THE STATE.
What constitutes a state?
Not high raised battlement or labored mound,
Thick wall or mounted gate;
Not cities fair, with spires and
turrets crown'd;
No; men—high minded men—
With powers as far above dull brutes endued
In forest, brake or den,
As beasts excel cold rocks and
brambles rude;
Men who their duties know,
But know their rights and knowing dare maintain;
Prevent the long aimed blow
And crush the tyrant while they read the chain.
—Alcæus.

Plain Clothes Men.
In a small South American state which had recently undergone a change of administration the new potentate summoned an artist and ordered new designs for all the official uniforms.
"I wish showy costumes, very showy," he said, "for the people are impressed by them. I have here some sketches that I myself have made.
Look them over and be guided by these ideas as far as possible."
The artist examined the sketches carefully.
"This," he said, turning the pages,
"is evidently for the navy and this for the army, but, if you please, what is this—a long red plume on a three cornered hat, yellow dress coat trimmed with purple, and"—
"That," replied the chief of state gravely, "is for the secret police."

Roberts.

F. M. Hathaway, agent for the Ford automobile, accompanied Mr. Nye out to Roberts Friday with his new car. Manfred usually carries two halts but we only noticed one Friday in the new auto.
Everybody came to Roberts on the 4th of July. Bring your basket and have a good time. Races commence at 1:30 p. m. First race will be a race for girls between the ages of 10 and 13. A ball game will be pulled off during the day. Outdoor dances day and night. Midnight supper served.
J. E. Roberts and Han Jacobson visited Prineville Monday.
Messrs. Hardenbrook and Bunn drove through the city on their way to Redmond.
Everyone is delighted over the rain. It insures a bountiful crop.
What is finer than a good picnic on the 4th for the children. Hurrah for Roberts. Everything is being planned to insure a good time.

The Counsel of Despair.

"I want a piece of meat without any bone, fat or gristle," said the bride, on her first trip to market.
"Yes, ma'am," replied the butcher. "I would suggest that you take an egg."—Youth's Companion.

Superfluous.

Blobbs—I suppose there are times when all doctors have to give superfluous treatment. Blobbs—Yes; I once knew one who prescribed a nerve tonic for a man who turned out to be a book agent.—Philadelphia Record.

Always Room For One More.

"That's the tenth can of sardines you have ordered," said the railway magnate. "Aren't you afraid you will make yourself sick?"
"I'm not eating them," replied the employee with inventive genius. "I think I'm on the track of a way to get more people into a street car."—Washington Star.

Seems So.

"He's a brute."
"How so?"
"When she promised to be his wife he said he would do everything in his power to make her happy."
"Well?"
"He spends all of his time at the club!"
"Well, if he is really a brute that ought to help some."—Houston Post.

Helping Father.

"I got a letter from my son at college yesterday."
"Writing for money, eh?"
"I should say not. He's working his way through college as a waiter and sends me his tips. I've paid off the mortgage, and now I'm starting a fund to build a new barn."—Denver Republican.
