CREGON NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

Events Occurring Throughout the State During the Past Week.

Fire Protection is Bio Drain.

Salem.-During the year 1912 stock fire insurance companies operating in Oregon collected over twice as much in premiums as they paid out in fire losses. The total premiums collected, according to a statement issued by State Insurance Commissioner J. W. Ferguson, for the year were $3,252,-193, while the total amount paid our for fire losses was $1,547,936.

Schedule is Arranged.

Corvallis.-An official schedule of Oregon Electric service for Corvallis, via the branch from Gray, four miles east of this city, announces 10 trains each way daily. Each main line train north and south will be met at Gray, and two through trains between Corvallis and Portland will be operated. with a running schedule of three

INDUSTRIAL BODY NAMED

Beckwith, Marshall and Babcock Are Chosen.

Salem.-Harvey Beckwith and W. A. Marshall, of Portland, and C. D. Babcock, of Salem, will constitute the industrial accident commission created under the workmen's compensation act passed by the last legislature. The appointments were made public by Governor West and correspond to predictions that have been made as to the personnel of the commission.

Under the terms of the act it is con templated that three members of the commission shall represent the varied interests in the state-one the employ er, one the employe and one member the people of the state at large.

Following out the contemplation of tile terms of the act, Governor West named Mr. Beckwith to represent the employers, Marshall to represent the laboring interests and Babcock to represent the state at large.

Glendale Man Murdered in Cabin. Glendale.-A murder was committed at Wolf Creek, four miles from this city, and Jim Berry, a section hand, antil recently employed by the Southern Pacific here, was the victim. It is believed the crime was committed by a man named Chapman, who resided at Wolf Creek. The body of the murdered man was found in Chapman's cabin with the skull crushed. Chapman is missing. When Berry was last seen he and Chapman were together and are thought to have gone to the latter's cabin for the night. Both men had been drinking heavily and the erime is probably the result of a drunken row.

Henry is Acquitted.

Albany.-Ralph Henry, acquitted of a charge of murder in the first degree for the killing of George Dodd near Corvallis last October, was taken to the state insane asylum at Salem on a commitment made by Judge Kelly, based on the verdict of the jury, which nd Henry not guilty on grounds of imsanity.

Henry will remain in the asylum unsome and entitled to liberty. Henry walked out cheerfully from jail, where he has passed the last four and onehalf months. He expects to be liber ated within a few days.

TWO DIE ON THE GALLOWS

*umphrey Brothers Do Not Flinch On Scaffold.

Salem.-Explating their crime of the murder of Eliza Griffith, near Phil. | authoritative survey of the Yaquina emath, in June, 1911, George and bar. Charles Humphreys went to their doom without a murmur. Both of the men walked stolidly to the scaffold. ascended the steps with firm tread and without flinching allowed the prison officials to strap their arms and legs, while Barr G. Lee, Episcopal minister, was declaring their innocence to the assembled witnesses.

The two men died as they had lived ation. stolld and apparently atunned to their surroundings, and seemingly unappreciative of the awful fate which awaited them.

Veterans Can Attend Gelebration. Salem .- According to the provisions of a measure passed by the last legis-Liture making a $5000 appropriation for veterans of the Civil War who parwipated in the battle of Gettysburg, to attend the celebration of the 50th anniversary of the event in Pennsylmania, the governor is to appoint one or two commissioners to act with the Bennsylvania commission in arranging for the celebration, and they are to receive their actual traveling expenses. Further, it is provided that as many of the soldiers as the appropriation will care for shall be entitled to attend. Those first applying shall be given preference, it is provided.
