

No Evidence Found Against the Boys

Sheriff Elkins returned Sunday evening from Portland where he located Charles O'Kelly and Albert Birdsong, who were wanted here in connection with the disappearance of Anna Nelson and Wave Hoover. The sheriff had no trouble in locating the men but experienced lots of trouble in locating the girls. He finally got wind that they were in Hood River or vicinity and that was where he found them. The sheriff in the meantime had visited the lodging house in The Dalles where the young people had put up and found that the girls had a room by themselves and the boys had another in a different part of the building, nothing of an incriminating nature was discovered. The young people were all rounded up in Hood River and as no evidence of a criminal nature was obtained the boys were discharged from custody. The girls were working for different families—one in Hood River and the other in the country.

Pleasant Time at the Home of Prof. Smith

It was no ill wind that blew a party of young people to the home of Prof. J. W. Smith last Friday evening. For although some may have thought at first that they were receiving a chilly reception, the warm-hearted welcome of the host and hostess dispelled any such impression.

The time was spent very pleasantly in games and guessing contests. Miss James received a handsome Portland pennant for proving herself the most clever guesser. When every lady present had an opportunity to have a new Easter bonnet made to order the men rose to the occasion and demonstrated by means of marvelous, near-Parisian creations that they had hitherto concealed their talents in the art of millinery.

At the close of the evening a delicious supper was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Herman and Miss Thomas.

The guests were Misses Hubbard, Barnes, James, Merrill, Conway, Jane Allen, Williams, Gitchel, Ada Allen, Cassidy, Crooks, Engdahl, Herman and Evans, Messrs. Brown, Duffy, Horace Belknap, Dudley, Peoples, Wilfred Belknap, Morse, Clayton, Robinson, Battles, Wirtz, Shaw, Stevenson and Bechtel.

Dr. Edmunds Lecture Well Attended

The Methodist church was well filled Tuesday evening to listen to the lecture on "The Education of the Twenty-first Century" by Dr. Edmunds. The doctor is an admirer of Dr. Montessori and explained some of her advanced educational methods. He is in sympathy with young people and pointed out many of the errors in present day methods and suggested remedies for them.

The excellent musical program by Mrs. Edmunds and Mrs. Coe was enjoyed by all.

Cyrus Walker, an old Oregon pioneer, was present and by request sang an Indian song in the Chinook jargon. He responded to a hearty encore. Although Mr. Walker is 74 years old he looks and acts much younger.

Prof. Coe acted as chairman of the evening.

The supper given Tuesday evening by the ladies of the Methodist church was well attended and we venture the assertion that had the people who were not there known of the many good things with which every table was loaded no one would have stayed away. Every one was served well and the ladies were most generous in insisting upon extra helpings.

Important Meeting Ladies Annex

The regular monthly business meeting of the Ladies' Annex will be held next Tuesday afternoon in the ladies' parlors at 2 o'clock.

The committee has arranged for an interesting discussion on how to beautify the yards, porches and windows and also for a few subjects pertaining to the vegetable garden. This is the beginning of some civic improvement work in which many of the ladies have long been interested.

Everyone is requested to come prepared to tell of any special success she has had with flowers, shrubs or gardens in this section. Those who have not had experience with plants in Crook county are urged to attend and learn what they can from these discussions.

There will be important business to be taken up. This with the subjects for discussion, promise to make a helpful and interesting afternoon which no one should miss. All are requested to meet promptly at 2 o'clock.

The "Story of the Cadillac," is one of that mechanical and commercial advancement which makes for permanency. The Cadillac Company has never yielded to clamor by producing that which catered merely to fancy, nor that which took advantage of the uninformed. On the contrary it has produced only that which it knew would give to the purchaser "value received" in abundant measure. The Cadillac Company has never been obliged to resort to exaggeration and over-drawn claims to dispose of all the cars that it could make—and more. Its policy has ever been to under-claim rather than over-claim. It is gratified that the public accepts its representations at their full worth; because the public has never been misled and because the public could always expect and has always received more than was offered.
