Day Is Advertised Better Than Night

By HOLLAND.
THE day is a more popular time than night. Most of the work of the world is done while the sun shines, and only that which can't be done at other hours is performed while darkness reigns. The day is the more popular and the more fully utilized because it is better advertised. The sun is the great publicity agent. It forces all to see and to remember. If it were possible to advertise any product of man as well as sunlight is advertised that particular product would drive all competitors from the field. Any breakfast food, baking powder, brand of shoes, style of furniture, cough drop, patent medicine, or what not, if it were only as well known as daylight, would have a monopoly of trade that would defy all rivals.
Such successful advertising of the works of man is not possible, but it can be followed at a distance. Successful manufacturers and merchants do follow it, and as a result the best advertised articles are the most widely sold. This is due to the fact that advertising makes the name of an article known, and it also insures its quality. Goods must be of superior merit to make it profitable to advertise them.
ADVERTISING MEANS RELIABILITY.

Commercial Club Concerts Extra Good

The best concert of the winter season yet presented by the local band was that of last Sunday afternoon. The Commercial Club was well filled with guests, many out-of-town people being present.
The instrumental program was relieved by a song by Miss Conway, of the Crook County High School, and Jack Smith rendered a trombone solo, both of which were well received and appreciated by the audience. Another program will be presented next Sunday afternoon as usual at 2:30 o'clock. Director Zinke is to be congratulated on the growing popularity of his concerts and the improvement noticeable by last Sunday's program.

Pretty Home Wedding

A pretty home wedding was solemnized at noon Christmas day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sylvester, when their eldest daughter, Elsie L., and Dude B. Demaris were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony, which was short but impressive, was performed by Justice of the Peace A. R. Bowman. Immediately after the ceremony all present repaired to the dining room where a sumptuous repast, prepared by Mrs. Sylvester, was waiting and to which all did ample justice. Mr. and Mrs. Demaris will be home to their friends on his homestead after January 1, 1914.

Ross Robinson Gets a Kitchen Shower

When it comes to "showers" the weather was not the whole show in that line this week. A "shower" occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Elkins on Monday evening, and kitchen utensils of all kinds and description, some useful, others ornamental and not a few of the deadly species were showered upon the unsuspecting Ross Robinson, the guest of honor, when he was ushered into the house by Mr. Elkins. Accompanying each article was a jingo or limerick, which Mr. Robinson was obliged to read to those present, to their great delight and occasionally to the victim's embarrassment. He will have rolling pins, mulligan pans, clothes pin; and kindred articles sufficient to meet every emergency that may arise in the course of his house-keeping experience.

There was a company of over 20 young people present, and after dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, toasts were given the prospective bridegroom, wishing him, in the aggregate, a million years of happiness.

Christmas Carols.

How sweetly sounded those old familiar carols as they were sung on Christmas Eve.

A jolly crowd of young people with their hearts full of love, "Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men," started from the Commercial Club singing lustily those familiar words, "Hark, the Herald Angel Sings," "It Was Bourne Upon the Midnight Clear," "Silent Night, Holy Night," and other carols.

After the singing coffee and sandwiches were served at the Club, then all departed for home, their hearts imbued with the Christmas spirit, and feeling that they had sent out, not in vain, that message of old, "Christ is born at Bethlehem."

NERVOUS PEOPLE

are usually thin and easily worried, sleep does not refresh and the system gradually weakens from insufficient nourishment.

Scott's Emulsion corrects nervousness by its force of concentrated medical nourishment—it restores the healthy action of body cells, enriches the blood, sharpens the appetite, and feeds the nerve centres by distributing energy and power all over the body.

Don't resort to alcoholic mixtures or drug concoctions that stimulate and stupefy.

Get a bottle of Scott's Emulsion for your nerves—nothing equals or compares with it, but insist on Scott's.
