

OREGON NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

Events Occurring Throughout the State During the Past Week.

Livestock Entry Free.
Salem.—In the livestock department of the Oregon state fair, which opens Monday, September 23, and closes Saturday, October 4, no entry fees will be charged. Those exhibiting will be charged the low rental of $2 for the week for double or box stalls and $1 for single stalls. For hog or sheep pens $1 will be charged for the week. So far as possible stock will be grouped in breeds, classes and families. Stalls and pens with the first bedding of straw will be furnished free to exhibition stock. When exhibits of any character are shipped to the secretary, he should be informed at the time in order that proper attention may be given.

Wild Horses Ordered.
The Dalles.—Ben Taylor, a prominent rancher of the Antelope district, was in the city conferring with officials of the Wasco county fair and was commissioned to secure from the numerous bands of wild horses near Antelope 50 animals that have never known the "feel" of saddle, bridle or halter. The horses will be brought to this city for use at the "Rodeo," which will be one of the many big features of the twenty-third annual exhibition of the local fair, October 8 to 11, in the grounds of the Driving Park association.

Bad Smash-up on Sumpter Valley.
Baker.—A mistake on the part of a train dispatcher caused a head-on collision between two freight trains on the Sumpter Valley railroad, resulting in completely demolishing one engine, damage to the other and derailment of a dozen cars, but no fatalities or injuries. Firemen and engineers jumped to safety when they saw that a collision was inevitable. The engines met on a heavy grade, one going down hill, traveling at a high rate of speed, the other one traveling slowly.

TO SHOW NEW FEATURES Agricultural College Will Exhibit at Fair.

Corvallis.—On a scale larger than ever before the Oregon agricultural college is preparing an educational exhibit for the state fair. The exhibit is designed to show approved methods of industrial and technical work in the departments of agriculture, the school of domestic science and art, the engineering school and the crop pests and zoological departments, as well as the experiment stations. An exhibit of grains and grasses from the eastern Oregon station will prove an interesting and valuable feature. Among the new features will be animal exhibits from the college herds and demonstration of the best method of handling. There will also be exhibits showing approved methods of silo construction. There will be other demonstrations and illustrated lectures. The principal exhibit will occupy the space previously assigned in the large auditorium and will be arranged with a view to give practical instruction in the latest methods applied to agriculture, home economics and engineering.

Special Surveys For Water Rights.
Salem.—Three survey parties have been engaged since June in the measuring of all irrigated lands on the Malheur river and its tributaries and in determining the location and capacity of all ditches diverting water from public streams. This work has been carried on under the direction of the state engineer to secure information as a basis for an adjudication of water rights by the state water board.

S. P. Asks Reduced Assessment.
Eugene.—The tax department of the Southern Pacific railroad has asked the Lane county board of equalization to tax the personal property of the company used in the construction of the Oakridge extension and the Willamette Pacific railways in this county, at 50 per cent of its actual cash value. The members of the board value.

Murder Trial Delayed.
McMinnville.—The charge of murder in the first degree, preferred by the Yamhill county grand jury against James Hutchins, alleged slayer of Walter A. Rodgers, as well as the charge of assault with a dangerous weapon, also preferred against Hutchins for alleged shooting of Frank Wilbur, have been continued to the December term of the circuit court on motion of District Attorney Upjohn.

Bachelors To Be Baby Judges.
Corvallis.—A baby show, judged by old bachelors, is to be a feature of the Benton county fair September 18, 19 and 20. The babies are to be under 1 year of age and judged on beauty alone.

The work of reforesting from 4000 to 500 acres of denuded mountain slopes in Oregon and Washington is about to be undertaken by the United States forest service. Both the direct seeding method, in which the tree seed is planted in spots, and the planting of nursery-grown trees will be employed, and something over 3000 pounds of seed and 800,000 plants will be used.

Co-operation between the state governments of Oregon and Washington and the war and interior departments of the federal government will be sought by the committee created by the Oregon legislature to determine the feasibility of, and to outline plans for, the construction of a publicly-owned hydro-electric power project on the Columbia river near the Big Eddy rapids.

In order that the men employed in the state printing office may be paid weekly, as was the case under the administration of the late state printer, W. S. Dunway, and in all other printing offices, State Printer Harris has made arrangements with the Ladd & Hush bank to borrow about $300, or whatever amount is necessary, on his own note weekly to meet the payroll.

Every available member of the agricultural staff and experiment station force of the Oregon Agricultural college are out in the field judging at the county, school and grange fairs. The demand has been so great this year on the college force that it has been impossible to meet it, despite the fact that more than 40 people have been put into the service. The college is requested to send representatives to judge livestock, horticultural products, grains and grasses and other field crops, poultry, home economics exhibits and even the baby shows.

G. A. R. MEETS IN SOUTH

National Encampment Begins Near Scenes of Famous Battles. Chattanooga, Tenn.—Held for the first time in real southern territory and in close proximity to some of the most famous battlefields of the Civil war, the forty-seventh annual national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic was officially opened here with a reception at the Hotel Patton.

Not only is this the red letter encampment of the G. A. R. because it is the first meeting south of the Mason and Dixon line, but the present year also marks the semi-centennial of the battle of Chickamauga. Look-out Mountain and Missionary Ridge, all within a short distance of this city. In fact, the exact anniversary of the battle of Chickamauga falls on the last two days of the encampment, September 19 and 20.
