Little Prospect of President Signing Tariff Bill Before End of Week.

Washington—More time has been devoted by congress to the consideration of the Underwood tariff bill than ever before was given to the consideration of any other tariff measure, and the present special session has already run two weeks beyond the previous record for a special session, with no end yet in sight. There is little prospect that the Underwood bill can be signed by the president prior to September 20, but if the bill becomes a law on that day a total of 166 days will have been consumed in its consideration and passage.

The longest previous special session of congress was that of the sixty-first congress, at which the Payne-Aldrich law was passed. That session ran from March 15 to August 5, 1909, a total of 144 days. It took 131 days from March 15 to July 24, 1897, to pass the Dingley bill.

Currency Debate Begun in House.

Oratorical display prior to the passage of the administration currency bill through the house began with a series of speeches for and against the measure. The general discussion continued throughout day and night sessions of the house until Saturday night.

Chairman Glass, of the banking and currency committee, father of the bill; Representative Hayes, of California, ranking member of the committee, and Representative Murdoch, of Kansas, Progressive floor leader, opened the debate for their respective parties.

The measure was taken up in detail for amendment Monday, and it is expected the detailed discussion will be extensive. Under the caucus action of the Democrats, the possibility that any change will be written into the measure in the house is remote.

Bryan's Plea Heeded by House.

In response to an urgent demand from the state department, the house adopted a joint resolution making an emergency appropriation of $100,000 to be used for the relief of destitute Americans in Mexico and for their transportation to the United States.

Majority Leader Underwood presented the emergency resolution and read a personal letter from Secretary Bryan asking immediate action. The secretary said the department was using $2000 a day to aid Americans in Mexico and that only $12,000 was available for that purpose. The resolution will go immediately to the senate, where it probably will be passed.

No Ground for Bubonic Plague Scare.

Surgeon-General Blue of the public health service declared there was no cause for alarm in the one death from bubonic plague at Martinez, Cal. The case is regarded simply as a sporadic one, not in any way an indication of danger of an epidemic, but entirely due to ground squirrel infection. For several weeks the public health service has been making plans for increased activity against rodent carriers of the disease on the Pacific coast, and those plans are about to be put into execution.

National Capital Brevities.

Attacking the "evils of the caucus system," Representative Anderson of Minnesota resigned from the ways and means committee, as a protest.

The food research laboratory of the bureau of chemistry is conducting experiments in several egg-breaking establishments to assist the manufacturers in canning perfect eggs for winter use.

A countervailing duty on dried or candied fruits and combed wool, or tops from Australia, equivalent to the bounty granted to those products by the Australian government, was ordered by the treasury.

Wine—pure wine—is to be a thing of the past under the pending tariff bill in the opinion of Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, formerly chief chemist for the government.

The Pomerene amendment taxing brandy used in fortifying California wines at the rate of $1.10 per gallon and also taxing spurious wines, was stricken from the tariff bill in conference between the senate and house.

Hindus seeking admittance to the United States through the Philippines or any other American possession will not be permitted to land unless they pass the examination under the immigration laws.

General denial of all the allegations made against him by Colonel Martin M. Mulhall of Baltimore, former self-styled chief lobbyist for the National Association of Manufacturers, was voted by former Representative James Watson of Indiana, before the house lobby investigating committee.

A canvass of members of the house and senate committees which have been investigating President Wilson's assertion concerning the existence of a dangerous lobby in Washington, showed that both reports will sustain the charges of the chief executive.

"BIG TIM" SULLIVAN DEAD

Almost Consigned to a Pauper's Grave When Found.

New York.—The body of "Big Tim" Sullivan, member of congress from the thirteenth New York district and a local Tammany leader, was identified by chance in a Fordham morgue, where it had lain for 13 days. Sullivan disappeared August 31, when he eluded one of his nurses, set to attend him because of a mental malady, and ever since then his friends had searched for him in vain. His body was on its way to the potter's field when the chance observation of a policeman who had known him intimately checked its course.

Sulzer Has No Pardon Power.

Kingston, N. Y.—The exact status of Governor William Sulzer of New York, impeached by the state legislature, was definitely determined here when Justice Hasbrouck ruled that Sulzer is powerless to pardon Joseph G. Robis, former New York banker, convicted of misappropriating bank deposits, pending the result of his trial before the impeachment court.

China Will Employ 200 Germans.

Peking.—The conclusion of arrangements were reported here by which China will employ a German lieutenant general with a staff of six, and 200 other German officers to reorganize its army. It was said the Krupps will pay 25 per cent of the Germans' salaries.

Rich Spinster Leaves $10,000,000.

Philadelphia.—Isaac T. Starr, a broker here, will inherit $10,000,000. The money will come to him from Miss Julia Garrett, Pennsylvania's richest spinster, whose investments Starr has looked after for years.

RANCHER SHOOTS OREGON EX-JUDGE

Astoria, Or. — Ex-Circuit Judge Frank J. Taylor, president of the state board of pilot commissioners and one of the leading members of the legal fraternity in western Oregon, was slain by Oswald C. Hansel, a Clatsop Plains rancher, on Commercial street, near the Spokane, Portland & Seattle railroad depot, at 9 o'clock Sunday morning.

The shooting came as the climax of a fabled grievance which Hansel had had for years against his victim, for what reason no one knows and the further fact that, four years ago, the judge acted as attorney for Mrs. Hansel in filing a suit for divorce, an action that was later withdrawn.

Fully 50 persons were within half a block of the scene. Dozens of them rushed to give assistance and physicians were summoned, but life was extinct before the first one reached the prostrate man.

After gazing a second at the prostrate form of his victim, Hansel tossed his revolver into the river and started to walk away. He was grabbed by bystanders. He remarked that he was going to the police station to give himself up.

RAILROAD WRECK LAID TO EMPLOYEES

Engineer, Flagman and Conductor of New Haven Road Held Responsible.

New Haven, Conn.—Three employes of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad are held by Coroner Eli Mix to be criminally responsible for the disastrous wreck at North Haven on September 2, when the White Mountain Express plunged through the second section of the standing Bar Harbor Express, exacting a toll of 21 lives.

Those held to be responsible are Augustus Miller, engineer of the White Mountain Express, and Bruce C. Adams and Charles H. Murray, conductor and flagman, respectively, of the Bar Harbor train.

The coroner neither blames nor absolves the New Haven road. He finds the signals were in perfect working order, "and whether the banjo signals are obsolete or not the accident would have been prevented if the company's rules had not been violated." He declares the number of violations of rules by employes "makes a sorry record."

Engineer Miller was arrested on a bench warrant and pleaded not guilty before the superior court. Bench warrants have been issued for Adams and Murray.

THAW APPLIES TO COURT

Writ is Intended as Check on New Hampshire Governor.

Colebrook, N. H.—The perpetually recurring writ of habeas corpus which so often entered the career of Harry K. Thaw since his incarceration in Mattawan as the insane slayer of Stank White cropped up again in his fight to resist extradition from New Hampshire after his unexpected deportation from the Dominion of Canada. This time and for the first time in the history of Thaw's efforts to regain his liberty the writ was issued by a federal court.

United States Judge Aldrich in the district of New Hampshire granted the application of three of the Thaw lawyers, Martin, Shurtieff and Olmstead. William Traversa Jerome, specially deputed to bring Thaw back to the asylum, heard the news with ill grace and characterized the move as one of bad faith.

Accused Priest Believed Insane.

New York.—Hans Schmidt, the priest who confessed that he killed Anna Amsuller and cut up her body and cast it piece by piece into the Hudson river, "as a sacrifice to be consummated in blood," is in the observation ward of the Tombs prison under the watchful eye of Dr. McGuire the prison physician. Warden Fallon, of the Tombs, declares the man is insane—one of the most dangerous men ever confined in the prison, and in this view he was upheld by Deputy Commissioner of Corrections Wright.

From far-off Mainz, Germany, there came to Mr. Joseph F. Mooney, vicar general of the arch-diocese of New York, a cablegram from the secretary of the bishop, which said that Schmidt had been declared insane there and suspended by the bishop.

GAYNOR'S FUNERAL SERVICES SIMPLE

New York.—At the request of his widow, who said she knew he would have wished it so, the funeral of Mayor William J. Gaynor, who died at sea, will be marked by simplicity, without orchestra, or band music or military pomp. The funeral service will be held September 21 in Old Trinity church.

At Mrs. Gaynor's request the only escort of the mayor's body will be mounted policemen. There will be no military accompaniment. Though numerous orchestras have volunteered to play the funeral music, Mrs. Gaynor asked that only the regular choir of Old Trinity sing. She asked that Gounod's "Ave Maria" be sung, because, she said, it was one of her husband's favorites, and she often sang it for him.

Mayor Gaynor was voyaging over sea on the steamer Baltic in the hope of regaining his strength to enter the three-cornered municipal campaign as a candidate for re-election, when he died suddenly on the Baltic as the steamer was within a few hundred miles of the Irish coast.
