Senator Simmons Says Tariff Bill Will Reach President Last of August.

Washington.—With the tariff bill completed by the senate caucus, the senate leaders feel certain that the measure will be in the hands of the president by the latter part of August.

Forty-seven democratic senators stood up in the party caucus one by one and declared their intention to vote for the Underwood-Simmons tariff revision bill as finally approved by the caucus.

Resolution Not Binding.

An absolutely binding resolution was not adopted, the poll by individuals being substituted, and that poll was put only on the ground of personal promise and was not made binding.

Before final action on the bill the caucus gave concessions to the senators from woolgrowing states by adopting an amendment making effective a provision for free raw wool in December 1, 1913, and the rates on manufactures of wool January 1, 1914.

Muhall's Story of Lobbying Told.

How the National Association of Manufacturers, through its hired lobbyists at Washington, secured legislation favorable to its interests, obtained the defeat of measures beneficial to the labor interests, how it controlled congressional committees, made and unmade senators and representatives, and how it levied tribute on all manufacturing interests—great and small—throughout the country, was explained by the sensational exposures of Colonel M. M. Muhall, for 10 years the lobbyist, field worker and strikebreaker of the organization, before the senate investigation committee called into existence by President Wilson's charges that an "insidious lobby" exists and has existed at the national capital for many years.

Witness' Confession is Astounding.

A story of misrepresentation, impersonation of public men and organized effort to influence Wall street financiers probably without parallel in the history of congressional investigations was unfolded before the senate lobby committee by a prosperous-looking, self-possessed individual, calling himself David Lamar, of New York, self-described as an "operator in stocks" and admittedly the bearer of several assumed names. With entire abandon, arousing the committee to laughter at times by his naive admissions, he told of his impersonations, his participation in attempts to influence Wall street. He telephoned to financial men and lawyers in the names of Representative Palmer and Representative Riordan. He assumed the guise of Chairman McCombs, of the Democratic national committee, to telephone to Chairman Hilles, of the Republican national committee.

National Capital Brevities

Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska withdrew from the democratic caucus when his proposed tariff bill amendment for a graduated tax on tobacco production was defeated. A spirited scene followed.

Attorney General McReynolds has dismissed Judge Clayton Herrington from the department of justice at San Francisco. Herrington had criticized the federal authorities in connection with the Diggs-Caminetti case.

The interstate commerce commission will have to get along in its great task of making a physical valuation of railroads without the assistance of the army engineers unless congress can be induced to pass special legislation.

Government officials are greatly interested in the reported achievement of Dr. Goldschmidt, a German inventor of wireless apparatus, in sending messages between Neustadt, near Hanover, Germany, and Tuckerton, N. J., 3900 miles.

The American people drink more whiskey and beer, smoked more cigars and cigarettes and chewed more tobacco during the fiscal year 1913 than in any other yearly period of the nation's history, according to estimates based on the record-breaking internal revenue receipts of the federal government for the 12 months ended June 30.

NATIONAL BANKS FAIL IN PENNSYLVANIA

Pittsburg First-Second National Cause of Failure of Other Institutions.

Pittsburg.—The First-Second National Bank of Pittsburg, the First National Bank of McKeesport, a neighboring city; the American Waterworks & Guarantee Company and the banking house of J. S. and W. S. Kuhn, incorporated, of this city, were forced into the hands of a receiver, through the failure of the first-named institution to open its doors Tuesday.

The closing of the First-Second National Bank was ordered by the Controller of the Currency, T. P. Kane, after every effort had been made to meet the government requirements as to the legal reserve.

The Kuhn banking house has extensive interests in irrigation projects throughout the west and mines and street traction systems throughout western Pennsylvania, besides being a dominant factor in the American Waterworks & Guarantee company.

W. S. Kuhn was president of the First-Second National Bank, vice president and director in the banking house and vice president and director of the American Waterworks & Guarantee company, besides being a director of the McKeesport bank. J. S. Kuhn was a director of the First-Second bank and president and director of the American Waterworks & Guarantee company, besides being a director of the McKeesport bank and chairman of the board of directors of the banking house.

Washington.—Secretary McAdoo in a statement declared that the general banking condition in Pittsburg, as well as in the entire country, was strong and sound and that he expected no further trouble as a result of the failure of the Pittsburg First-Second National bank.

"The failure of the Pittsburg bank is simply a sporadic case of unsound banking and has no other significance," the secretary said. He added that the receivership for this institution removed a long-standing "sore spot" in the Pittsburg situation, leaving the general condition in that city sound.

Oregon Bank Robber Soon Caught.

Portland.—Following the sensational holdup of the First State bank of Milwaukie, Ore., Saturday afternoon and a daring effort to make away with his booty, Virgil Perrine, the robber, was captured two hours later within the limits of the town. He was found immersed to his head in the water under a water works wheel, and dynamite was used by the posse in effecting his capture.

STRIKERS CONTROL SITUATION IN RAND

Johannesburg.—The settlement of the strike among the gold miners in the Rand district, which the government arranged with a committee of strikers Saturday, proved ineffective.

The mobs reassembled Sunday. All trains and streetcars suspended service, the crews refusing to work.

Except at the time of the Jameson raid in 1896 and the outbreak of the war in 1899 this city has not experienced such a day of terrorism as Saturday. The mobs in the business section caused less fear than desperadoes who were threatening to dynamite the homes of the wealthy.

The rioting began when strikers forced their way into the Rand Club, whose members are mine-owners. They demolished everything on the ground floor. Three times dragoons scattered the mob, but it quickly reformed. The troops fired a volley over the heads of the rioters, and then two volleys directly into their ranks. Revised figures show that about 20 persons were killed and 150 wounded on Saturday, and that 100 were killed or wounded Friday.

CUBAN CHIEF OF POLICE SHOT

Pistol Fight Outcome of Raid on Gambling Club. Havana.—General Amaranado Riva, chief of the national police, was shot and mortally wounded during a pistol fight in the most crowded portion of the Prado.

General Ernest Asbert, governor of Havana province, Senator Vidal Morales and Representative Arias were involved in the fighting, which was the outcome of a raid made by General Riva Saturday night on the Asbert Club, when a large number of members were caught gambling.

General Riva, while driving with his two young sons, stopped his carriage in front of the Asbert Club and caused the arrest of the doorkeeper for illegally carrying a revolver.

Asbert, Morales and Arias arrived in an automobile about the same time and a heated dispute arose, and the shooting followed.

Trade at Home

"Every time you go to town And start to throw your money around, Say 'Home-made goods are the stuff for me, Because they spell Prosper-i-ty.' The dollar you send to the Eastern Store Says 'Good-bye Bill' for evermore. But the dollar you spend with the Home-made sound Keeps a'comin' and a'comin' and a'comin' around."
