House Facing Record Vote on the Proposed Prohibition Amendment.

Washington.—With the Panama canal tolls exemption debate running strong in the senate and the house facing a record vote on the proposed constitutional amendment for nationwide prohibition, congress promises to have a busy week.

Interest in the house centers in Mexican developments. Representatives generally, including some administration sponsors, would not be surprised if the week would be marked by some decisive move by the administration.

Congress is prepared for any war emergency. Lying on Speaker Clark's desk is a resolution from the military affairs committee, the passage of which would make immediately available the two hundred million dollars of the annual army appropriation bill. The appropriations committee is holding back its big general deficiency bill on a possibility of a call for emergency war appropriation.

All kinds of rumors about the prospects for action on the prohibition resolution are flying about the capitol. Some of the pro-prohibition members assert they will fight to win, with the sentiment of the country back of them and that they believe they will command a large vote in the house. Members opposed to the resolution declare that it could win on a majority vote, but that it cannot possibly muster two-thirds of the house, necessary for passage of a constitutional amendment.

Secretary Lane Cuts Red Tape.

Making good his promise to lend every proper aid to the man who is endeavoring honestly to acquire title to a home on the public domain, Secretary Lane, of the interior department, is cutting out red tape in his own office and in the general land office and doing away with technical protests against the issuance of patents.

As a result of his reforms, the secretary, between July 1, 1913, and April 25, 1914, approved 46,125 entries for patent, being an increase of 4370 over the number of entries approved in the corresponding period of the previous year. This increase is shown in face of the fact that the number of filings made is gradually diminishing.

Suffrage Cohorts Present Petition.

Several thousand women from practically every state in the union paraded Saturday along Pennsylvania avenue from the white house to the capitol, and, presenting to members of congress petitions adopted at meetings all over the country a week ago.

The scene after the parade reached the east steps of the capitol was impressive. Massing themselves on the plaza steps, and with several bands and a chorus of 100 girls at the entrance to the building, the enthusiastic paraders sang "The March of the Women," by Dr. Ethel Smyth, of England.

The bands then struck up "The Star-Spangled Banner," and the 531 petition-bearers filed up the steps into the rotunda of the capitol, where a special committee of congress received them. In the line were Senators La Follette, Thomas, Thompson, Owen, Bristow, Poinceter and Brady, and Representatives Madden, Sabath, Falconer, Stone, Knowland, Raker, Moss, of West Virginia; Roberts, of Nevada; Helvering, Keating and Bryan, who shook hands with each of their callers.

National Capital Brevities.

Surveys preliminary to the construction of the government railway in Alaska are to be made immediately.

The senate and house have agreed on the plan of having President Wilson issue a proclamation designating the second Sunday in May of each year as national Mother's day.

Senator La Follette told the senate that there was a conspiracy to coerce the interstate commerce commission in favor of the proposed increase of 5 per cent in freight rates by eastern railroads.

At the opening of the next session of congress members will have their votes recorded by an electrical device. The house will be asked to appropriate $20,000 for the installation of the machinery intended to save time in recording the votes.

A brisk fight against the ratification of the proposed treaty between the United States and Colombia is expected in the senate. The minority is opposed to the measure, which would provide for payment of $25,000,000 indemnity in connection with the partition of Panama.

The "little navy" men made their final stand against two battleships on a motion to send the bill back to the committee, which was defeated, 201 to 106. Democratic Leader Mann, and other prominent figures in the house, supported the motion.

MEXICAN NEWS NOTES

Oil men have asked the department at Washington to furnish protection for their interests in the Tampico district.

By order of Huerta, lighthouse service on the west coast of Mexico has been abandoned, and the coast is in darkness at night.

Dictator Huerta is said to have protested against the extension of General Funston's lines at Vera Cruz.

Services in honor of the American bluejackets and marines who were killed at Vera Cruz were held at New York Sunday. President Wilson attended the services and delivered an address.

The Brazilian ambassador in Mexico notified the state department at Washington that American Acting Consul Bonney and wife have arrived safely at Mexico City from San Luis Potosi. Major Manuel Caballero, paymaster of the constitutionalist army of the Rio Grande, was caught below Laredo by the United States border patrol and interned at Fort McIntosh. Violation of the neutrality laws are claimed.

The hospital ship Solace, with wounded marines on board, has been ordered by Secretary of the Navy Daniels to sail from Vera Cruz to New York. Climatic changes, it is expected, will hasten the recovery of the patients.

Speaking before a cheering crowd that greeted his entrance into Torreon, General Carranza declared the success of the constitutionalists had been due in a large measure to the friendly attitude of the United States.

The tension over the Mexican situation was relieved by the action of a German steamship company in refusing to land at Puerto Mexico a cargo of munitions consigned to General Huerta.

REVOLT IN MEXICAN CAPITAL IS FEARED

Diplomatic Quarters Uneasy as to Fate of Foreigners in Mexico City.

Washington.—Much apprehension was expressed in diplomatic quarters as to the fate of foreigners at Mexico City in case a sudden revolt should overthrow Huerta and permit the entry of the Zapatans and other undisciplined rebel bands. These foreigners are said to number 6000, not counting the Americans, most of whom have left.

Word has reached some of the legations here of savage threats Zapata has sent to leading citizens and their wives and daughters in towns near where he was operating. One message is said to have notified a prominent citizen that when the town was captured Zapata would cut off his ears and "eat them fried."

The chief fear in diplomatic quarters is that the city will be overrun and looted.

The British ambassador here has been advised through the Brazilian legation that Walter Whiffin and all other newspaper men have been released.

Official dispatches to the state department from the Brazilian legation in Mexico City says that four correspondents held in Mexico City were released. Medill McCormick, R. H. Davis, Walter Whiffin and A. J. Sutton left by refugee train for Vera Cruz. As a reason for the arrest of the newspaper men, it is reported that they had asked for permission to enter the Mexican federal lines, but, without waiting to receive it, had proceeded to Mexico City.

ENVOYS BOARD STEAMSHIP

Funston's Hospitality, Badger's Offer of Passage, Politely Declined.

Vera Cruz.—President Huerta's three peace commissioners, Emilio Rabasa, Augustin Rodriguez and Luis Elguero, left here on their way to Niagara Falls, Canada, where the conference between the mediators and the representatives of the United States and Mexico will be held.

The commissioners politely declined the offers of hospitality made by Brigadier-General Funston, as well as Rear-Admiral Badger's offer to give them passage on the Morro Castle, and boarded the Kronprinzessin Cecile for the United States by way of Havana.

PRESIDENT WILSON BARS STRIKEBREAKERS

Trinidad, Colo.—President Wilson, through the war department, has instructed Colonel James Lockett, commanding the federal troops in southern Colorado, to permit no importation of strikebreakers, and announced that a time limit would be set at once within which delivery of arms must be completed, according to a statement by Major W. A. Holbrook.

In his statement on President Wilson's instructions upon strikebreakers, Major Holbrook said that the commanding officers here had been advised that no man shall be employed in any mine in the Colorado who had not been actually in its employ April 22, the date of the president's first proclamation ordering the troops into the field, was published.

No mine that was closed down at the time or before the strike, would be permitted to open, according to Major Holbrook's statement, but all others may be operated under full protection from the government.

Strikers, formerly employed at certain mines, will be permitted to return to work at the specific places of their former employment if they choose and if they are desired by their former employers, according to Major Holbrook.

TRIBUTE PAID TO DEAD

Bodies of Sailors Killed in Mexico Reach America.

New York.—Nation and city paid tribute in silence Sunday to the 17 men who gave their lives in the occupation of Vera Cruz. Bearing the bodies of the bluejackets and marines, the armored cruiser Montana, escorted by the presidential yacht Mayflower, having aboard the secretary of the navy, reached port early Sunday morning and conveyed by the superdreadnought Wyoming, steamed up the harbor shortly before noon.

The bodies were brought ashore shortly before 8 o'clock Monday morning and placed on caissons for the procession up Broadway to City Hall for a brief ceremony there and on across the Manhattan bridge to the navy yard for the services. President Wilson reached the city from Washington at 7:15 Monday and delivered the memorial address at the navy yard.
