City Election Next Monday, Dec. 16

Next Monday, December 16, Prineville will hold its annual city election. A mayor, three councilmen, city treasurer, recorder and city marshal are to be elected. The retiring councilmen are Messrs. Ward, Winnek and Noble. The hold-overs are Councilmen Shipp Gray and Cooper. The retiring statesmen have given freely of their time to city affairs and have served their constituents faithfully.

Two tickets are in the field. One called the Citizens' Good Government Ticket, is complete but the other, the Business Men's Ticket, is incomplete so far as the number of councilmen is concerned. The following names have been filed with City Recorder Bowman:

CITIZENS' GOOD GOV'T TICKET
Mayor—Dr. Chas. S. Edwards.
Councilmen—T. H. Lafollette, Homer Ross, I. W. Ward.
Treasurer—Claude Smith.
Recorder—A. R. Bowman.
City Marshal—Wade Huston.

BUSINESS MEN'S TICKET.

Mayor—Granville Clifton.
Councilmen—R. W. Zevely.
Recorder—A. R. Bowman.
Treasurer—Claude Smith.
City Marshal—T. L. Coon.

Both tickets are subject to amendment and revision before the names are printed on the official ballot.

This will be the first city election at which women may exercise the right of casting a ballot. This opportunity will not be neglected if the pre-election activity of the ladies means anything. They want to show that they appreciate the right and are urging every woman over 21 years of age to turn out and vote. The only requirements are those governing the male voters, i. e., she must be a resident of the state six months and live in the district thirty days. You do not need to register for a city election. Of course, you must be a native or have declared your intention to become one.

Crook County Convictions Upheld

After a lengthy consideration the supreme court of Oregon has affirmed the convictions obtained in the Crook county circuit court of the men charged with the violation of the local option law then in force in Crook county.

It will be remembered these cases were tried at Prineville two years ago and verdicts of guilty were returned against the defendants, John Billups, Dan Biggerstaff, William Snell, James Green, Harry Kenner, Perry Smith, Billy McGee, George Brown, Leo Gardner, George Attwell and C. A. Ramsey. After their conviction each of the defendants appealed to the supreme court, and in each case the principal point relied upon was the question as to the validity of the election, whereby local option was enacted in Crook county in 1908.

Lengthy briefs were filed both by the state and the defendants and all questions relating to the regularity of the local option election were exhaustively argued.

In their opinions the supreme court has upheld the regularity of the election, at every step as well as sustaining the sufficiency of all indictments under which the defendants were tried.

At the conclusion of the trials in May, 1910, each defendant was fined $150 and it is this fine which will now have to be paid, making the aggregate to be paid into the county treasury of $1650.

All of the defendants gave bonds at the time of their conviction and in a conversation with District Attorney Wilson, that official stated that notices had already been sent to the bondsmen notifying them to pay the fines assessed to the county clerk at once. The bondsmen are all reliable and their fines will undoubtedly be paid immediately and if they are not the district attorney will take such proceedings as may be necessary to enforce their collection.

A Chance to See Your Skeleton

Dr. J. H. Rosenberg has just installed a Rose X ray and high frequency apparatus, and a representative was favored with a practical demonstration of the wonderful machine during the week.

The X-ray, (unknown ray) was discovered by Professor Roentgen in 1895, and proved to be one of the most wonderful discoveries of the century, especially as applied to surgical and medical science. The properties of the X-ray enable one to see his own skeleton and the operator can actually see any foreign substance imbedded in the muscles, tissues or bones of the body as plainly as though the body was composed of clear glass. The advantage of this apparatus in the examination and reduction of fractures and dislocations can not be estimated. Actual photographs, or rather radiographs, may be taken of the injured bones, and their perfect readjustment affected.

The machine transforms the current from an ordinary electric light fixture to a high current of many thousand volts; and while the X ray is soft and mild in appearance, it has the most penetrating qualities and is the result of immense power.

When the Prineville Light & Power Company has its day current in operation, which we understand will be in about thirty days, Dr. Rosenberg will be able to operate the machine at all times.

In connection with the X-ray is what is known as the high frequency current, which is applied by means of glass vacuum electrodes, and has proven especially successful in the treatment of skin diseases and chronic disorders.

In discussing the X-ray, Dr. Rosenberg said: "I want the community to understand that they are cordially invited to come to my office and examine this wonderful machine, for the more the general public understands about modern scientific advancement, the greater will be the opportunity to reap the benefit of these discoveries. This machine will be at the service of every regular physician in the county for emergency cases, and I hope the profession and their patients will be largely benefited by this investment."

As a striking illustration of the benefits of this machine to the public, Dr. Rosenberg immediately located and quickly removed a brass pin from the throat of Miss Lota Horgan last week which without the X-ray would have necessitated a serious surgical operation.

A Great Thing for Crook County

Secretary of the Interior Fisher stands ready to co-operate with the State of Oregon in making a co-operative detailed survey of the Deschutes irrigation project in Eastern Oregon, and so assured Joseph N. Tealand C. W. Hodson, of Portland, when they discussed its proposal with him last week.

Messrs. Teal and Hodson explained to the Secretary the plan to secure an appropriation of $500,000 from the Oregon Legislature at its session this Winter, on condition a like amount would be set aside by the Government, it being estimated that a complete survey of the Deschutes project, embracing 200,000 acres or more would call for $100,000.

"You do your part," said the Secretary, "and I'll attend to what must be done at this end of the line."

After Mr. Teal and Mr. Hodson had fully explained the scope of the proposed Deschutes project, shown its possibilities and given an idea of the extent of the scheme in contemplation, and had impressed upon the Secretary the fact that it was far too expensive to be undertaken by private enterprise; Mr. Fisher displayed great interest, and was quick to give promise of his co-operation. The details of arranging the allotment of money from the reclamation fund for making this survey must be taken up with the President, but Portland men are satisfied that as soon as the state appropriates its share of the cost of the survey the Secretary will take the necessary steps to secure an equal allotment from the Federal funds.

Mr. Teal and Mr. Hodson are highly pleased with the result of the conference with Secretary Fisher, and think it lays the foundation for what promises to be the greatest single irrigation project in the United States: Its adoption will in no way interfere with the construction of the West Umatilla project, which will proceed with due speed, now that the preliminaries are disposed of.

Woman Jury Get After Estebenet's

Albert Estebenet, 17 year old son of A. B. (Frenchy) Estebenet, was convicted at Vancouver, Wash., Thursday, of bootlegging, and fined $50 and $65 costs. He was tried by a jury of women. This was his second trial, the first by a jury of men resulted in a disagreement.

Rather than pay the fine the lad's father allowed his son to be sent to jail where he will be required to lay it out at the rate of $2 a day. "Frenchy" Estebenet, is well known throughout this section, where the family lived for a number of years, and where the head of the family conducted saloons and a cigar store, later being in the business at Metoillus. Albert told the jury that he had consulted his mother before delivering the whiskey to C. E. Thompson, a street car man, but denied that it was about the whiskey. The jury laid stress upon the fact that he would not deliver the liquor until after he had consulted with his mother. Mrs. Estebenet was once arrested on the same charge. After the trial at Vancouver one of the jurors said: "It is not the boy we would like to punish, but we would like to punish his father and mother for driving him to this. They are the ones who should be punished."

Jury in Horsestealing Case Sill Out

The adjourned term of the district court convened Monday, Judge Bradshaw presiding.

The case to be tried was that of the State against William and V. M. Robertson of Lake county, charged with the larceny of a horse and mare belonging to Geo. Russell.

The trial commenced Monday morning and at Wednesday noon was submitted to the jury. Up to the hour of going to press today the jury had not reported. It is thought if they do not soon reach an agreement Judge Bradshaw will dismiss them and try the case again next May.

The accused men were charged with shipping a carload of horses from Bend, August 10, and in the lot were the two belonging to Russell. The prosecution undertook to prove that nine were stolen out of the 26.

The defense claimed that they bought the horses from George Kentner. The feature of the case is the alleged running of an Anchor T brand, which belongs to Russell, into an AR. This mysterious brand nobody seems to claim or want.

Redmond Poultry Show Next Week

A number of poultry raisers in Prineville and vicinity will send some of their choicest birds to Redmond for the Poultry Show December 18 to 21.

The object of the show, according to a statement made by its officers, "is not to gain honor and glory, but to push the poultry industry into the prominence it justly deserves. Few people apparently know that poultry breeding is a real science, and equally few are aware of what a vast industry poultry breeding is. Fewer still are those who have learned to know that to breed poultry for pleasure or profit, the best stock should be used and the best care given.

"We hold exhibitions that others may see the difference between the most improved breeds and the old neglected barnyard fowls, and to tell you where to get the best kind suited for the end you have in view. We exhibit many varieties of the most excellent fowls side by side that people may see the difference and then select for themselves the kind they like best and well enough to care for them."

Deceased was born at Willow creek in Crook county, October 17, 1882. He was a nephew of Dr. H. P. Belknap, Hugh and Joe Lister of this city. Besides his parents he leaves a widow and three sisters.

A Rush for Homesteads

A short time ago few applications were made for agricultural land inside the Deschutes National Forest near the head of the Metoillus River. As soon as it became known that applications were being made there was quite a rush of parties after desirable homesteads with the result that during the past two weeks more than 50 quarter sections of land on the different streams near the head of the river have been applied for.

This is all very desirable agricultural land with abundance of water for irrigation purposes.

There is over two million feet of good pine timber on all of these claims but those making applications for the land as homesteads are confident that their claims will be allowed as the land is rich bottom soil that will make valuable farms as soon as it is under cultivation.—Sisters Herald.
