

MEXICO ISSUES AN ULTIMATUM TO U. S.

President Huerta Repudiates American Plan for Peaceable Mediation.

Mexico City.—The United States government has been given what is regarded as an ultimatum by President Huerta to recognize Mexico, or sever all diplomatic relations. It is officially stated, and Charge d'Affaires O'Shaughnessy was given his passport.

Senor Urretia, minister of the interior, who on previous occasions has been the spokesman for the administration, was the person chosen to make the announcement.

The demand for recognition of Mexico was included in the note replying to Mr. Lind's suggestion.

One official, in discussing the matter, said that Mexico had reached the point where she either must bow her head in humiliation before the United States or adopt an attitude of defiance. The first contingency, he added, was regarded as impossible.

The official said that Mexico fully realized the gravity of her action and the possibilities that might ensue in case the United States refused to recognize the republic.

Conservative authorities, however, are unwilling to believe that even the severance of diplomatic relations and Mexico's defiant attitude would provoke the United States beyond forbearance.

WOULD BUILD ALASKA ROADS

Development of Coal Lands and Cheap Transportation Needed.

Seattle, Wash.—In his address at the commercial club here Secretary Lane declared it was one of the first duties of the government to develop Alaska.

"If the government were justified in spending $400,000,000 to join the Atlantic and Pacific coasts with a canal, why was it not as much obligated to link to itself with an outlying portion of the United States by an expenditure of $40,000,000? The United States built a dirt road across Pennsylvania a century ago, and dug a canal from Lake Erie to the Hudson river."

The secretary declared himself not only in favor of government construction of an Alaskan railroad system, but its operation, so that products might be transported at reasonable cost. He wished to see the coal lands developed so that they would benefit all the people and not fall into the hands of a monopoly.

Omaha Has $200,000 Fire.

Omaha, Neb.—A loss of $200,000 and three firemen injured was the result of a fire near the heart of the business district, which threatened for a time a whole business block. The fire was the result of spontaneous combustion in the rear of Burgess-Granden company, an electrical and gas fixture house, between Fifteenth and Sixteenth, on Howard street.

40 PERISH WHEN ALASKA SHIP SINKS

Juneau, Alaska.—Thirty-three passengers and seven members of the crew of the Pacific Coast Steamship company's iron steamship State of California perished Sunday morning in Gamber Bay, 90 miles south of Juneau, when the vessel struck an uncharted rock and sank in three minutes, with many passengers imprisoned in their staterooms.

The steamship left Seattle early last week for Skagway and way points. At the time of the disaster the ship carried a total of 79 passengers. Forty-three passengers were rescued and taken to Juneau by the steamship Jefferson, leaving 33 who have perished. Seven of the crew are dead, making the total dead forty.

The Jefferson was only a short distance away when she picked up the "S. O. S." call and when she arrived at the scene the survivors were in the lifeboats and on life rafts. It was broad daylight. There is no possibility that any of the missing reached shore.

Dakota Farmers Harvest at Night.

Grand Forks, N. D.—By transferring the headlights from their automobiles to their binders, farmers of the Red River valley are conducting harvesting operations through the night and lying idle during the day.

This is owing to intense heat, more than 100 horses having died from prostration during the past week, according to reports that have reached here.

Editor Kills Former California Official

Quincy, Cal.—As the result of a feud growing out of the rival claims of the towns of Quincy and Greenville for a $40,000 high school now under construction, J. A. Boyle, the former city attorney, was shot and killed by F. G. Hall, veteran editor of the Plumas National Bulletin, of Quincy.

BRIEF NEWS OF OREGON

Bert Ingle, the 17 year old son of A. N. Ingle, a wealthy sheepman living near Baker, met his death from an accidental revolver shot while evidently crawling in pursuit of some animal.

Work on the second unit of the Klamath reclamation project is practically completed. Water will be furnished for next year to about 7000 acres.

Advice from Florence say the Port of Siuslaw commissioners voted to issue $180,000 of port bonds for the purpose of extending the north jetty at the mouth of the Siuslaw.

Representative Sinnott has introduced a bill appropriating $60,000 for the Pendleton postoffice, the treasury department having reported this amount as necessary to complete the building according to the original plans.

With the remarkable score of 103 out of a possible 105 points, Sergeant S. W. Pearson, Company Four, Coast Artillery, who lives at Roseburg, won the Catrow cup match in the National Rifle association shoot at Camp Perry, Ohio.

D. L. Rood, of Marshfield, has been appointed official sealer of Coos county to carry out the provisions of the new Oregon law providing for the inspection of weights and measures used in selling commodities.

Locked in a cage and playing with a swarm of bees will be the form of entertainment for state fair patrons furnished by James Davis, a bee expert. Mr. Davis has signed an agreement with Frank Meredith, secretary of the fair board, to give "demonstrations" daily.

The fishermen of Tillamook bay near Bay City have organized to sell their own fish, being dissatisfied with the prices offered by local canneries. They will seek markets in the east, and have decided to build a salting and cold storage plant to handle the season's catch.

The authorities of Pendleton have arranged to purify that city's water supply with hypochlorite of lime. There have been but few cases of typhoid fever in Pendleton this summer, but it was deemed best to take measures of prevention until the gravity waterworks system is completed.

Charles V. Galloway, tax commissioner, in an opinion, holds that fishing rights and water rights are "rights and privileges" and "local advantages" belonging to the land. He says they should be taken into consideration in determining the value of the land for assessment and taxation.

Recall petitions have been circulated at Salem against three councilmen, the chief of police and city recorder, and it is reported that a recall petition will soon be put out against Mayor Stevens. It is alleged that the officials have not been faithful to the city's best interests.

The state railroad commission suspended the freight schedule recently adopted by the Sumpter Valley Railroad company on the ground that several increases in rates had been made in violation of orders of the commission. The suspension will continue until November 8.

Steps are being taken to eradicate the fire blight which is threatening the destruction of the orchards of the Grand Ronde valley. The disease has progressed to an extent that it will be necessary to cut down many valuable trees to save the entire orchard from destruction.

In a fit of ungovernable temper and insane jealousy, D. L. Cartwright shot and killed his brother's wife near Rye Valley, and dangerously wounded his nephew, David Powell, who may not survive. Cartwright then killed himself. Although himself a married man, Cartwright is said to have been jealous of his sister-in-law, who was a woman of estimable character.

Sixteen per cent of those who took the spring state teachers' examination failed. How this compares with former examinations is not known as it has not been the custom to keep this record. There were 1562 applicants who took the examination, the largest number yet given the examination at one time in Oregon.

A large gasoline tractor of the caterpillar type will be put to use in ore hauling by the management of the Ben Harrison Mines company near Sumpter. It is expected that the cost of hauling its ores to the Sumpter Valley railroad, 21 miles distant, which now reaches $80 per day, will be largely reduced.

M. J. Loxelle, the dairy expert from Corvallis, has opened an office at Hermiston under joint auspices of the government and the Oregon Agricultural college. Cooperative dairy extension work is to be carried out under his direction in a region embracing 150,000 acres already under irrigation or soon to be.

Oregon youths who aspire to reach positions in the United States navy by way of appointment to the naval academy at Annapolis may take competitive examinations at Oregon Agricultural college on September 19 and 20 next, to determine eligibility for admission to the entrance examinations to be held in February and April, 1914.

RECALL COUNTY OFFICIALS

County Judge and Commissioner Replaced by New Men.

Oregon City, Or.—Clackamas county voted to recall the old county court and seat a new judge and commissioner.

Returns show that H. S. Anderson defeated R. B. Beatie, incumbent, for county judge by 331 votes, and J. W. Smith beat N. Blair, incumbent, by 464 votes for county commissioner.

The recall was the result of dissatisfaction over the way in which the county court let contracts. It was charged in the petitions that Judge Beatie and Commissioner Blair did not advertise for bids on county work and that their procedure under the old system was a waste of the taxpayers' money.

Glynn Refuses to Deal With Sulzer.

Albany, N. Y.—Martin H. Glynn checkedmate a movement of William Sulzer to invoke the arbitration of the courts on the question which of the two is the lawful present chief executive of the state of New York.

Replying to a formal proposal by the impeached executive to submit the issue to adjudication on an agreed statement of facts Mr. Glynn declared it was beyond his power to "barter away any of the functions attaching to the office in which I am placed by your impeachment."

Showers Relieve Kansas.

Kansas City.—Heavy showers over most of the eastern half of Kansas added to the relief that came with the rains of Sunday and it is believed the drought is now effectually broken.

HARRY THAW MAKES DASH FOR LIBERTY

Matteawan, N. Y.—Harry K. Thaw, the slayer of Stanford White, escaped from the hospital for the criminal insane at 7:45 Sunday morning. A dart for liberty through an open gate, a dash into the open door of a powerful automobile that stood quivering outside, and a flight like a rocket for the Connecticut state line, 50 miles away, accomplished his escape, and the hospital authorities are certain he is outside the state. Once beyond its boundaries, Thaw is free. Only long, perhaps years, of litigation can bring him back, and then only in one event—that he be adjudged insane in the state to which he has fled.

The shades were drawn in the dormitories and the inmates were getting their second sleep when Thaw left his room. The milkman's cart was rumbling on the road outside as he walked through the store room and into the outer court or yard of the asylum grounds. A six-cylinder touring car, black, and 60-horsepower, followed by a limousine, also black, loomed lazily along the road as the milkman drew near the gate. Thaw, standing a few feet away, apparently unconcerned, waited until Barnum, attendant at the gate, unlocked the gate and swung it wide to let the milkman enter. As Barnum stepped aside for the milkman to drive inside Thaw flashed past him straight for one of the waiting cars.
