

BLUE AND GRAY AT GETTYSBURG

Veterans of Memorable Battle
Meet to Celebrate Semi-
Centennial of Event.

Gettysburg.—Fifty years ago Gettysburg was a camp of war, this week it is a camp of peace. In a tented city spread over the historic battlefield, thousands of veterans who met in deadly conflict half a century ago gathered from all parts of the country to celebrate the semi-centennial of the greatest battle of the civil war, and clasped hands across the chasm of years. Aged men, some garbed in blue and others in gray renewed their youth and fraternized. Time had dealt heavily with most of them, yet their enthusiasm was unbounded despite the lapse of time, and they shook off the weight of years and fought over again the battle that marked the "high tide of the confederacy."

As each veteran came into camp he was supplied with a map of the battlefield prepared by the army engineers so that he could go over the grounds and pick out the spots of historic interest, or more particularly the places which have a significant personal interest to him.

The program was divided into four sections, one for each day. Tuesday, July 1, was known as "Veterans Day," and all surviving veterans were participants in a great camp-fire, presided over by the commanders-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic and the United Confederate Veterans.

Wednesday was designated "Military Day" and the exercises were under the chief-of-staff of the United States army.

The exercises on Thursday were known as "Civic Day" and were under the personal supervision of the governor of Pennsylvania and the participants were the governors of the various states, their staffs and the general public.

Friday, July 4, was appropriately designated as "National Day." The chief justice of the supreme court presides and President Wilson and members of the cabinet, the vice president, speaker of the house of representatives, justices of the supreme court and the congressional committee will be the guests of honor.

21,000 Motor Licenses Issued

Olympia, Wash.—There are more than 20,000 motor vehicles in the state of Washington, according to figures in the office of the secretary of state. Upward of 31,000 have been issued, but it is thought there are a few inoperative numbers in the state.

LOBBY SENSATION IS AGAIN RENEWED

Washington.—Further sensations in the senate's lobby investigation were foreshadowed when it became known that a subpoena had been served on Martin M. Mulhall of Baltimore, reported to have been for many years the active "field agent" and lobbyist of the National Association of Manufacturers.

The subpoena was ordered by Chairman Overman, of the lobby committee, after representations had been made to him that Mr. Mulhall was willing and able to give the committee important facts regarding attempts to influence legislation.

The nature and extent of the disclosures that are expected were outlined in an article published, under the sworn signature of Mr. Mulhall, in the New York World and the Chicago Tribune.

The Mulhall article named many former and present members of congress who were alleged to have been active agents in support of legislation desired by the National Association of Manufacturers. It specified employees of congress who had been retained to secure information, and alleged that even the page boys of the house of representatives were used to pick up information about proposed legislation.

Convention of Women's Tailors Votes for Narrow Skirts

New York.—Woman's skirts are to be tighter than ever around the bottom, but looser at the top. They will have an eight-inch slit in front to eke out their inches of width. Notwithstanding their scantiness, they will be elaborately draped. A stitched turned-up cuff, like those on a man's trousers, will finish the skirts around the bottom.

Thirty-four states were represented by the delegates, and 22, led by New York and Massachusetts, stood firm for narrow skirts.

Along with the exceedingly narrow skirt comes of necessity the slit, but elaborate draping and easing over the hips will make sitting down a possibility, since the skirt will be prevented from pulling up in front.

NEWS FROM OUR NATIONAL CAPITAL

President Wilson Approves Dis- solution Plans of Union Pacific Merger.

Washington.—President Wilson approved the plan negotiated by Attorney General McReynolds and the railroad attorneys for the dissolution of the Union Pacific merger under the Sherman anti-trust law, as directed by the supreme court of the United States, so as to avoid a receivership for the great combination.

This latest attempt of the many made to dismember the combination provides for the disposition of the entire $129,650,000 of Southern Pacific held by the Union Pacific. It is understood the plan, as one step, provides for the exchange of $38,292,400 of Southern Pacific stock for the Pennsylvania's holdings in the Baltimore & Ohio, which are approximately of the same value.

The remaining $88,357,600 of Southern Pacific will be disfranchised and placed in the hands of a trust company as trustees and against this stock will be issued certificates with no voting power to shareholders of the Union Pacific.

Caucus is Deaf to Westerner's Plea
Notwithstanding the efforts of several western democrats to induce the caucus to place on the free list all woolen cloths, clothing, blankets, and other manufactures of wool, an overwhelming majority stood out against this amendment and defeated it.

The western senators urged that, inasmuch as raw wool is placed on the free list, it would be only fair to the woolgrowers and the public generally to place on the free list the manufactures of wool, which would really benefit the consumer much more than free raw wool.

The committee insisted that if manufactures of wool were placed on the free list there would be a large deficit in the treasury, and for this reason the committee and the caucus would not accept the proposed amendment.

Several Changes in Currency Bill
Several changes were made in the currency bill as the result of the numerous conferences in which President Wilson, democrats of the house and senate committees, Treasury department officials and a committee of bankers took part, but despite earnest appeals that the federal reserve board to control the proposed new currency system be increased and that the bankers receive representation, no change in this provision was made.

The board will consist of seven men to be appointed by the president. In the senate, Senator Cummins contemplates proposing an amendment which would make the board an elective body. Reinserted in the bill was the original proposition for retiring the present banknotes within 20 years and the substitution of additional federal reserve notes for them.

To Study Government Aid for Schools
A step toward solving the question of governmental aid to the founding of vocational educational schools was taken by the senate through the passage of Senator Hoke Smith's bill providing for a commission of nine experts to study the question and report to the next session of congress.

The bill is expected to halt action temporarily on the various vocational school bills now before congress, and which have been the subject of much discussion. The commission that would be authorized would not take up the consideration of agricultural extension work, which is covered in separate bills before congress. The commission would be appointed by the president to serve without pay.

Attorney General McReynolds sent to congress all the correspondence relating to the Diggs-Cambrett and Western Fuel cases, which caused the recent resignation of District Attorney McNab at San Francisco. He did this without waiting for action on the demand for an investigation now pending in the house.

A "gentleman's agreement" was made between the three party leaders of the house that no business shall be transacted during the next two weeks except on unanimous consent.

Trade at Home

"Every time you go to town
And start to throw your money around,
Say "Home-made goods are the stuff for me,
Because they spell Pros-per-i-ty."
The dollar you send to the Eastern Store
Says "Good-bye Bill" for evermore.
But the dollar you spend with the Home-made sound
Keeps a'comin' and a'comin' and a'comin' around."
