The approved changes in rates and weights, to be in effect January 1, 1914. follow:

Wilson's Views on Trusts Sought.

President Wilson's views on trust terislation are to be sought this week by congressional leaders. The last week has developed a pronounced view among democratic members of the senate that the anti-trust acts of the present session of congress should be few and should affect only the more obviously needed reforms in the field of combination and corporation netivity.

The demands of democratic leaders for speedy action on the currency reform bill have had a marked effect on the senate. Confident predictions are now made that the bill will pass that body before December 20 and that an adjustment of differences between senate and bouse can be reached shortly after that time.

Republicans Will Not Delay Bill. Republican members have made it clear they do not wish to be charged with delay of currency reform.

The house will have before it this week Alaskan railroad legislation; the Hensley "naval holiday" resolution, immigration regulation, high cost of Hving investigations, the lobby committee's report and numerous other matters of compelling interest.

The early trust bills probably will be aimed at the abolishment of interlocking directorates and holding companies, and possibly of voting trusts "fiscal agencies." Legislation strengthening the rights of minority stockholders will also be asked for and attempts will be made to strengthen the Sherman law as to get rid of the supreme court's decision that "reasonable" restraints of trade are not untawful.

Senate Will Work 13 Hours a Day

Democratic senate leaders, with the aid of 10 republican votes, succeeded in forcing a programme of 13-hour-aday sessions for the currency bill. 'Two hours' recess, from 6 to 8 o'clock in the evening, will be the only break in the daily work from 10 o'clock in the morning until 11 o'clock at night.

Senators Borah, Brady, Brandegee, Cummins, Gronna, Kenyon, La Follette, Norris, Perkins and Smoot, all republicans, joined the democrats voting for the long daily sessions. .

BRYAN OUTWITS WOMAN Secretary Escapes Ambush by Delly

ering Curt Evasive Answer. Washington.-Secretary Bryan nar owly escaped a suffrage ambush at a meeting of the national popular government league, where he spoke on popular government. A delegation of woman suffragists took places in the hall, at which it had been advertised the secretary of state was to speak, and near the conclusion of his address Miss Helen Todd, a California suffragist, arose and called out:

"And how about popular govern ment for women, Mr. Secretary?" With flashing eyes, the secretary

LIVES OF FOREIGNERS TO BE SAFEGUARDED

Mexico City.-Foreigners must not be interfered with if fighting occurs in the federal district. This indication is contained in the general army orders. These orders specifically say that in the event of fighting the officers in command of the government troops must understand that the lives and property of all foreigners are to be respected; that no moneys or supplies are to be exacted from them and

The Mexican public in general appears apathetic with regard to the advance of the rebels. The press of the capital gives preference to news of the federal victories and minimizes or eliminates all stories favorable to the rebels. The financial situation has not changed.

Guessing as to what President Huerta will do virtually has ceased. The public has accepted as true his statements that he will not resign.

OUTLAW KILLED BY

"Pal" of Dead Man, Who Escaped. Thought to Be an Ex-Convict.

Chehalis, Wash.-Deputy Sheriffs Kirby and Howell, of Cowlifz county, killed an unknown desperado just north of Toledo, 32 miles south of Chehalls, on the Cowlitz river. The dead man was one of a pair which, it is alleged, robbed the Castle Rock hardware store of Weihtje & Gehlman. The second man, believed possibly to be Mike Donnelly, a mulatto, a paroled convict from the state penitentiary at Walla Walla, made his escape.

The Cowlitz county officers trailed the two men up the river to Toledo and apparently had lost-track of them. E. Ritter went into town shortly after the noon hour and gave them the in formation they wanted, which led to the battle.

The details of the immediate events leading up to the shooting are said to have been that when the sheriff's posse approached the outlaws the latter were on a level place at the top of a small hill and bad their campfire in the middle of the trail. Salal sev eral feet high surrounded the place As the officers approached they or dered the two men to throw up their hands, and apparently they did so, stepping back out of sight and open ing fire on the posse. The deputies began firing about the same time, and eight or ten shots were exchanged

MANY DEAD IN TEXAS FLOODS

Estimated Loss is $4,000,000, and Thousands Driven From Homes.

Bryan, Tex.-Sixty-one persons are known to be dead and scores of others are reported to have lost their lives in the floods which have swept the valleys of the Brazos and Trinity rivers in Central and South Central Texas since early in the week. Three thousand persons were driven to the upper floors of their homes by the rising waters or compelled to seek refuge in trees, where they remained for hours, in some cases for two days, before they were rescued.

Estimates place the damage at $4,

London.-Mrs. and Mrs. Francis Bowes Sayre have arrived in Lendon They were met by the American am bassador and Miss Page, and were driven to the ambassador's residence, where they will stay while in London

NEEDLE ATTACKS ON WOMEN TO BE PROBED

Newark, N. J.-Federal authorities probably will join state officers in an investigation of the poison needle mystery growing out of the experiences of Mrs. Marjorie Graff in a moving-picture theater here. So far the only arrest is that of Armand Megaro, a young South American, who is held that they must be permitted to leave in $20,000 bail on an assault charge made by Mrs. Graff after a man seated near her in a box jabbed a needle 25th, 1913. into her arm and she was seized with drowsiness.

The cases of five young women reported to have been victims of experiences similar to those of Mrs. Graff are being investigated by the police, and the attention of the federal authorities has been brought to the Graff case in connection with their inquiry into several white slave cases.

The needle used on Mrs. Graff had not been dipped in poison, so far as a microscopic examination showed. There will be an effort to obtain the nature of the drug used.
