Powell Butte

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Speer, at the Geo. Hobbs place, was quite ill Monday night. Dr. Hosack, of Redmond, was called.

Miss Ila Charlton returned to Prineville Tuesday after a visit of several days with her father.

John Tengman returned from the John Day country Monday where he had gone for a four-horse load of apples.

N. P. Alley is adding a new kitchen to his residence.

Mrs. C. C. Montgomery returned recently from a two weeks' visit with relatives in Washington. She was accompanied home by her mother who will remain indefinitely.

Lee Hobbs, Earl Saunders, J. L. Gibson and Geo. Braze are Powell Butte hog raisers who shipped stock to the Portland market last week. The shipment was made through the Farmer's Union Warehouse at Redmond. In a shipment made a week previous, Mr. Gibson sent out two porkers whose combined weight was 819 pounds.

A bunch of fine sheep were driven through this section last week headed for Bear creek, where the owner has winter range. These were thoroughbred animals shipped in for breeding purposes.

Mrs. A. W. Bayne visited her daughters in Prineville the latter part of the week, returning home Sunday.

John Woller blew in from San Francisco Friday, where he has visited his mother for the past two months.

J. P. Doherty, of Redmond, was a Powell Butte visitor Sunday. J. P. is having about thirty acres cleared on his farm, Mr. Jeffries having charge of the clearing.

Rev. D. W. Phillips, a traveling evangelist, is conducting a series of meetings at the Shepherd school house this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Beckman went to Prineville Sunday for a brief visit with their son Jesse who is attending high school.

Mrs. Ida Morse and daughters Ada and Edna, were at home to their friends Thursday afternoon at what proved to be a most enjoyable occasion. The house was darkened and numerous candles in yellow holders were used for lighting. The rooms were tastefully decorated in black and yellow while on every hand were black cats, witches riding broom sticks and all the usual reminders of Halloween. Black and yellow colors were also managed with pleasing effect in the dainty refreshments served during the afternoon. Mrs. Morse and daughters were also hostesses at a delightful dinner party for the evening. Those enjoying their hospitality for the later occasion were Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Van Doren, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Chapman, Miss Mabel Smith, Geo. Hobbs and Clarke Morse.

S. D. and W. G. Mustard and families are enjoying a visit from their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mustard, a brother, Harry, and two small nieces, all of Oakdale, Washington. The party arrived on the Sunday evening train.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Young, of Redmond were dinner guests at the Allen Wilcoxon home Sunday last.

G. C. Truesdale took a load of oats to Prineville Monday.

W. T. Smith was out making the rounds Monday in an effort to collect money previously contributed toward building the Wilson school house. Unpatented land is a serious handicap when it comes to building school houses, and every person owning land in the new district should give in proportion to the amount of land owned, thus enabling the district to put up a substantial school building.

Lee Hobbs is a Portland visitor this week.

This section was visited by a heavy rain Friday and Saturday which put a damper on potato digging for the time. Monday brought sunshine, however, and with fair weather this week should see the finish of potato harvest for 1913.

Lamonta News

The rabbit drive north of Lamonta last Sunday was a great success. A large crowd was present. Nearly 3000 rabbits were killed. Another rabbit drive will be held on the Divide, Sunday, November 9, 1913. Everyone welcome. A chicken dinner will be served.

Mrs. Mabel Ashford will leave soon for her home in Washington, after an extended visit here with friends and relatives.

Max Fowler and family left last week for their future home, Tacoma, Washington.

Mrs. M. T. Cowan returned last Monday from Prineville after a pleasant visit with her daughter, Mrs. Carl McGhee.

Quite a crowd attended the football game at Prineville last Tuesday. It was a dandy game.

H. F. Mitchell and wife were Culver visitors last Tuesday.

Gardner Black left for Eugene last week to attend school.

Newton Melton and family were business visitors to Madras last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pitsur and Oral Moore are here on a visit to relatives. They came from California by team.

Luther Melton and family spent Halloween night at the home of Joe Wetland.

Mrs. J. Robinson of The Dalles is here on a visit. She is much improved in health since her many friends saw her last.

Mrs. E. Roby returned home last week from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Adams, in the Willamette valley.

Settlers Coming In.

Deschutes, Or., Nov. 1—Six families of new settlers with three carloads of furniture, stock and implements have arrived during the past week from different Eastern points. They are all purchasers of irrigated land under the Central Oregon Irrigation Company's system.

J. K. Graham and family, from Emmette, Idaho, go to the alfalfa district, about 10 miles east of this point. The Kilgore family, from Fruitland, Idaho, and the Hansen, Rasmussen and Mikelson families, from North Dakota, have tracts about two miles north of Deschutes.

Several people from here attended the sale at Gist last Friday.

Roberts

A. W. Hoch has finished his house and is now busy fixing a cellar. When he has finished it will make a very comfortable home. The dance is to take place Friday night.

Mr. Gould pulled some stumps for Ed. Hunterberger this week. He is now on the Sontag claim on Big Bear creek. It greatly improves the looks of our community to have those stumps and trees pulled.

Mr. Ferguson and outfit returned the first of the week from Klamath with his cattle. They had about 350 head. The boys report a pretty good trip.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Bunn and Mr. Sears attended the dance at the Nelson ranch Saturday night. They report a pleasant time.

Friday evening last occurred the first of Bear Creek's social events of the winter. The much talked of house party given by A. H. Hoch is now an event of the past. As the evening was stormy there was not as many in attendance as was expected. All, however, enjoyed themselves to the utmost. Mr. Hoch says he also enjoyed himself, for he is strong on the refreshment committee.
