Will Build Concrete Pumping Station

The Deschutes Power Co. will begin the erection in a few days of a new concrete building to be used for a pump house. It will be erected north of the present power house. A new 800-gallon centrifugal fire pump and a 200-gallon Triplex Gould pump will replace the steam pumps now in use. The old pumps will not be dismantled, however, but will be kept ready for use in case of an emergency.

It will take a 75-horse power direct connected motor to handle the 800-gallon fire pump and a 25 h. p. for the 200-gallon. Work on the new building will be started within 10 days and the new pumps will be working by the first of the year. It was the intention of the Power Company to install the pumps sooner but the machinery could not be obtained.

An Old Pioneer Passes Away

James Lawson, an old Oregon pioneer, died last Friday, October 31, at his home on Mill creek, aged 85 years. He was buried Sunday at the Mill creek cemetery.

James Lawson was born in Whiteley county, Kentucky, in the year 1828. He moved to Missouri in 1853, remained there until 1864, when he and his wife and two children crossed the plains to Oregon with an ox team, arriving in Linn county, Oregon, where he remained until 1866. Then he moved to Southern Oregon for a couple of years, and returned to Linn county and stayed there for two years.

In the year 1870, he came to Prineville. He united with the Prineville Baptist church as one of its charter members and was a faithful and devoted Christian. He leaves three brothers and sisters in Kentucky, three granddaughters and two grandsons, one great-grandson and one great-granddaughter in Crook county and many other relatives and friends to mourn his loss.

Rev. John McAllister of the Baptist church of Prineville preached the funeral sermon at the Mill creek schoolhouse. There was a very large gathering.

Picked Crisp Ten-Spot Off the Floor

If old man Diogenes or any of his descendants that had such a hard time finding an honest man should happen in Prineville we would recommend him to Wm. Reichner. Billy picked up a nice new ten dollar bill off the floor yesterday and hit the trail for the Journal office looking for the owner. Mrs. Spaulding confessed to the loss and received the money. Good boy.

L. L. Whitcomb the Oldest Official

L. L. Whitcomb of Saginaw disputes the title of James Elkins of Prineville to being the oldest living official in the state. Mr. Elkins' record extends back 51 years while Mr. Whitcomb was assessor of Washington county 58 years ago. His great-grandfather came over in the "Mayflower," his father was an officer in the Revolution.
