

A WISH.

Mine be a cot beside the hill,
A beehive's hum shall soothe my ear.
A willow brook, that turns a mill,
With many a fall shall linger near.

The swallow oft beneath my thatch
Shall twitter from her clay built nest.
Oft shall the pilgrim lift the latch
And share my meal, a welcome guest.

Around my ivied porch shall spring
Each fragrant flower that drinks the dew.
And Lucy, at her wheel, shall sing
In russet gown and apron blue.

The village church among the trees,
Where first our marriage vows were given,
With merry peals shall swell the breeze
And point with taper spire to heaven.

—Samuel Rogers.

FILIPINO FREEDOM.

I hope and assume that the present administration is merely making itself acquainted with the situation. When it gets the facts I have not the slightest doubt that it will see its duty as we have seen it who have been there. This is to encourage the Filipinos to take as active a part in the government as it is safe to have them take, but to retain a controlling hand while they are in their tutelage, while they are learning political self restraint.

It will take certainly two generations, perhaps longer, for them to do this, and for us to promise within any definite time to give them independence is very foolish. It would be a failure on our part in maintaining the self respect that we ought to have in discharging a responsibility that has come to us under circumstances we could not control and which we are quite able to discharge with comparatively small effort. We shall make a serious mistake if we follow the eloquence of the smooth, spoken Filipino politicians who are looking hungrily for the exercise of a power which they are ill adapted to wield for the benefit of their own people.—William H. Taft.

THE FARMHOUSE PIANO.

The old piano is a pet.
The farmer thinks it fine.
It was the best that he could get In 1863.

He tells the boarders with much pride
Of how he blew his dough
To buy it for his bonny bride
So many years ago.

The wires are getting rather loose,
And yellow are its keys.
Sometimes it gurgles like a goose,
Sometimes emits a wheeze.

But still it seems a goodly thing
When girls from rustic dells Sit down and make the welkin ring
With "Monastery Bells."
—Louisville Courier-Journal.

NECESSITY.

Necessity has no law.
Public necessity is greater than private.

That is necessity which cannot be dispensed with.

Necessity is the law of a particular time and place.

Necessity makes that lawful which otherwise is unlawful.

There is no necessity for proving the existence of light.

A FIELD FLOWER.

There is a flower, a little flower,
With silver cross and golden eye,
That welcomes every changing hour
And weathers every sky.

'Tis Flora's page—in every place,
In every season, fresh and fair,
It opens with perennial grace
And blossoms everywhere.

On waste and woodland, rock and plain,
Its humble buds, unheeded,
rise,
The rose has but a summer
reign;
The daisy never dies!

—Montgomery.

A MARVELOUS SETTING FOR SCULPTURE AT THE PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION, 1915.

THE dominating architectural feature of the exposition, the superb Tower of Jewels, which will command the south entrance of the Court of Sun and Stars at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition in San Francisco in 1915. This tower, 400 feet in height, will have a base one acre in extent. The tower will rise upward in terraces, giving way at last to a group of figures supporting a globe, typifying the world. The repeated figures of armored horsemen and of explorers of the ocean will be used on the tower, which, with its statuary, mural paintings and mosaics, will be indescribably beautiful. Messrs. Carrere & Hastings, architects in chief of the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo in 1901, are the architects.
