

4309 Acres to be Reclaimed

The desert land board has certified to the federal government that the Central Oregon Irrigation Company was preparing to reclaim 4309.33 acres of land. The government will be requested to give patents to the state, which will turn them over to settlers.

IN OUR IGNORANCE.

Said a woman of my acquaintance: "Last year my husband was ill, and now my daughter is threatened with tuberculosis. Living expenses are high, and my husband's salary is only $1,000 a year. Why should we be put into the world to suffer so? Life is really not worth the living sometimes."

This woman lived in her own house and had never lacked for the necessities of life.

Now—
The problem of suffering, like that of sin, is an old one, but to think one is luckless beyond others is wrong. One has only to look about him to find many of his fellows worse off.

Privation? Suffering?
Why, this woman had never lived in a rattle-snake den or rickety stairs. Her husband never had come home from the saloon around the corner with empty pocketbook and loaded with liquor to drive her with curses to the street.

Deprivation?
This complaining woman did not live in a two room and closet apartment, where you buy coal by the scuttiful, bread by the half loaf and ice by the pound delivery.

Poverty?
She had never haunted the butcher shops late on Saturday night, when the very poor do their pitiful shopping, to buy for almost nothing the remnants that will not keep until Monday—to purchase for a penny or two a soup bone or a neck of mutton.

No. She did not know.
She did not know that to find a quarter of a dollar for the slot of the gas meter may become a financial problem and that the monthly rent due may become a real tragedy.

No.
She never had heard her children cry of cold in the winter nor moan of thirst in the summer time. She never had partly to starve a living child to pay the funeral expenses of a dead one.

Now—
I make no doubt my complainant scarcely would believe that thousands live the life I have hinted at, because "one half the world does not know how the other half lives."

That's the point—we complain out of ignorance.
We, all of us, are like the woman. We have our troubles and visitations, but it is only necessary that we should go along the street with wide open eyes to find dozens of people whose condition is infinitely worse than ours.

Kentucky Town Council Forbids Them the Use of Streets.

An order just promulgated is causing a lot of comment and not a little ill feeling in Hazard, Ky. The order reads as follows:
"By Order of the Town Council:
"All hogs must be put in pens and kept off the streets hereafter. Any hogs found on the streets will be put in the town pen by the marshal and kept there at the expense of the owners."
"It is a matter of town pride and Hazard spirit to quit associating with hogs on our streets. Every hog owner will certainly not hesitate to keep the hogs out of sight hereafter."

A FISH FEAST

is really a dish for an epicure—especially if you buy the "finney" from us. All our fish have the habit of coming straight here from their native element without hanging around elsewhere, losing their freshness and flavor. Shell-Fish a specialty in the season, but we keep nothing out of season, so you are always sure of a sweet smell here. Moderate prices, too.
