRA SESSION

Tariff Will Be Taken Up; Congress to Meet Not Later Than April 15.

New York.—Governor Wilson announced that immediately after his inauguration as president of the United States he would call an extraordinary session of congress to convene not later than April 15 for the purpose of revising the tariff.

The president-elect has gone to Bermuda for a vacation and will return December 16. To set at rest speculation as to what he would do with regard to tariff revision, he issued the following statement:

"I shall call congress together in extraordinary session not later than April 15. I shall do this not only because I think that the pledges of the party ought to be redeemed as promptly as possible, but also because I know it to be in the interest of business that all uncertainty as to what the particular items of tariff revision are to be should be removed as soon as possible."

Since his election, the governor has been sounding public opinion on the advisability of calling a special session and has found the demand for one practically unanimous.

Washington.—Clerks of the house ways and means committee have begun work upon tariff revision bills for the special session of congress which President-elect Wilson has stated he will summon to meet next April. Democratic leaders have been confident for some time that the incoming administration would force the tariff issue to an immediate trial, and much of the detail work of preparing the bills is under way.

Suggestions have been made by influential members of the senate, within the last week, that a joint committee, representing house and senate democrats, be informally selected before the special session begins, to go over the tariff situation and harmonize whatever differences may exist between the democrats of the two bodies.

Illinois System Assailed

Chicago.—Miss Virginia Brooks, the young girl vigilante, who delivered West Hammond from its vice-ridden condition, in a stirring speech before 1600 women who had gathered to participate in the suffrage jubilee at Hull House, attacked what she termed Illinois' corrupt legal system.

In short, snappy terms that brought cheer after cheer from her feminine audience, she described how corrupt legal decisions are handed down from the municipal bench, and how the state's attorney's office is swayed by political power.

WILSON CONTRIBUTORS MANY

Largest Subscription was $40,000 From Charles R. Crane

New York.—Complying with the new law, the names of more than 91,000 persons who contributed to the campaign fund of Woodrow Wilson for the presidency, were made public here. This is the largest number of persons ever recorded as contributing to a campaign fund.

The largest subscription was for $40,000, from Charles R. Crane, and the next $35,000 from Cleveland Dodge. Most of the donations were less than $10,000. They amounted in all to $1,100,000.

Apples Bring $10 a Box

Spokane.—With the selection of 100 boxes of apples, for which James J. Hill, of St. Paul, annually pays $10 a box, the Fifth National Apple Show closed Saturday.

The fact that the fruitgrowers' conference at its final session failed to endorse the plan for a general conference of the growers here December 16 to effect an organization of growers in the northwestern states to provide a common channel for marketing, was regarded as indicating that the proposed organization would meet opposition.

Sloop Driven on Rocks; Crew Saved

Newport, Or.—The gas sloop Condor was wrecked here when, in attempting to enter the harbor, she lost her propeller and was driven against the rocks at the end of the north jetty. Her crew of three, W. H. Dority, master; George Waddell, engineer, and George Mustoe, mate, were dextrously rescued by the government life-savers, who battled their way through heavy seas to the sloop's side.

Versatile Craft is Tested

Hammondsport, N. Y.—Clenn H. Curtiss' aerial terra-marine craft, which flies like a bird, skims the water like a fish, and rolls along the land like a 90-horse-power racing car, was successfully tried out here.

The new machine has its wheels forward of the center of gravity and is equipped with a tail skid.

MILITIA PLAN OUTLINED

Acting Secretary of War Asks Co-operation of Governors

Washington.—One of the most important moves in recent years to prepare the national militia for use in time of war is proposed in letters addressed by Acting Secretary Oliver to the governors of all the states and territories inviting their co-operation in the war college plans for the organization of the militia into 12 tactical divisions.

The letters point out that if the militia is to be used as a field force effectively in war time it can be done by this system of divisions, and to insure the proper working of the plan all of the details should be worked out in time of peace.

I. W. W. Reach Honolulu

Honolulu.—Reaching out across the Pacific Ocean, the Industrial Workers of the World have begun a campaign of organization among the laboring classes of the Hawaiian Islands. Their propaganda has been spread among the working people and the representatives of the organization have introduced their doctrine to the plantation laborers and the Japanese.

First Land Show in Northwest

Portland.—The Pacific Northwest Land Products Show, the first in Portland and one of the greatest ever held in the United States, opened here Monday. For the first time people of the northwest will have a really big opportunity to learn the productive capacity of the soil.

PRESIDENT FAVORS SIX YEAR TERM

New York.—Declaring himself in favor of a single six-year term for the president and the amendment of the constitution so as to give cabinet officers seats in the senate, President Taft made his first important speech since his defeat for reelection before the Lotus club here. In a speech which he himself called a swan song, gently railing at William J. Bryan's suggestion that ex-presidents be given debating power without votes in congress, Taft closed with a toast to:

"The health and success of the able, patriotic and distinguished gentleman who is to be the next president of the United States."

President Taft reviewed at length the problems which the chief executive must face, and urged that the appointments of "local patronage" posts be taken from him to enable him to give more time to putting into effect the pledges of the party that elected him.

Alluding humorously to the criticisms to which he has been subjected, the president declared that he foresaw the end of "indiscriminate muckraking" and unfounded criticisms of public officials, which, he said, had done "grave injustice to many honorable men."

A SUMMARY OF IMPORTANT EVENTS

National, Political and Personal News Items Briefly Sketched.

At an initial cost of $2,000,000, electrification of the Denver & Rio Grande railway will begin at once.

Martial law was again proclaimed in the Kanawha coal fields by Governor Glascock of West Virginia.

The weather office at Cordova, Alaska, reports that the precipitation between January 1 and November 1 of this year was 171 inches.

The contract system of prison labor was condemned in the report of the committee on prison labor presented at the congress of the American Prison association.

Statistics available in the office of Secretary of State Jordan, showed that one in every 27 residents of California owned some sort of motor vehicle on October 1 this year.

San Francisco has lost its legal fight for the dissolution of the merger of the Bell and the Home telephone systems, the court ruling the city has no right to give a franchise which forbids sale.

Another coal famine, greater than the shortage that handicapped Chicago last winter, is imminent, according to local dealers. Prices of all kinds of coal to the small consumer have been raised from 25 to 75 cents a ton.

Amid a storm of applause, a resolution was adopted by the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs demanding a state law forbidding the granting of marriage licenses unless applicants could produce guarantees of their good health.

Twenty-three persons at least were killed or badly wounded on the American side of the Mexican boundary last year by bullets fired during the fighting between the rebels and the government forces under Madero. This fact was developed by the special army board, headed by Colonel Francis Kernan.

People in the News

Lu Cheng Hsiang, ex-premier of China and minister of foreign affairs, has been reappointed to the latter office.

Harry Wolverton, who experienced little success as manager of the New York Highlanders last year, has been signed to handle the Sacramento club of the Coast League.

Lieutenant-Colonel Joseph Gibson, who was in charge of the troops that hanged John Brown at Harper's Ferry, is dead at his plantation at Verdona, Ala. He was 79 years old.

Miss Florence F. Wilson, of New York, eclipsed all fast typewriting records by writing at the rate of 117 words a minute for one hour. The best previous record was 112 words a minute.

Captain John Osterhuis, convicted of smuggling Chinese into San Francisco bay from Ensenada, Mex., was sentenced to one year in the Alameda county jail and to pay $1000 fine or serve 500 days additional.

General Homer Lea, the mysterious little hunchback who wielded great power in China, left an estate of only $4000, according to his will, which was filed at Los Angeles. The small extent of Lea's property is a great surprise, for he was generally considered wealthy.

Washington, D. C., News

Illiteracy in the United States has decreased during the last decade from 10.7 to 7.5 per cent, it is shown by statistics just given out by the census bureau.

Representative Henry of Texas states that he will not be a candidate for speaker of the house at the next session of congress. It now seems certain that Speaker Clark will have no opposition.

There were 1453 men killed in and about coal mines of the United States during the first eight months of this year, according to an announcement of the bureau of mines. The fatalities in 1911 numbered 2719.

The interstate commission has granted relief from the fourth section to establish rates on apples from the north Pacific coast and southeastern points pending action by the commission on applications filed before February 17, 1911.

President Taft issued a proclamation fixing the rates that foreign shipping shall pay for passage through the Panama Canal. The proclamation establishes a merchant vessel rate of $1.29 per net ton in actual carrying capacity, with a reduction of 40 per cent ship in ballast.

The first real legislative work of congress began Wednesday, when the subcommittee of the house committee on appropriation took up consideration of the legislative, executive and judicial appropriations. The measure last year carried $35,000,000, and an equally large appropriation is expected at the approaching session.
