

Powell Butte.

Powell Butte, March 24.

Leo Riggs came over from his home at Hampton Buttes Tuesday for a visit with his brother, Alvin. Mr. Riggs will take back the casing for his well which he drilled recently. He struck an abundance of water at a depth of 218 feet.

Mrs. Mary Orewler came up from Bend Tuesday for an extended visit with her granddaughter, Mrs. Joe Shearer, and family.

Geo. Kessler and A. H. Rohde were visitors at the county seat Wednesday.

Miss Marie Shafer, who has been staying with Mrs. S. D. Mustard for the past several months, left Thursday for a week's visit with her parents.

Allan Landfare and son, Burt, came in on Wednesday's train from their former home in Elma, Iowa.

S. D. Mustard was a Prineville visitor Friday. While there he says he had several inquiries for oats at $28.50 per hundred, which is something of a raise in the price paid two months ago.

Miss Jennie Miller went to Prineville Sunday, where she will visit a couple of weeks with her sister, Miss Anna, who is attending high school there.

Jake Brax was a Prineville visitor Sunday.

Elmer Nywonger and W. P. Vandeventer, real estate dealers of Bend, were visitors in this section Friday, visiting friends until Saturday.

Samuel Shepard left Saturday for Alberta, Canada, where he has business interests. Mr. Shepard is a former resident of this section and has been visiting friends for the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Lyons of Crescent, Ore., visited last week with the latter's brothers, Geo. and Lee Hobbs.

Geo. C. Truesdale had the misfortune to lose his Holstein bull, "Colantha Boy," last week. It is thought the animal died of blood poison.

The boys of this section participated in their annual egg feast in the old river bed Saturday evening. After eating their fill the remaining eggs were divided, each boy getting the same number and these were used in the egg fight which followed the banquet. It is needless to try to picture a crowd of boys after an egg fight. One must be an eye witness to appreciate the sight.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Wilcoxen entertained the members of the younger social set, together with a number of older friends, at their pleasant home Saturday evening. The evening was spent in games and vocal and instrumental music and in the opinion of the guests the time went all too quickly. Delicious homemade candies and popcorn were passed.

Old Culver.

The following pupils of the "Old Culver" school were perfect in attendance during the school month ending March 21st: Lols Osborn, Gertrude Osborn, Pearl Wright, Hattie Wright, Rex Osborn, Cecil Osborn.

Among those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. James Read, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson, Misses Lols Osborn, Pearl Dobkins, Nina Merchant, Messrs. Winfred and Rex Osborn, Don, Floyd and Elvas Dobkins. All report a fine time.
