Bend Hotel Man in County Jail

W. D. Cursey, the defaulting Bend hotel man, was brought to Prineville Sunday by Deputy Sheriff Wenandy and placed in the county jail. Cursey will have a preliminary hearing in a few days. The following telegram from Bend gives the details of the case:

Bend, Or., Sept. 8.—In charge of Deputy Sheriff J. H. Wenandy, W. D. Cursey, defaulting hotel keeper, arrived here last night from Missoula, Mont., where he was arrested Wednesday. Crook county authorities had been on his trail for a week, and finally arrested him in the Montana City when he was met at the train by his wife. Deputy Sheriff Wenandy was in Portland, where he saw Mrs. Cursey. When he learned that she was leaving the city with a ticket for Missoula, he wired the chief of police there, and Cursey's arrest followed.

Cursey and his wife came here last fall, and this spring he leased two hotels and undertook to cut a wide swath. He ran heavily into debt, it is said, and about the middle of July left for parts unknown. Before he did this however, he is known to have barrowed money from several persons here, several hundred dollars in all, and it is also alleged that he cashed some worthless checks. He is said to have "stung" people of the town for probably $1500.

Mrs. Cursey did not leave with him, and she was arrested and tried in justice court, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses on a mortgage. She was acquitted as being an innocent party to the offense, and then left town.

A telegram was received Friday by the mortgagee, who swore to a warrant against Cursey, from Mrs. Cursey, offering to liquidate the debt on the installment plan, provided Cursey were given his liberty, but no attention was paid to the offer.

Portland Cattle Market

Portland, September 5, 1913. Receipts for the week have been—cattle 1497; calves 118; hogs 2115; sheep 3727; and horses 1. Killers are surfeited on half fat cattle and are shading their bids on such stuff and only good steers are in demand. Most of the receipts for the week have been of the ordinary variety, so sales have ranged in prices from $6.75 to $7.75 with 8 cents as extreme top for very best grade. Feeders are in demand and had good sale. A limited supply of cows and heifers has been received with good demand and prices in line with about a week ago, top grades going at $6.35 to $6.65 and an occasional bunch at $6.75. A better outlet for bulls. Steady prices on prime light veal. Receipts of hogs continue to come in bunches. A good sized run Monday with $9.50 top for best light stuff. The price sagged to $9.35 by Tuesday and Wednesday, the same holding for Friday and the hog market can be quoted anywhere between $9 and $9.50 with tendency downward.

The week started off with a brisk business in the sheep house with a fair supply of both choice lambs and sheep. The strength had declined before the midweek and buyers were hard to find for the few arrivals on the later stock trains. Sheep and lamb prices quoted steady with last week.

OLD AGE AND DEATH.

The seas are quiet when the winds give o'er;
So calm are we when passions are no more,
For then we know how vain it was to boast
Of fleeting things, too certain to be lost.
Clouds of affection from our younger eyes
Conceal that emptiness which age describes.

The soul's dark cottage, battered and decayed,
Lets in new light through chinks that time has made.
Stronger by weakness, wiser men become
As they draw near to their eternal home.
Leaving the old, both worlds at once they view
That stand upon the threshold of the new.

—Edmund Waller.
