New Registration Law

Attention is directed to the new registration law enacted by the recent legislature by an interpretation of it made by Attorney General Crawford.

Under the new law, which becomes effective June 4, the attorney general points out that the county clerk must be prepared at all times to register voters, beginning with the day the law goes into effect. The county clerk must appoint precinct registrars, who will be authorized to take registrations. Then when a voter is once registered it will not be necessary for him to register again, unless he changes his address.

The law provides that the registration shall cease 30 days before the primary or general elections, and 15 days prior to a special election, and that a person who is not registered cannot vote. It prohibits votes being sworn in, but a saving clause is inserted which says in case the supreme court holds this restriction to be unconstitutional, then "Blank A" as now used will become effective again.

Women must register as well as men, and but few days remain until the 15th. Those women who wish to vote, and it seems to us they are much more scarce now than before the last general election, would better qualify themselves before the county clerk, thus saving trouble on election day.

It used to be true that bifocal glasses were troublesome, and "old" looking, and trying to the eyes. It is NOT true of KRYPTOKS—the new bifocals that look and wear like plain glasses, but give perfect near-and-far vision.

Are you wearing lenses that are not satisfactory? If you are having trouble with your eyes, it will pay you to come direct to me. I will give your eyes a thorough and careful examination (free of charge) and tell you the exact condition they are in.

The "Story of the Cadillac," is one of that mechanical and commercial advancement which makes for permanency. The Cadillac Company has never yielded to clamor by producing that which catered merely to fancy, nor that which took advantage of the uninformed. On the contrary it has produced only that which it knew would give to the purchaser "value received" in abundant measure. The Cadillac Company has never been obliged to resort to exaggeration and over-drawn claims to dispose of all the cars that it could make—and more. Its policy has ever been to under-claim rather than over-claim. It is gratified that the public accepts its representations at their full worth; because the public has never been misled and because the public could always expect and has always received more than was offered.
