

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE

Roberts Items.

Roberts, February 18.

There was an entertainment and social at the Fiechor ranch Saturday evening. There were quite a few present and all enjoyed themselves.

The boys took what is hoped was the last ride of the winter for cattle last week. They brought in a few additional head. They all say that the feed on the desert is coming up fine.

The two Gould boys made a trip to their desert claim Saturday morning, returning Sunday evening with a load of hay.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Ferguson took a trip to Prineville last week.

Low Fiechor was in town a few days last week on business.

Miss Eva Carlin fell last Sunday, injuring her shoulder quite severely. It is improving slowly at time of writing.

(Received too late for last week.)

Roberts, Ore., Feb. 10.

Please correct the error printed two weeks ago in regard to the dance at Maunford Nye's ranch. It was a party and not a dance.

There will be an entertainment and general good time at Big Bear creek schoolhouse Friday evening, February 21st. It is hoped that as many as are able will attend as the pupils have worked hard to prepare a program. There will be dialogues, speaking and music. After the entertainment there will be a basket social. Many of our young ladies have put much time and thought into making pretty and attractive baskets. Now, boys, don't disappoint them but be sure and be there and eat lunch with some of the nicest girls in Oregon. The entertainment will begin at 7 o'clock.

Miss Grace Faight of District 38 has neither been absent nor late at school since the first of the year. This is a good record considering the bad weather of the past few weeks.

Al Yancey, Loyd Baker, Ira Wirtz and Mr. Rombough stopped at Ed Parker's ranch Saturday for dinner. They were all out for cattle.

There was an entertainment and social held at G. H. Nye's on Saturday of last week. Among the special acts was one by Messrs. Hoeh and Trenne, formerly of the Star Entertainment Company of Seattle. Their stunt was a black-face act which was loudly applauded. Later Mr. Trenne gave a little boxing exhibition to the delight of all the boys. We all had a pleasant time and thank Mr. and Mrs. Nye for it.

The snow of a few weeks ago has nearly all melted. The roads at the present time are in an awful condition. Let us hope spring will soon be here.

Clarence Ferguson and brother, Lester, were breaking some horses last week at the Spring creek ranch.

Austin Klier was up to Camp creek and to Ed Parker's on Big Bear creek for a few days last week. Mr. Klier brought down two of Ed's horses that have been out all winter.

Hampton News

(Received too late for last week.)

Hampton, January 11.

Those making trips recently to Bend from this section for feed or provisions are Forrest Neald, W. T. Harrison, Burr Black and L. C. Peck.

A nine-pound daughter arrived in the home of D. R. Dunn on Feb. 7.

Two drilled wells have been completed here during the past two weeks—A. T. Frances at a depth of 172 feet with 25 feet of water and Lee Riggs at a depth of 214 feet with 35 feet of water.

About six parties have filed on homesteads before Commissioner A. S. Fogg within the past two weeks. Clarence Gulovson of Portland filed Saturday on a 3-year homestead in the Dry Lake district.

A farewell party was given E. M. Peck at his home on January 28. Baked beans, ginger bread, cookies, nuts and coffee were served for refreshments. Mr. Peck left for Portland during the past week where he expects to find work for a few months.

R. A. Remple and David Remple are spending several days in this vicinity looking for good homesteads.

Paulina Notes.

Miss Jessie V. Hartley spent Sunday as the guest of Mrs. A. G. Seoguin.

D. Higgenbotham is a frequent visitor at Paulina lately. There must be some attraction here for Dat.

Mr. Ross will hold services at the Paulina schoolhouse Sunday, February 21, at 2 o'clock p. m. Don't forget the date.

Clifford McKenzie passed the final eighth grade examination in arithmetic, making a grade of 96.

The infant child of Ben McCullough of Suplee died Friday and was buried Sunday at 2 p. m.

The Paulina school has another pupil—Oliver Burris of Suplee. He hopes to pass the eighth grade examination in the spring.

Leo Lafollette of Prineville has been interviewing the farmers of this vicinity the past week in the interest of his Jersey stock.

Bert Simmons returned this week. He has been in Chehalis, Wash., several months visiting friends and relatives.

C. R. Henry was in Paulina Thursday with a load of men looking for homesteads. They came from Chehalis, Wash., with the intention of locating if they can find suitable claims. Let the good work go on. We still have lots of Uncle Sam's land.

Herbert Angell and wife were visiting with friends in Paulina this week.

Rube Engstrom of Camp creek attended the masquerade the 14th. Rube intends to bring a bunch of Jersey cows from the valley as soon as he can cross the mountains. He disposed of about eighty-five head last year. A number of them were sold in this neighborhood and prove to be fine dairy cows.

M. L. Brown and family of Post were guests of relatives and friends in Paulina this week.

Homer Davis and wife took their departure for Prineville Saturday.

The masquerade ball given the 14th at the Paulina hall was well attended. There were about twenty masked and the hall was crowded with spectators. The prize for the best dressed lady was won by Mrs. H. J. Angell, representing 1913. Henry Payette and W. Shannon of Suplee, representing Indians, won the prize for the best sustained characters. The proceeds of the dance were applied to the fund for purchasing an organ for the school.

The genial countenance of our old friend, W. C. Jacobs, was seen on our streets Friday. He has been in Prineville this winter, but is now stopping for a few days on his ranch.

Suplee Happenings.

(Received too late for last week.)

My, such lovely weather. Just like spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Kuhn of Beaver creek passed through here last week on their way home from Dayville where they have been visiting a few days.

Mrs. F. E. Gilchrist, who is quite sick, is slowly recovering.

B. A. Freeman made a trip to Isee last week.

Mrs. Walter Donkle has been quite sick with la grippe.

Rev. Robert Ross of Paulina preached to a large congregation here Sunday.

Graut Rodabaugh returned home from file a few days ago where he has been herding sheep for the past few months.

Powell Butte

C. C. Brix and wife of Prineville visited relatives in this section last Saturday.

Gladys Bayn came home from Prineville Friday for a few days' visit with home folks.

Victor Johnson left Saturday for Portland after spending the winter in these parts. Mr. Johnson told his friends, however, to expect him back next fall as he knew of no better place to winter and would certainly return.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Collier of South Bend, Wash., are visiting at the Wallace Smith home.

Geo. Eleler was a business visitor to Prineville Wednesday.

Mrs. A. W. Bayn and daughter, Hazel, returned home from Prineville Wednesday. Mrs. Bayn had been there some time caring for Miss Hazel who has been ill and is yet unable to return to her school duties.

John Rohde went to the county seat Monday.

Alvin Riggs, Reeves Wilcoxen, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Wilcoxen and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Green were Powell Butte folks who attended a dance in Redmond Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Iverson went to Prineville Saturday. While there they purchased some fine Buff Orpington chickens.

D. A. Yates has leased his big grain farm to Mr. Paul for a period of three years. The latter gentleman is one of our new comers, having recently bought the Frank Bayn place.

Relatives are in receipt of a letter from Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bayn in which they state they have terminated their visit at Wallowa and are returning to Portland. They say the weather has been extremely cold and bad in Wallowa, hence their return to Portland. The Bayns have lived in Powell Butte sunshine too long to accustom themselves to the ordinary.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Foster were visitors to Prineville Saturday.

Mrs. G. C. Truesdale and daughter visited at the S. D. Mustard home Thursday.

Andrew Miller and family went up in the Bear river country Saturday for a visit with Mrs. Miller's sister, Mrs. Jacobson.

A. W. Bayn and Alvin Riggs went to Redmond Sunday to see a bucking contest. Mr. Riggs took Siff, a bad actor, over to be ridden. Siff contributed his share of the afternoon's amusement by giving the spectators a genuine bucking exhibition.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Chapman entertained a number of friends at their home Saturday evening. "500" was indulged in until midnight at which time the hostess served a delicious luncheon, consisting of chicken sandwiches, salad, pickles and coffee.
