

Powell Butte

January 27, 1913.

Arthur Brammer left for his home in North Yakima last Saturday after a week's visit with his brother-in-law, Serl Van Doren.

Chris Selts has been quite ill from an attack of la grippe.

E. A. Bussett went to Prineville Saturday to visit Mrs. Bussett who has been confined to her bed for several days with the la grippe.

Mrs. Anna Boelger of Redmond is visiting at the home of her brother, Geo. Kessler.

E. L. Iverson and wife moved out from Redmond Saturday. They will occupy one of the Wilson shacks while their house is being built. The Iverson's are very welcome additions to Powell Butte society.

Geo. Barton spent a week in this section, leaving for his home in North Yakima last week. Mr. Barton's visit was for the purpose of looking for a desirable location and he may return to locate later.

Ross Bussett and Miss Helen Peery were Prineville visitors Saturday.

C. H. Hardy and wife of Alfalfa were dinner guests at the Geo. Beckman home Sunday.

C. C. Chapman was the victim of what might have been a very serious runaway recently. His team became frightened while he was opening a gate and in an attempt to stop them he was knocked down twice, the wagon passing over his legs. That no bones were broken seems miraculous, barring a few bruises and scratches, however, Mr. Chapman escaped uninjured.

Glenn Mustard and family were visitors at the N. B. Golden ranch Sunday.

Mrs. A. W. Bayn and Mrs. Frank Bayn were visitors at Prineville Sunday.

Guy Lafollette and Mr. Shafer are hauling spuds to Redmond this week.

Pauline Truesdale and Dewey Johnson are receiving congratulations from friends upon the results of the recent eight grade examinations. These young people will probably start to high school at Prineville.

N. P. Alley has charge of the construction work on the Iverson bungalow and he together with several other workmen commenced work Monday.

When the Jones & Beesley wood saw was being hauled out from Redmond Saturday evening it was run into a bad ditch crossing of the Geo. Brazee ranch and broken down. After receiving the necessary repairs these gentlemen will proceed to saw up a summer supply of wood for the busy farmers of this section.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kessler and Frank Kessler and family of Redmond visited Sunday at the farm home of the former's son, Geo. Kessler. Mr. and Mrs. Kessler Sr., are late arrivals from Iowa and are much impressed with climatic conditions of Central Oregon. It is their intention to locate here.

W. G. Mustard has been ill with tonsillitis but is reported as being able to be out now.

Water was turned into the canal Sunday. This is good news for some of the people here as the ditches were so full of ice the last time the water was in it was impossible for a great many to get water and they run short and in some cases have been compelled to haul water.

J. L. Clingan and wife left for their homestead at Horseshide Sunday. The children are remaining to finish the school term.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bayn left Wednesday for Wallawa where they will visit with Mrs. Bayn's relatives the remainder of the winter. The Bayns are storing their belongings here, not having decided on a permanent location. Friends and relatives join in hoping they may return and rejoin.

The many friends of Mrs. Mary V. Charlton will be pleased to learn of her recent good fortune in obtaining the position of assistant chief clerk at the state legislature. Mrs. Charlton held the same position two years ago and evidently gave satisfaction as evinced by her recent appointment, which came while she was on a visit to her mother at Salem.

Suplee Notes.

Mrs. Stella Reynolds and Mrs. Jessie Smead were visiting in our neighborhood the first of the week.

Dr. Hay of John Day was over to attend Mrs. F. E. Gilchrist who is quite sick.

Dr. North, the dentist, will be in Suplee for a short stay during the first part of February.

Mrs. Jesse W. Allison, who has been visiting with her mother, Mrs. W. R. D. Allen, returned home last week.

A Dead One.

Laggard Walter—Did you ring the bell, sir?
Impatient Diner—No; I was merely telling it. I thought you must be dead.
—Penny Pictorial.

Taking No Chances.

"Hello, Bangs! I hear you and Mrs. Bangs have adopted a baby."
"Not a thing to it."
"But think how nice it is to have a baby in the home and—"
"That's all right; but you see, he won't always be a baby. He's bound to grow up, and who knows but he'd have to write beauty blots for a woman's magazine to make his living?"

The Test.

Clarence Feathertop—Professor, can you read my mind?
Professor Gazer (the mind reader)—I'll make the effort. Have you got it with you?

Meeting Old Friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Peck came in from Crook county, Oregon, to visit old-time friends here. Mr. Peck located in Altona in 1870 and ran a blacksmith shop for four years, during that time he married Miss Sis Newman, a popular young lady of the Altona neighborhood. In 1875 they went west and this is their first visit to this county since they left thirty-eight years ago. They have found more than 100 of their old friends and are having a good time.—Adrian (Ohio) Journal.
