Prineville has a New Band Leader

Prineville is to have a new band leader. Carl Sienke from the East, but recently from Redmond, has been secured to take charge. He is an experienced band and orchestra man and will give his whole time to perfecting these organizations in Prineville.

Band practice will be held Wednesday and Friday evenings. Anyone that can play an instrument is invited to come out and take part. Mr. Sienke had charge of the music at the fair, which needs no better recommendation for the man.

A free band concert will be given Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock on Main street.

Music Lovers' Club Elect Officers

The Music Lovers' Club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hugh Lakin with Mrs. Winnek as hostess.

The following officers were unanimously elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. Charles S. Edwards, president; Mrs. Robert W. Douglas, secretary-treasurer.

Several active and associate members were taken into the club. They were the Misses Nora and Lora Stearns, the Misses Blanche and Ethel Williams, and Misses Hubbard and Jeffries. Misses Conway and Elma Noble were transferred from active to social members.

The time of meeting was changed to the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month.

A review of the life and most important compositions of Liszt was given by Mrs. Robert E. Gray. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Williams, with Mrs. Smith as hostess.

Crook County Christian Endeavor

On September 27 and 28, the Christian Endeavor societies of Crook county met at Madras. The sessions were full of good things of real interest to Endeavorers and were marked by a deep interest and enthusiasm throughout the convention. The business sessions presided over by Dr. Gove of Prineville were lively and interesting. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Geo. H. Ramsey, Prineville; 1st vice-president, Miss Evelyn Maddron, Madras; 2nd vice-president, Miss Roxy Morris, Terrebonne; Secretary, Dr. Gove, Prineville; treasurer, Miss Lela Guard, Vanora.

Powell Butte

Geo. McPharland and Geo. Klaser went to Sisters Friday, returning Saturday with a load of lumber each.

Mrs. Hannah Goodrich went to Redmond Wednesday after a pleasant two-days' visit with Mrs. Truesdale.

Wallace Smith and family attended the fair at Prineville Thursday.

Geo. Beckman was a Prineville visitor Saturday.

Mr. Griffith, father of Mrs. Geo. McPharland, left Thursday for the Palouse country in Washington.

Mrs. John Klaser returned to her home in Redmond Saturday after a visit with relatives here.

Mr. Lindquist got in with his car of household goods, stock, etc., from Tacoma, Friday. His wife and daughter came in a day later and are staying in Redmond for a few days.

Mrs. Ida Morse and daughter, Miss Edna returned from Prineville Sunday, where the latter had been in attendance at the teachers' institute. Miss Edna remained over a few days to complete her work in connection with the recent fair.

C. H. Charlton moved his family to Prineville where they will live for the winter. Mrs. C. keeping house for her sons, Carl and Harold, who will attend high school, and Chas. Jr., who will enjoy the advantage of the city grades.

W. G. Mustard is wearing a "Sunny Jim" smile these days. The cause of part of his exuberant good nature is the fact that he won twelve first and second prizes on vegetables at the late county fair, among them being first and second on onions. This, it would seem, is enough to make most any person optimistic. But Glen has yet another and better cause to feel good. When the judges awarded the W. F. King prize of a $125 farm wagon for the best team of geldings the prize was landed by Mr. Mustard. This was indeed a prize worth making an effort to win and Mr. Mustard is receiving congratulations upon his good fortune.

School started for the pupils of district No. 90 Monday morning with Miss Mabel Smith, of Lamonta, as teacher.

Among the young people of this section who are in attendance at the Crook County High School this year are Misses Orsa Sears, Gladys and Hazel Bayn, Viola and Pauline Truesdale, Messrs Carl and Earl Charlton, Robert Jones and Jessie Beckman. If these young people from the farms knew of the sacrifice their parents must make to send them away to school nine months out of the year they would earn some splendid credit marks before their return in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Prickett and daughter returned Sunday from a trip to the Cove Orchards where they bought a load of fine fruit.

The scholars of Sheperd school district are the winners of first prize for school exhibit at the county fair. The premium is a large flag and will be doubly valued by the school because it was won in fair competition with other schools whose scholarship is many times that of Sheperd district. Patrons are as elated over this winning as are the scholars. As far as we know Miss Mildred Alley won more blue ribbons than any other school child in this vicinity.

Since writing our items last week, J. F. Rice, clerk of school district 90, is in receipt of two letters from Wm. Wilson of Alaska. The first was an offer of an acre of land in the north-east corner of the 80-acre tract of land joining the N. B. Golden farm. The second letter was a sort of recall to the first in which Mr. Wilson recalled his first offer, substituting instead a site in a 320-acre tract across the road and fronting on the cross road running parallel of his land on the east. Whether Mr. Wilson's latest offer will be accepted and a schoolhouse built on the land offered will be decided at a meeting of the patrons in the near future.

Potato harvest will be on in full blast soon. Some are even starting now to dig, but any reliable estimate at a yield would be impossible at this early date.

Plainview Items

September 29, 1913.

Mrs. Winkle is helping Mrs. Geo. McCallister cook for the threshing machine men.

Mrs. Young from Echo and Mrs. Rubie from Sisters are visiting at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Strahm.

Miss Lulu Montgomery returned Friday from attending the Teachers' Institute to take up her work as teacher in the Plainview school district.

Hazel and Lester Winkle are the two new students enrolled at school. This makes a total number of 19 students.

Eddie Strahm is helping the numerous neighbors with their threshing.

Sunday evening was visited by a light shower which caused the farmers who were expecting to thresh their grain to wear long faces.

Mr. Towne preached to an audience of two last Sunday. This looked bad for the members of the church. We hope that next service day everybody will come out and hear Mr. Towne.

Miss Lulu Montgomery is the new secretary and treasurer of the Plainview Sunday School.
