Death of J. H. Windom This Morning

J. H. Windom, an old and highly respected pioneer of Crook county, died this (Thursday) morning while eating breakfast.

The end was not unexpected. For weeks he has been obliged to practically live in a chair. It is too early as we go to press to give details. Arrangements for the funeral have not been made. He was 56 years of age; was born in California March 27, 1857.

Deceased leaves a widow, three daughters and two sons, besides other relatives. His children are Mrs. Jerry Barbour, Mrs. Cate, Harry and Carl Windom and Pauline, the youngest daughter.

The family have the sympathy of the entire community in this their hour of bereavement.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.

The W. C. T. U. held an interesting meeting last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Joe Lister. "Property Rights of Women in Oregon as Compared with Other States," was the topic introduced by Mrs. Mamie Charlton, who gave a splendid paper, calculated to make all present feel thankful they were women of Oregon. She was followed by Mrs. Lida Bechtel who gave extracts from the laws regarding women in this state, after which the topic was generally discussed.

You are stealing from your own future by spending money that you could put in the Bank now

IF YOU PUT MONEY IN THE BANK NOW IT WILL GROW INTO A FORTUNE AND KEEP YOU SOME DAY

The above statement is absolutely true. You are spending not alone the money but the future of that money. The money you are now spending would some day make a goodly sum which would insure your GOMEORT in YOUR OLD AGE or protect your family should you die.

A Carelessly Treated Cold is the source of most sickness because drugged pills, syrups and alcoholic mixtures are uncertain and unsafe.

Scott's Emulsion has been relied upon by physicians for forty years as the safe and sensible remedy to suppress the cold and build up the enfeebled forces to avert throat and lung troubles.

Don't tolerate alcoholic substitutes, but insist on the Genuine Scott's Emulsion. One bottle usually lasts longer than a cold. Every druggist has it. 11-73
