Tuesday, April 14 Clean-up Day

Mayor Clifton by proclamation has announced that Tuesday, April 14, is Clean-up Day for Prineville. He wants all good and loyal citizens to make a special effort in behalf of a clean town. The city will provide teams to cart the stuff away. Those who do not conform to the mayor's wishes will be dealt with under the city ordinances. Clean out the streets, alleys and yards adjoining your premises. Give us a neat tidy city. It pays.

Ladies Annex Elects Officers

The ladies of the Annex held their regular monthly meeting last Tuesday at the Annex parlors. A large number were present to take part in the annual election of officers of which the following were chosen: President, Mrs. Omer Claypool; vice-president, Mrs. J. B. Bell; secretary, Mrs. H. W. Howard; treasurer, Miss Baldwin.

Among other business transacted the ladies voted to present the Commercial Club with a $100 check and a vote of thanks for their kind consideration during the year.

Near the close of the meeting Supt. Myers accompanied by Prof. Rebec of the U. of O. appeared and Prof. Rebec gave an interesting talk on university extension work and also on the work done by Dr. Hodges who started the "swat the fly" movement.

Much credit is due the retiring officers for the very prosperous year the Annex has enjoyed.

Little Girl Killed at Barnes Last Week

A very sad accident occurred at Barnes last Wednesday, when the two little children of Irving Sands were coming home from school. Their horse fell in a ditch and threw the children, killing the little girl, eight years old, almost instantly. The boy, two years younger, was caught under the horse with his sister, but he managed to pull his shoe off and got loose, then ran home for help. A doctor was called but the little one was past all help. Funeral services were held at the Camp Creek cemetery on Friday, April 3d.

can be placed on the ballot at the November election.

"At the election in the fall, provided the matter is placed on the ballot, there will be required for the division 65 per cent of the vote in the territory creating the new county and 35 per cent of the vote in the old part of the county from which the new part is cutting off, to vote in favor of the proposition in order that it may carry."

There is no county division sentiment in this neck of the woods that the Journal man has been able to find. Not a single, solitary person was found who favored separation at this time. It is too premature for any such movement to be taken seriously.

Ordinance Number 212

An ordinance locating and designating the center line of Third street east from the east line of "A" street to the east boundary of the city limits:

Whereas, it appearing that there are several discrepancies between the recorded plats and surveys as made, laid out and staked over and upon the ground of the Original Plat and Survey of Prineville, and several Additions to the said town, now City of Prineville, Crook county, Oregon;

And whereas, it appearing that the center line of Third street west from "A" street as re-established and fixed by the L. D. West survey and ordinance of said city adopted and passed in conformity with such survey, is two and one-half feet north of the center line of Third street east from "A" street, as laid out and surveyed over, through and across the First Addition to Prineville, Crook county, Oregon;

And, whereas, the center line of Third street east from East "E" street as laid out and surveyed over, through and across the Third and Fourth Additions to Prineville, Crook county, Oregon, makes an angle to the north of ten minutes with the center line of Third street as laid out and surveyed over, through and across the First Addition to Prineville, Oregon.

And whereas, it appears to be to the best interest of the public and the inhabitants of the City of Prineville, Crook county, Oregon, that the said center line of Third street be straightened from the East line of "A" street east to the east boundary of the city limits.

Now therefore, the people of the city of Prineville, Oregon, do ordain as follows:

Section 1. Beginning at the center line of Third street on the east line of "A" street as established and marked by an iron pin, placed by the L. D. West survey, thence in an easterly direction making an angle of seven minutes and thirty-six seconds to the south with the center line of Third street through the original plat of the City of Prineville, as re-established and marked with iron pins, by the L. D. West survey, to the east boundary of the city limits.

Section 2. All curb lines between the east line "A" street and the eastern boundary of the city limits along said Third street, shall be twenty-eight feet on either side measured at right angles to the center line of Third street as fixed and designated by section one of this ordinance.

Section 3. This center line as re-established and designated in section one of this ordinance shall be and hereby is for the use only in the building of curb on said Third street, and shall in no wise be construed as effecting or to effect the property lines as surveyed and marked on the ground of the said First, Third and Fourth Additions to the said City of Prineville, Crook county, Oregon.

Section 4. Passed by the City Council of the City of Prineville, Crook county, Oregon, after the third reading.

Approved by the Mayor of the said city on the 8th day of April, 1914. G. N. CLIFTON, Mayor.

Not Many Ladies Attended the Meeting

Not very many ladies turned out to the political meeting announced for last Monday at the courthouse. There were several reasons therefor. The hour of meeting was changed from 2 to 4 o'clock owing to the two funerals which were held that afternoon. The lateness of the hour interfered with the attendance of some so altogether the combination of circumstances kept the women away.

A temporary organization was effected by the election of Mrs. Benj. Zell, president; Mrs. Chas. Shattuck, secretary; Mrs. Wm. Young, treasurer; Mrs. Charlton, press reporter. Executive committee—Mesdames Ross Robinson, Thos. Sharp Jr. and F. A. Rice. Meeting adjourned to meet at the call of the executive committee.
