PENSIONS NOT APPROVED OF

Believed Beneath Dignity of Ex-Presidents to Accept Carnegie's Offer.

Washington.—Government officials and other prominent men here almost unanimously disapprove of Andrew Carnegie's plan to pension future retiring presidents of the United States. It is the general opinion that the acceptance of a pension would be beneath the dignity of ex-presidents. Congressmen are discussing the possibility of congress providing for former chief executives. Many favor the plan advanced by William J. Bryan to seat them either in the house or senate.

The proposed pensions are to be paid from the Carnegie corporation, the trustees of which issued the following statement:

"Provision has been made through this corporation for a pension for each future ex-president and his unmarried widow of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) per year as long as they remain unprovided for by the nation, that they may be able to spend the latter part of their lives devoting their unique knowledge gained of public affairs to the public good, free from pecuniary cares. These pensions will be promptly offered to the ex-presidents or their widows, so that no application will be required from them."

Mining Congress Meets

Spokane, Wash.—With the prospect of a lively fight being waged on what its opponents call "The political heresy of the new nationalism," as practiced by the last two administrations at Washington, in regard to the administration of the laws governing the development of the public domain, the fifteenth annual session of the American Mining Congress began its sessions here Monday with a large attendance of delegates from all over the country, but chiefly from the western states.

HOCKIN BOND IS DOUBLED BY COURT

Indianapolis.—Imprisonment of Herbert S. Hockin, secretary-treasurer of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Ironworkers, and one of the 45 defendants, in default of an increased bond which was required by the court "because he had deceived every one," the denouncing by the district attorney of a woman writer in the court room as an "anarchist"; and the repudiation by attorneys for the defense of some of the acts of the defendants, were among sensational incidents at the dynamite conspiracy trial.

The order followed a severe arraignment of Hockin by District Attorney Miller. Miller asked the court to raise the bonds of Hockin and the other six members of the executive board of the ironworkers from $10,000 to $20,000. Hockin's bail was raised, and in default he went to jail, but Judge Anderson declined to increase the other bonds.

"The evidence shows that Hockin cannot be trusted at any time, any day, in any road, at any place, or on any proposition," declared Judge Anderson. "Hockin has betrayed every person he has ever associated with and would undoubtedly betray his bondsmen."

The action followed a flood of evidence against Hockin, who was declared to have been in the employ of detectives soon after the Los Angeles Times explosion. He was also accused of having told a witness of over-hearing John J. McNamara talk to President Lynch, of the International Typographical Union, about "an explosion on the Pacific Coast."

SUFFRAGISTS DECIDE TO ENTER POLITICS

Officers and Members Will Participate in Affairs of Political Parties.

Philadelphia.—The National Woman Suffrage Association, by an overwhelming vote, 389 1/2 to 38 1/2, sanctioned participation by its officers and members in the affairs of political parties.

Miss Jane Addams, of Chicago, precipitated the issue. When she allied herself with a political party in June she started an opposition within the suffrage organization. She frankly told the convention that she had forgotten she was a member of the suffrage association when she committed herself to the political movement. Miss Addams' political activity caused Mrs. George Howard Lewis, of Buffalo, N. Y., to prepare an amendment to the constitution directing that all officers and members of the association shall maintain a strictly non-partisan attitude toward all political parties unless they come from states where equal suffrage is in force.

The debate for and against the amendment proceeded fast and furious, under a rule limiting speeches to three minutes, and for nearly two hours Miss Addams was commended and condemned in turn.

Great excitement was injected into the scene by the charge that Socialists among the officers of the association had been disseminating Socialist literature in the form of stickers. The Socialist delegates asserted that the stickers had not been issued by their organization, and Miss Jessie Ashley, of New York, treasurer of the association, assumed full responsibility for the circulation of the stickers.

A demand was made for an executive session, that the turmoil might be quieted and the affairs of the association arranged behind closed doors, so as not to be exposed in the newspapers to the world, but it failed.

BULGARIANS SHIFT FORCES

Austria Officially Denies Belligerent Intentions

London.—Pending the outcome of the negotiations for an armistice in the Balkan War, all the necessary dispositions are being made along the Tchatalja lines for a resumption of the war should the negotiations fail.

Bulgaria is shipping her forces from Saloniki in Greek transports, presumably for transfer to Gallipoli Peninsula, where Turkey is also strengthening her forces by Anatolian troops.

Here an attempt will be made by the allies, assisted by the Greek fleet, to take the Dardanelles.

The official statements issued at Vienna continue to defy the reported war preparations. Letters from Vienna have reached London, however, confirming reports that the strength of six army corps is being increased and that a large number of reservists have been called out.

Gompers Elected Thirty-Second Time

Rochester, N. Y.—Samuel Gompers was re-elected president for the thirty-second time of the American Federation of Labor by an overwhelming majority over Max Hayes of Cleveland, of the International Typographical union and well known socialist leader. Gompers received 11,974 votes to 5074 for Hayes, his only opponent. The convention re-elected all the other officers, the vice presidents by acclamation.

BOY TELLS OF KILLING

Leads Sheriff To Grave He Made For Stepfather

Oregon City, Or.—Retracing his steps on the night more than two years ago when he slew his stepfather, D. M. Letzel, Glen E. Gault, a lad of 19, led Sheriff Mass, Coroner Wilson and Assessor Jack, of Clackamas county, to the scene of the crime, near Scott's Mills where the body was buried.

Young Gault, who has been working on a milk ranch near Astoria, walked up to Patrolman Converse in Portland last week and told him that he had killed his stepfather, D. M. Letzel, and would like to give himself up. He claimed his stepfather attacked him with a kitchen knife one evening two years ago, while he was chopping wood, and he killed him in self defense and buried the body.

Anti-Oriental Law Urged

Sacramento.—A state-wide movement to prevent Orientals from owning property in California was begun here at a meeting of the executive committee of the Northern district of California women's clubs.

30,000 Engineers Gain Concessions

Washington.—Thirty thousand locomotive engineers on 52 eastern railroads gain a partial victory in their demand for more wages, under the award announced by the board of arbitration.

Why Salves Can't Cure Eczema

Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and cannot penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged.

This—the quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the well known liquid eczema remedy, oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., as compounded in D.D.D. Prescription.

We have sold other remedies for skin troubles but none that we can recommend as highly as this for we know that D.D.D. stops the itch at once. We just want you to give D.D.D. a trial. That will be enough to prove it.

Of course all other druggists have D.D.D. Prescriptions—go to them if you can't come to us—but don't accept some big profit substitute.

But if you come to our store, we are so certain of what D.D.D. will do for you that we offer you a full size bottle as this guarantee—if you do not find that it takes away the itch AT ONCE, it costs you not a cent.
