Last Monday afternoon the home of Mrs. J. W. Boone was the scene of a most happy gathering when members of the Eastern Star met to help her celebrate her birthday.

The lodge sent greetings and two large bouquets of carnations in the morning so Mrs. Boone thought she had been most kindly remembered.

In the afternoon about forty members of the lodge, laden with all kinds of good things to eat and many tokens of remembrance, entered her home to help her further enjoy the day. Mrs. Boone's picture was taken with her flowers and remembrances after which the afternoon was spent in social intercourse.

To appreciate the spirit of the occasion and to know of the high esteem in which the lady is held by the Eastern Star could only be understood by seeing the many happy faces and hearing the good wishes expressed.
