

An Unusual Wedding at Methodist Church

A wedding of more than usual interest was solemnized in the parlors of the Methodist church last Friday evening when a large circle of relatives and friends assembled to witness the wedding of Lillian Amelia Minden to John Ephraim Williams.

The bridal party entered the church to the strains of a wedding march composed by some highbrow that knew his business. The "strains" were furnished by the Prineville orchestra, which means that there was nothing lacking in phrasing, coloring or tonal quality that the old master himself would have omitted. The bridal pair stepped high to the accompanying music. Joe Lister was best man and Mrs. Hamilton and Mrs. Columbus Johnson were the bridesmaids.

C. I. Winnek was the official ring bearer and when it comes to bearing rings he is right on the job. With a deep salaam he placed before the bashful groom a very large napkin ring on a sofa pillow. The ceremony was taken up at this point by the Rev. Mr. Prater and the Rev. Mr. McAllister. These gentlemen did not carry it forward many points before they discovered that the groom had forgotten his license. Fortunately Mayor Clifton was present and he issued a special permit for this occasion. It then developed that the groom was without funds, whereupon the reverend gentlemen refused to go farther on "jaw bone." It was either "dig up" or no wedding. The bride produced a check to cover the ministerial fees and the ceremony started again. Then the preachers got to thinking about the hard cold winter ahead and demanded a division of the check. This caused another temporary halt but at last this was peacefully arranged and the ceremony was completed.

Then followed a two-course banquet which was enjoyed by all. Many clever and interesting toasts were made. We venture the assertion that a larger or better wedding cake never before graced a marriage feast in Prineville.

The parlors were tastefully decorated in pink and white with carnations of the same colors.

Many beautiful and useful presents were received. This delightful affair was arranged by the Misses Blanche and Ethel Williams in honor of their parents' 25th wedding anniversary. It was a complete surprise to the mother.

A Chance to Work

Governor West's crusade for the benefit of the unemployed is getting results. The following is a copy of a letter from Mrs. S. P. Glenn to our chief executive:

Oak Grove, Oregon,
Dec. 15, 1913.

Gov. West, Salem, Oregon.
Dear Sir:
I took out a permit to enlarge a ditch in Crook county out of Crooked river, and there is between $220 and $230 worth of work still for me to do on it. Do you think you could get some one to do it for me. It would have to be done by the first of May and I could pay cash as the work was done. Yours very respectfully,
MRS. S. P. GLENN.

Call for Warrants

Notice is hereby given that all registered County Warrants up to and including No. 1620, will be paid on presentation to the county treasurer. Also all registered Scalp bounty warrants. No interest paid after this date—December 18, 1913. R. L. JORDAN, County treasurer of Crook county.

Royal Arch and Eastern Star Install

The annual election and installation of officers of the Prineville lodge of Royal Arch Chapter and Eastern Star were held last week in Masonic Hall. M. E. Brink, grand high priest, was the installing officer; Dr. Chas. S. Edwards, grand marshal. The following were inducted into office:

T. M. Baldwin, high priest.
C. I. Winnek, scribe.
G. W. Noble, king.
Wm. Pancake, captain of the host.
H. R. Lakin, principal sojourner.
D. P. Adamson, treasurer.
Frank Foster, secretary.
Dale Jones, Royal Arch Captain.
Oscar Hyde, captain third veil.
J. W. Carlson, captain second veil.
Carey W. Foster, captain first veil.
Dr. E. O. Hyde, sentinel.

A banquet followed the installation ceremonies at which speeches were made by Mrs. Winnek, Mrs. Edwards and T. M. Baldwin. Musical numbers were furnished by Mrs. Lakin, Mrs. Oscar Hyde and Miss Elma Noble.

Ellis - Young Wedding

Samuel B. Ellis and Miss Emerien M. Young were married early Sunday morning at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. Prater performed the ceremony. The ring ceremony was used. After the twain were made one all sat down to a bountiful wedding breakfast. The young couple left that morning for a trip to Denver, Kansas City and Iowa, Kansas. Mr. and Mrs. Ellis will be at home to friends in Prineville after February 1.

Thursday Night at the Lyric

Xmas night (Thursday) will be celebrated by the Lyric with a double program of pictures. Three new ones will be shown and Wednesday's pictures repeated, making a two-hour show, beginning at 7:30 p. m. The Lyric Orchestra will play popular music during the evening, which will be a big added feature. Two fine two-reel features, "The Power of Conscience" and "A Child of the Sea," are filled with powerful action and startling events and four comedy subjects complete the entertainment. No advance in admission price.

The New Parcels Post Regulations

The new parcels post regulations go into effect January 1. After the first of the year you can get a 50-pound package from Portland delivered in Prineville for 54c; or you can send 50 pounds to Portland or anywhere else in the second zone for 54c.

You can send 50 pounds to any place in the first zone for 30c. Parcels weighing 4 ounces or less are mailable at the rate of 1 cent for each ounce or fraction thereof regardless of distance. On and after January 1st, parcels weighing more than 4 ounces will be mailable at the pound rates, a fraction of a pound being considered a full pound.

sensation to the county treasurer. Also all registered Scalp bounty warrants. No interest paid after this date—December 18, 1913. R. L. JORDAN, County treasurer of Crook county.

Three Carloads of Extra Fine Cattle

C. Sam Smith returned the other day from Tacoma where he took three carloads of beef cattle. His stuff was acknowledged to be the finest lot sold in that market in a 12-month. He received $8.05 a hundred for it.

Mr. Smith's three loads, composed of 2 and 3-year-olds, averaged 1230 right off the cars. He had over a car of 2-year-olds so the prime condition of the shipment may be imagined. "The Tacoma market was on the bum," Mr. Smith says, "when I arrived. Had I gone to Portland during the cattle show I would have realized $500 more."

10-Months Old Hereford Weighs 1250

Warren, Dickson & McDowell sold one of their show calf steers Saturday to Hall & Davenport.

The steer was a Hereford 10 months old and weighed 1250 pounds. It was a beautiful animal. It was bred by Coles Haines, the man that won the grand championship for carload lots at the recent cattle show at Portland. The beef is now on exhibition at Hall & Davenport's market. It dressed 890 pounds.

Warren, Dickson & McDowell won the first prize for 2-year-old Herfords at the Portland exposition. The prize winners were bought from J. H. Gray & Son but were fed at the Warren, Dickson & McDowell cattle ranch below Prineville.

A Reply to Ashwood Good Roads Man

Editor Journal—In reply to the good roads man from Ashwood, will say that the people of McKay creek believe they have the only road supervisor that ever did take an interest in our roads and of course we stood in with him and the county and helped make the roads. We have five or six miles of road that would be a credit to any road supervisor in any community.

The people on McKay creek donated something like eight or nine hundred dollars worth of work and the county put up a like sum in cash and that is the reason we have good roads.

Now, if the people of Ashwood will come over and take a look at the roads and have a talk with our supervisor I feel sure there will be something doing. The people on the McKay side will do their part and the county will, no doubt, assist in giving the Ashwood people a good highway over the mountains. Our road supervisor has already taken the matter up with the county commissioners so a little help from Ashwood people will do the rest. Are you people over there willing to give it. RANCHER.

CHRISTMAS IN HOLLAND.

In Holland Santa Claus pays his annual visit to all good children twenty days before he comes to this country. Dec. 5 is the feast day of St. Nicholas, alias Santa Claus. He has nothing whatever to do with Christmas, and his visit there is an Anglo-Saxon anachronism. As their patron saint, children were taught to look to Nicholas for care and protection. In England the custom was abolished with the worship of saints at the reformation and was re-established in the American guise of Father Christmas in the middle of the last century.

But in Holland Santa Claus continues to make his visits on the right day, Dec. 5. The Dutch children do not hang up their stockings, but place their shoes, filled with hay or straw for the donkey on which St. Nicholas rides, in front of the fireplace.

The Christ Child. An Irish legend tells that on Christmas eve the Christ Child wanders but in the darkness and cold and the peasants still put lighted candles in their windows to guide the sacred little feet, that they may not stumble on the way to their homes. In Hungary the people go yet further in their tenderness for the Child. They spread feasts and leave their doors open that he may enter at his will. Throughout Christendom there is a belief that no evil can touch the child who is born on Christmas eve.

DADDY DONT YOU WISH YOU HAD STARTED A BANK ACCOUNT A YEAR AGO WHEN YOU WERE EARNING MORE?

All the past year he spent money for this or that useless thing. Yes, money, regular money that would have piled up in the bank. It didn't seem much, as he spent it in dribs, but now he realizes that he WASTED MONEY and has nothing to show for it. Regrets won't pay for anything except wrinkled brows. Can't you deny yourself a few little things for your family's sake, and put it safe in our bank?

A BRONCHIAL COUGH

is wearing and dangerous because the inflamed, mucus-filled tubes interfere with breathing and the fresh air passes through that unhealthy tissue.

Probably no other remedy affords such prompt and permanent relief as Scott's Emulsion; it checks the cough, heals the linings of the throat and bronchial tubes and strengthens the lungs to avert tuberculosis. This point cannot be emphasized too strongly—that Scott's Emulsion has been suppressing bronchitis for forty years and will help you.

Be careful to avoid substitutes and insist on SCOTT'S.
