Ladies of the Shumia Entertain

Mesdames Belknap, Winnek and Collins Elkins were hostesses at a social evening last Tuesday in honor of Miss Alma Gitchel.

So skillfully did these ladies lay their plans that the unsuspecting members were completely surprised when the doors mysteriously opened and the husbands and best young men, all dressed in their Sunday best, stood smiling before them.

Miss Gitchel was further surprised by having a table banked with flowers and ferns, placed before her. Underneath she found many packages, which, upon being opened were found to contain many dainty and useful articles for the home.

Van Morse was then given a short lecture by Judge Brink on what he must and must not do if he wished to sail smoothly over the matrimonial sea. He was then the target for every man in the room who pelted him with hose of all kinds and descriptions from the little red stocking to the big papa sock.

During refreshments one-half of the guests entertained the other with games and music.

Those fortunate enough to enjoy the hospitality of these ladies were: Miss Gitchel, Mr. Morse, Dr. and Mrs. Belknap, Mr. and Mrs. Collins Elkins, Mr. and Mrs. Winnek, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton, Dr. and Mrs. Rosenberg, Mr. and Mrs. John Wigle, Mr. and Mrs. Brink, Prof. and Mrs. Coe, Prof. and Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Edwards, Elbert Belknap, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lafollette, Mrs. Otto Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Gray, the Misses Herman and Cowherd, Messrs. Horace and Wilford Belknap and Victor Shawe.

Christian Church.

Another baptism at the Christian church last Sunday morning. Regular services next Sunday. Bible school at 10 a. m. Communion and preaching at 11 a. m. Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. Preaching services at 8 p. m. The public is cordially invited to attend these services. Everybody welcome.

The revival meetings conducted by Evangelist Adams at Grizzly lasted only twelve days but there were fourteen additions to the church with nine baptisms Saturday. The ladies served a splendid basket dinner. There were three services during that day and six additions. The interest was fine and the meetings should have continued at least another week but the evangelist's time was limited.

Studying Art

Miss Nora Livingston has decided that school teaching is not the easiest way for a young lady to make a living. She is now studying art and hopes to be remembered by all who are interested in this line. 1t-pd*

Homer Ross leaves today on an inspection trip to the Maury mountain district. He will be gone several days.

F. E. Lafler leaves Sunday to attend the Eastman school of professional photography which is held at Portland June 3, 4 and 5.

Dr. Rosenberg reports two cases of spotted fever—W. G. Clagg, one of the engineers on the Prineville-Metolius railroad and E. L. V. Marker's little daughter.

Rev. T. H. Fertig, conference Sunday School superintendent, will speak morning and evening at the Methodist church. Morning subject, "America's Great Task." Evening, "Educational Evangelism."

Married—May 28, at the Baptist parsonage, Frank T. Cowan and Lillian Frogge, Rev. C. P. Bailey officiating. The good wishes of many friends go with them on life's voyage.

S. Price, of Price Bros., Paulina, passed through Prineville Monday on his way to Portland for a stock of goods for his Paulina store. He has part of his stock at Paulina but will not open his store until all lines are complete.

Miss Herman of the Crook County High School will leave Friday morning for her home in Genesee, Idaho. Miss Herman expects to spend her vacation in Europe and will sail from New York July 1st.

L. M. Bechtell leaves the first of the month for the mountains. He will be a forest guard on Lookout for several months. He hasn't severed his connection with the Haner Abstract Co. at all, but simply takes a vacation. His mother will accompany him.

The forestry service sent out a big load of men Wednesday to the big camp on the Ochoco. All told about 75 men are at work. Sixty are at work destroying beetles, nine are at work on the reconnaissance survey and six are at work on the road between Prineville and Mitchell. The men are repairing the Ochoco road from the Ochoco ranger station to the Wheeler county line.

Notice

Having learned that Elder Adams has refused to publicly discuss the three questions previously proposed to him through the columns of this paper, for two reasons, first: That it would do harm instead of good. Second, on account of the insignificance of the challenger. Therefore in order to remove these objections and leave him no loophole of escape, we make him the following offer, to-wit: If he will publicly discuss these three questions before a jury of three non-partisan lawyers of Prineville, we will furnish a place of meeting free to him and his church, and if he shall successfully maintain any two of the said questions before said jury (whose decision shall be final) we will abandon our church organization and unite with him upon his own terms, and if we shall be successful he and his people shall unite with us upon our terms. Now if Elder Adams wishes to bring about that Christian Unity he has so ardently preached, here is his chance, and if he refuses this offer the people of Prineville will know that he is not sure of the doctrine he has been preaching.

The "Story of the Cadillac," is one of that mechanical and commercial advancement which makes for permanency. The Cadillac Company has never yielded to clamor by producing that which catered merely to fancy, nor that which took advantage of the uninformed. On the contrary it has produced only that which it knew would give to the purchaser "value received" in abundant measure. The Cadillac Company has never been obliged to resort to exaggeration and over-drawn claims to dispose of all the cars that it could make—and more. Its policy has ever been to under-claim rather than over-claim. It is gratified that the public accepts its representations at their full worth; because the public has never been misled and because the public could always expect and has always received more than was offered.
