Sheriff Elkins Makes Financial Statement

Sheriff Elkins, in a statement issued August 30, 1913, shows that he has collected in taxes so far this year the sum of $268,065.69. All of this amount was not collected from the 1912 rolls. The sum of $5199.65 was collected from previous rolls, while $2093.54 was taken in as penalties. The sheriff had $2737.08 cash on hand and warrants at the close of the day on which his statement was issued. Of course this amount was included in making up the total of $268,065.69.

County Treasurer Jordan reports that he has registered county warrants to the amount of $7820.70. He has $3000 cash on hand which will be applied to the payment of these warrants, leaving a balance of $4820.70 in unpaid registered county warrants at this date.

Prineville Defeats Redmond at Tennis

Messrs. Stinson, McCall, Bowman, Clarence Rice, Leland Belknap and Dr. Rosenberg composed the Prineville tennis delegation that played Redmond last Sunday. Prineville won most of the games. The Hub City boys will play a return game in Prineville some time in the near future. The Prineville team reports a good time.

Crook County Man Designs Beautiful Cup

The Seattle Post-Intelligencer comes to hand with a cut of a handsome $1000 Perpetual Trophy cup offered by that paper for the Annual Reliability Tour which is taken to further interest in the good roads movement. The design and workmanship of the cup was done by W. H. Eldridge of Roberts, Oregon. In the cup alone are 172 ounces of sterling silver. With the base it stands 36 inches high. The base is of Mexican onyx surrounded by eight silver shields. The bottom of the base has one silver shield with the inscription—"Perpetual Trophy, Post-Intelligencer, Annual Reliability Tour." It took Mr. Eldridge over two months to complete the work on the trophy, which is a credit both to the Seattle paper and the Crook county man that designed it.

Greetings

Another year has closed. The Heavenly Father has been good to all of us. Our church has been fairly prosperous during the year. This has been made so by the cooperation of the membership and our many friends.

I wish to thank heartily all the friends who have so generously helped us by words of appreciation and financial aid. We like Prineville and her excellent people and shall be delighted to serve them another year.

During my residence among you I have tried to be of real service to all. And if returned for another year, I shall labor even harder to serve the church, the town and the people.

Very truly,
JOHN E. WILLIAMS,
Pastor Methodist church.

Haner Abstract Co. Changes Hands

The J. H. Haner Abstract Co. has been sold to the Crook County Abstract Co., a new company recently incorporated by Messrs. J. B. Bell and A. W. Sims of Eugene.

These gentlemen have had a very extended experience in abstract work and in banking, and will bring into their line of business new capital, new ideas and greater efficiency. We extend to them the glad hand and wish them success in their new venture.

Who Pays Taxes To Keep This Town Going?

By HOLLAND.

WHEN a new bridge is needed, a road must be repaired, a courthouse is to be built, where does the money come from? Do the mill order houses pay it? Hardly. They will not even send a contribution to help buy a bell for the new church or to help a Fourth of July celebration. They pay no taxes in this town, and they are not concerned in its prosperity.

This town must be supported by its residents and those who live in the immediate vicinity. If they insist on sending their money away then they are helping to kill their town, and they are making it harder for them to pay the taxes necessary to maintain local government and to make local improvements.

You owe something to yourself, and you owe something to your neighbors. You can help yourself by helping your neighbors. You can't injure your neighbors without injuring yourself. When you send money to mill order houses you are hurting your town, your neighbors and yourself.

SPEND YOUR MONEY WHERE YOU MAKE IT.

Miss Ila Charlton is doing professional nursing at a Prineville home this week.

Porter Heath was over from Cline Falls Friday trading horses.

Miss Viola Truesdale returned home Friday from a pleasant two-days' visit with Miss Anna Donlay at Cline Falls.

J. L. Foster was out Saturday to look after his bees.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bayn and daughter, Hazel, spent the day Sunday on the Deschutes fishing.

Miss Anna Miller returned home Monday from Portland where she has been receiving treatment from an eye specialist.

Carl Charlton was a Prineville visitor last week. Carl is as busy as a cranberry merchant now days training his mare, "Rags," for the fall races.

Construction work on the Sears house is moving along rapidly under Contractor Alley's supervision.

A well known farmer in this vicinity lost a valuable milch cow from blood last week. The following day a cow belonging to same party with an evident desire to partially repay her owner for his previous loss presented him with twin calves, all of which is sufficient explanation of why this farmer goes about whistling, "Every little bit added to what you got, etc."

Mr. and Mrs. Melvine Shufman, of Pendleton are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Hall. They are on their return from a hunting and camping trip at Crater Lake. Mr. Shufman is a booster for the Pendleton Round-Up. He declares it will be the best ever this year.

Joe Shearer went to Bend Sunday after his family who has been visiting relatives there for some time.

Geo. McPharland went to Sisters Tuesday for a four-horse load of lumber.

Second crop of alfalfa is most up and considerable grain is being cut on the irrigated land, while threshing is in full swing for the dry farmers.

Miss Viola Truesdale is working as substitute in the telephone office at Redmond this week.

The frost of September 1st did considerable damage to gardens out our way.

THE DECLARATION.

Upon the whole, this (the Declaration of Independence) is the most commanding and the most pathetic utterance in any age, in any language of national grievances and of national purposes, having a Demosthenic momentum of thought and a fervor of emotional appeal such as Tyrtæus might have put into his war songs. Indeed, the Declaration of Independence is a kind of war song. It is a stately and a passionate chant of human freedom. It is a prose lyric of civil and military heroism. We may be altogether sure that no genuine development of literary taste among the American people in any period of our future history can result in serious misfortune to this particular specimen of American literature.—Moses Colt Tyler.

Commercialized.

Mrs. Kiddlely—Why is it that we never hear of the cute things your children say? All the other mothers are bragging about theirs. Mrs. Piffon Wheeze—You see, my husband writes the smart sayings of the little ones, and when any of ours says anything worth repeating he takes it down and sells it.—New York Globe.

Grimes Valley

Mr. and Mrs. John Elliott started to Portland Saturday. Mrs. Elliott went to be at the bedside of her father who is dangerously ill.

Tom Fitzgerald and family and father arrived this week. They had a pleasant trip crossing the mountains.

Miss Myrtle Joslin of Willow creek has been employed to teach the Upper Rye Grass school for the winter, to begin September 15.

The Spaulding agent did quite a flourishing business in the valley this week. Among those buying a new hack or buggy were Harry Webb, Roy Stewart, Ed Jones, Tom Creamer, Henry Grimes, Fred Grimes and Dave Grimes.

The Grimes brothers expect to begin threshing the 6th.

There was church at the Upper Rye Grass schoolhouse Sunday. Mr. Ramsey preached a fine sermon and those that were not present missed more than they think. There will be church at the same place September 21, so let us see if we all can be there to encourage this gentleman in his earnest work.

Ed Raglin brought up a load of cement from Metolius Monday to be used in the foundation of the new schoolhouse. The contractors are now at work on the new building. Chester Evans and Gracie Mason spent Sunday at Terrebonne. Fred Grimes and family were in Redmond Wednesday.

Barren Soil.

A veteran, talking to his great-grandson, a little lad of eight or nine years, remarked: "Nearly a generation and a half ago my head was grazed by a bullet at the battle of Chickamauga." The little boy looked at the old man's head thoughtfully and said: "There isn't much grazing there now, is there, sir?"—Washington Star.

LOOK DOWN DEEP.

Study the inner man. We know no more of the real depth of our own lives than a child who crosses a frozen lake knows how deep the lake is. He does not even know that it has a depth. It seems all surface.—Phillips Brooks.

The Powell Buttes

a Great Country

The finest field of potatoes the writer ever saw is that of Geo. Shobert, planted on summerfall. Mr. Shobert is a good farmer. His farm is free from weeds and he raises good crops. And, by the way, while we are writing of his farm let us not overlook Mrs. Shobert's part of it. Every year she has the best garden in the country and her yard is full of beautiful flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Shobert have worked hard since coming here but are now reaping the fruits of their labor. They recently purchased a new carriage and are enjoying life.

Another refreshing shower Monday. A few light showers will do no harm but as the second cutting of alfalfa is now ready and the hum of the thresher is heard in the land a little will be plenty.

Mrs. Eugene Long of Prineville was a visitor at Miss Charlton's "Homestead on the Hillside" recently.

The grain is nearly all cut and some stacking is done. A bountiful harvest is given the people of the Powell Butte country this year. The dry farmers are all happy. The writer heard one dry farmer remark not long since that he would not trade his 160 acres of dry land for any piece of ditch land he ever saw for grain raising.

Mrs. J. E. Warner has certainly demonstrated that this is a good country for turkeys. She has raised nearly 150 and if she can successfully save them from the raids of coyotes will realize a nice sum when she markets them.

Green Beard has brought his thresher over from Bend. He will doubtless get a large amount of threshing as there is plenty of work for two threshers.

Mr. and Mrs. Speer have returned to their homestead on the butte after quite a visit with Mrs. Speer's parents at Bend. X Y Z.
