WOULD ERADICATE DISEASE

Revolutionary Orders Issued Affecting Cattle, Dogs, Hogs and Horses.

Portland.—To protect public health by eradicating diseases of livestock the state sanitary division has issued revolutionary orders of compulsory character at a meeting held in the dairy and food commissioner's office. A dog quarantine effective six months beginning August 9 to be enforced by sheriff and peace officers, was declared by Multnomah, Clackamas, Washington, Marion, Tammill, Polk and Columbia counties. Dogs must either be muzzled or held in leash. Animals allowed to run loose will be killed and owners prosecuted.

The board ruled that all cows found by test to be tubercular, must be branded with the letter "T" on the right jaw, a brand 3 by 3/4 inches which cannot be obliterated. Cars used to transport hogs into or through the state must be cleaned and disinfected. All animals brought into the state must be certified to as from a territory free from hog cholera during the past six months, or that the hogs have been immunized from injection of hog cholera vaccine. All swill or refuse from restaurants or hotels or other food packing plants must be thoroughly cooked before fed to hogs. The commissioner ordered that all horses brought into the state must have received the Moller test for septic glands, with the exception of race and exhibition horses, those from nearby states, or horses brought from Europe for breeding purposes.

STATE TRAVELING SCHOOL

Agricultural College Instructors to Give Daily Talks En Route.

Corvallis.—Equipped with portable laboratories and extensive exhibits gotten up for the special purpose of conducting demonstrations and class work in the various agricultural and general welfare subjects, 11 college professors, assisted by members of the state dairy and food commission, representatives of the state grange and of the Oregon Social Hygiene society, left Corvallis on a six weeks' tour of the state.

In carrying out this program the Oregon agricultural college extension staff will travel in two parties, one of which will conduct general welfare schools in the cities and larger towns, while the other will devote the entire six weeks to farmers' institutes for the discussion of various topics.

The daily program outlined for the general welfare school will consist of lectures, demonstrations and informal classroom instruction, covering such domestic subjects as cooking, house decoration, nutritive value of foods, food adulteration and preservation and child welfare.

Big Preserve Is Project

Grants Pass.—There is a movement on foot to establish a game and fish protective territory in southern Oregon. The territory as outlined will embrace Josephine, Jackson, Klamath, Lane, Douglas, Coos and Curry counties in Oregon; Del Norte, Siskiyou, Klamath, Tahoma, Tenney, Humboldt and Mendocino counties in California.

Election Date Is Named

Medford.—At a meeting of the county court September 3 was fixed as the date of a special election to vote on the issuance of $500,000 bonds for the construction of a permanent highway extending from Ashland and the southern line of the county through Medford to the county line on the north, a distance of 41 miles.

Red Spider Strikes Hope

Independence.—Many reports have come in from the hop yards to the effect that the red spider is appearing in large quantities. While this will not affect the quality of the hops, it looks as if it will decrease the quantity.
