A WOMAN AND A CHECK.

Mrs. Black Was Not Absolutely Helpless in Money Matters.

Some few persons still cherish the idea that all women are absolutely helpless in business matters and that they are so lacking in financial ability that they cannot safely be trusted to handle money.

Mr. Black belonged to this class. He had been in the habit of paying all the household bills at the end of each month, and his wife, though allowed unlimited credit, had never had an allowance. One day the Blacks happened to be passing the comparatively new building in which the bank was situated.

"Do you know, John," remarked Mrs. Black, "I have actually never been inside the bank since it was built more than two years ago?"

"You haven't?" exclaimed John. "If that's the case I guess I'd better give you a check this month and let you pay the bills. Do you think you'd know how to cash it?"

Mrs. Black received the check, which, by the way, happened to be an unusually large one that month.

That evening Mr. Black asked, not without sarcasm, if she had succeeded in indorsing it properly.

"Oh, yes!" returned Mrs. Black cheerfully.

"How many bills did you pay?"

"None. It seemed a pity to waste all that money paying bills."

"Then what in the world did you do with it?"

"Oh," returned the little woman serenely, "I just deposited it in my name and opened an account of my own with it!"

Setting Her Right.

On one of the corners of a busy thoroughfare sat an old man blind and minus one leg. A sympathetic lady who was passing stopped and gazed at him in pity.

Finally she approached him and began asking him questions. She asked him if he were married, how many children he had, where he had worked last, how he had met with the accident that had incapacitated him for work and a thousand other questions.

Finally the unfortunate one became peevish. "Madam," he exclaimed harshly, "you may think this is an information bureau. It is not. It is a collecting agency."—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

The new train schedule that went into effect Sunday gives the Journal about twelve hours the best of the Oregonian in this field. Finnigan is working it to a frazzle.

SIX SENTENCE SERMONS.

God is the highest good.—Plato.

What the pilot is in a ship, what a driver is in a chariot, what a conductor is in a choir, what law is in a state and what a general is in an army, God is in the world.—Aristotle.

God is with thee, within thee. So I say, Lucius, that the priest sits inside our souls. We carry him about, and he leads us. There is no good man without God.—Seneca.

We have in our minds a certain inborn knowledge of God.—Cicero.

Know ye not that your bodies are temples of God?—St. Paul.

God is within us. We move by his movement.—Ovid.

Cattle Market Stronger

June 20, 1913. Receipts for the week have been: Cattle, 1120; calves, 175; hogs, 2067; sheep, 4418.

Market steady to stronger this week. Best grass steers sold in bulk $8 @ $8.25 with an occasional good load at $8.50. Outlet is somewhat limited but receipts have not been large enough to come to a glut. Good cows and heifers were not offering freely, but one bunch of cows brought $7, the remainder being poor quality. Prime light veal calves at $9.05 featured.

A steady to higher hog trade. Reaction in prices set in early Monday morning. Tops quickly reached $8.25, $8.30, $8.35 and finally $8.40. Thursday market firm at $8.40. Continued light receipts would strengthen it still further.

Sheep house draggy. Prime yearlings failed to sell better than $5; ewes $4.50 and lambs $6.50 and $6.75. Much thin stuff is coming in this year and buyers are not anxious for any but good fat mutton and lambs.

The "Story of the Cadillac," is one of that mechanical and commercial advancement which makes for permanency. The Cadillac Company has never yielded to clamor by producing that which catered merely to fancy, nor that which took advantage of the uninformed. On the contrary it has produced only that which it knew would give to the purchaser "value received" in abundant measure. The Cadillac Company has never been obliged to resort to exaggeration and over-drawn claims to dispose of all the cars that it could make—and more. Its policy has ever been to under-claim rather than over-claim. It is gratified that the public accepts its representations at their full worth; because the public has never been misled and because the public could always expect and has always received more than was offered.
