

MISS ELSTE DE WOLFE.

Miss Elsie De Wolfe in her rather short career has played many partsfirst society woman, then actress for a short time, then interior decorator with an enviable reputation on both sides of the Atlantic, and now she is the it hot. first woman to fight the new income tax.

Speaking of the injustice of this tax, Miss De Wolfe said recently, "I made my money, and I'll see if the government can take away a percentage of it that is not in proportion to that taken from those with larger incomes." This is the defense of Miss De Wolfe to the United States. She has brought a test case in the federal courts which is expected to have a farreaching effect

Miss De Wolfe says that she never inherited a dollar and all that she has has been spun by her own brain. "I think, then," said Miss De Wolfe, "that the great fortunes of the country should be taxed in proportion to that of the woman who makes her own fortune. I am simply questioning the legality of the government deducting from my purse."

Miss De Wolfe in her early work was associated with the late Stanford White in the decoration of the Colony club, the fashionable woman's club of Gotham. She has done work for Miss Anne Morgan and other well known people of wealth and cultivation.

Twenty years ago Miss De Wolfe and Miss Elizabeth Marbury, another successful business woman, began living together in the old Washington Irving house in New York city, which the former transformed into an ideal To this establishment they home. eventually added the Villa Trianon, at Versailles, France, which since Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan's death his daughter Anne has shared with Miss De Wolfe and Miss Marbury.

Select a nice, thick flank and have the butcher remove all skin and score it on both sides. Ask for a small piece of suct. Ingredients for dressing: Two cupfuls of soaked bread crumbs, one small onion, one tablespoonful of butter, one egg, one-quarter tenspoonful of salt, a little powdered sage, several shakings of pepper. Pour water on the stale bread. When soft press dry in both hands, then reject any hard or dark parts. Beat the egg well and stir in, also the seasoning; mince the onion, put in frying pan with the butter, let it cook a little, but not brown; add the bread, turn a few times, then take from stove. Rub the flank well with salt and pepper, place dressing on, then roll tightly, the with white cord, cut suct up finely, place in pan and lay in the ronst, cover and cook in steady heat; it must be well done, but not

Virginia Smothered Chicken,

Colit a tender chicken down the back, season it with a teaspoonful of salt and pepper to taste. Put it into a dripping pan with a cupful of hot water and let it remain in the oven until tender. As soon as it begins to brown make a paste of two tablespoonfuls each of butter and flour and spread over the chicken and baste it every ten minutes with the drippings in the pan' until brown. Set the pan containing the drippings over the fire, pour into it a cupful of rich milk, stir until it bolls, season with a saitspoonful of sait and one-half saltspoonful of pepper. Pour this gravy over the chicken and serve

Orange Jelly.

Orange jelly is a pleasing variation on orange marmalade, and is thus prepared by Scotch housewives: Press out the juice from Seville oranges and set it aside while the rinds are being boiled with, a good quantity of water. Add water as it bolls down, and when the rinds are thoroughly soft press through a bag. Add the uncooked juice and measure. For every plnt add a pound and a half of lump sugar. Boil for half an hour and put a tenspoonful of the mixture on a saucer. If it curis before the finger when it has become cold it is done. Put into jelly glasses, and when it has stood overnight seal.

Rich Brown Cake

Ingredients: One cupful of lard and butter (equal parts), one cupful of granulated sugar, one cupful of molasses, one cupful of seeded raisins, one cupful of milk, five cupfuls of sifted pastry flour, one teaspoonful of soda. Method: Cream butter and sugar, add soda to molasses, stir up well, then beat into the creamed mass, mix raisins and flour and add that, alternating with milk; beat well, then bake in oblong or round loaf mold in slow, steady heat. This is rather a large cake, but will keep for a long while. Ice with plain white icing or can be used just as baked.

Apple Pudding.

Peel, core and slice sufficient apples to fill a baking dish, butter the dish thickly and put in the apples in layers, alternating them with stale cake, crumbs and a little butter, using two tablespoonfuls of the butter, melted, to a pint of apples. Let the last layer be a thick one of cake crumbs; put in a moderately hot oven until the apples are tender, then beat together two eggs and two tablespoonfuls of sugar (more if the apples are tart), add one cupful of milk and pour over the apples. Bake a rich golden color and serve with cream.

COUNTRY GIRLS, 'WARE MAN WITH HORNS UNDER HIS HAT

And Leave City Soon as You Can, Advice of Woman Labor Commissioner.

Many persons attending the convention of the public employment officers in Chicago indorsed the instructions made out by Mrs. Nan Sperry, assist ant labor commissioner of Missouri. for country girls who go to the large cities seeking employment. In the first place, Mrs. Sperry advises them to remain at home, but if they must go to the city she sets out rules for them to follow. Among these rules are the following:

If you must come don't ask any stranget for information. Find a policeman, go to a police station for information or go to the Young Wo-men's Christian association or some place that is known to you. Have money enough at least for a

Keep your money in your stocking. It is safer than a purse. Beware of the stranger who offers to guide you or carry your grip. Maybe he has horns under his hat. Have some relative meet you if possible. Go back to the country as soon as you

"The greatest problem I have to confront in my work," said Mrs. Sperry, "is the task of coping with the country girls who come to the city seeking employment. Many have no notion whatever of the conditions they will be compelled to meet. We must in many cases become fairy godmothers to them."

NOW IT'S COUNTERFEIT MILK.

Manufactured From Powder Obtained by Drying Skimmed Variety.

The Indianapolis board of health charges that a number of milk dealers in the city have been selling as the pure article milk which they manufactured. Milk sold at 8 to 10 cents a quart was made of milk powder, which costs from 9 to 11 cents a pound, each pound of the powder making one and one-half gallons of milk when mixed with so much water.

The milk powder is manufactured by drying skimmilk. The powder has much the same color as a can of glue, but when properly mixed with water the product looks and tastes like milk. It was found that the cream from manufactured milk settled to the bottom of the bottles instead of at the top. The dealers told guilible house-

Why not take the .lournal?

This is also a wonderfully beautiful home which has excited much interest and where the three ladies live as bachelor maids. The two acres of the Villa Trianon adjoin the park of Versailles. In the deed there is a very interesting clause reserving a right of way to the king. The old lease goes back to 1750.

The "salle de verdure," or outdoor drawing room, is Miss De Wolfe's especial joy, and she regards the trellis which surrounds it as her best piece of work. It is a bit of old world beauty in the shadow of the magnificent palace of the grand monarque.

Richest Princess Lives In Cheap House.

The richest princess in the world is Princess Victoria Louise, the newly wed bride of Prince Ernst August. The kaiser presented his daughter with a dowry of about $2,000,000. This sum exceeds by $750,000 any marriage portion previously given to a princess of the house of Hohenzollern.

Prince Ernst August, until the death of his father, the Duke of Cumberland, will receive $1,000,000 per year, but after he succeeds to the dukedom his income will be more than $2,000,000 per year.

In spite of all this wealth, however, the young royal couple are starting out simply enough in their married life. They will live as tenants in a house at people. Serve hot. Rathenow, the rent of which is said to be only $750 per year.

Women In Action.

Wishing to be able to say truthfully that she was "over eighteen," a Fort Collins (Colo.) girl placed a slip of paper with the figures 18 on it in her shoe when she applied for a marriage license.

Miss Margaret Delmont of Chicago, finding her purse had been stolen at Menominee, Wis., walked to St. Paul, carrying her heavy suit case all the way, a distance of seventy-four miles. Leaving behind them the irksome tasks of office life, the three Silverton sisters have spent a year on a fifteen acre ranch near Eureka, Cal., and have made a good living and prospered far beyond their expectations.

Oysters en Brochette.

In spite of its formidable name this is nothing more than large oysters and small pieces of bacon strung along a skewer alternately, allowing one skewer to each person. They can be put between the wires of a greased brofler and cooked quickly over hot coals, or the ends of the skewers may be rested on opposite sides of a baking pan while the oysters and bacon cook in the oven.

Weish Rabbit.

This is a very fine recipe and quite inexpensive. Melt two tablespoonfuls butter and add one tablespoonful of flour, one-half teaspoonful of salt mixed together. Then add one cupful of milk. When hot add one cupful cheese cut thin. Stir until melted. Just before leaving the fire add one beaten egg. This quantity will serve four

Coffee Sherbet.

Put coffee, cream, sugar and extract in a freezer surrounded with salted Ice. Keep the sides free as fast as the ice begins to cling. When congealed serve in glasses.

wives that the cream was so rich and heavy that it just naturally couldn't rise

Dr. H. C. Morgan, city sanitarian, says this is the way to detect counterfeit milk;

Take the cream from the bottle and place your finger in the milk. If the product is cow's milk a trace of the milk color will remain on the finger; if the product is manufactured no trace of color will remain on the finger.

BOY SIX WEEKS IN SUBWAY.

Afraid to Go Home, Lived Under ground, Stole Out at Night For Food. For six long, noisy days and nights little David Shapiro lived and slept in the New York subway. In a fit of anger he had stolen a gold watch and chain from his mother's bureau drawer and was afraid to come above ground except at night. He sold the watch for $5 and with the money bought subway tickets. At night he would venture above ground for cheese sandwiches. He took these back into the subway, where he ate them on the trains.

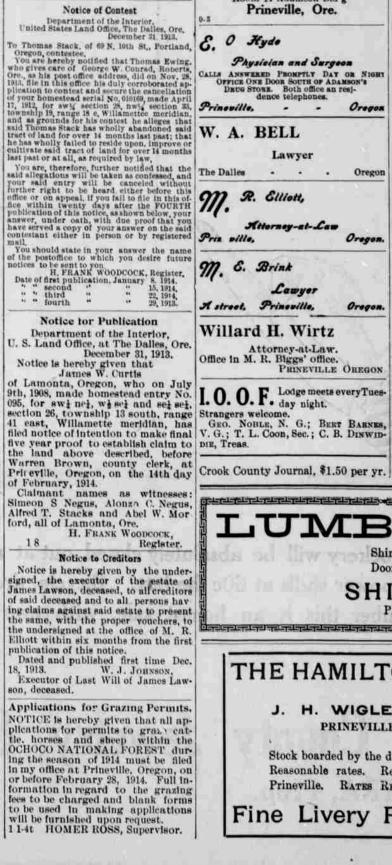

When the boy's money gave out he loafed around the block where his home is, and once he passed by the flat and looked up at the windows of his mother's room and couldn't help crying.

It was just after that that his father caught him. He was put in charge of the Children's society.

Oil Spreading Bombs For Ships. The use of oil for calming a rough sea has often been demonstrated. At present it is possible to spread oil only a short distance round a ship. A bomb for quickly spreading oil to a distance is now being experimented with by the German navy.
