The Senior Play.

The senior play—"The American Citizen"—drew a big house last evening. While it was somewhat lengthy there was no lack of interest from beginning to end. The work of the students was especially good. Every character was well taken. Van Brink didn't have to say a word to bring down the house. He acted the part of "Sir Humphrey Bunn" to perfection and the rest of the cast while not so comical, was equally well done. The seniors and their instructors deserve lots of credit. The high school orchestra added much to the pleasure of the evening. The following was the cast of characters: Peter Barbury..... James Cram, Jr.

Lucas..... Norman L. Weigand
Otto Strable..... Roscoe D. Claypool
Beresford Cruger..... Rob't. T. Lister

Shaniko Ships 122

Cars of Sheep

That Shaniko is some shipping point for sheep may be realized when an order was put in this week for 122 double-decked cars to be loaded with sheep consigned to ranges in Washington, Idaho, Montana and other points, says the Shaniko Star. Twenty-five carloads left Wednesday and Thursday, the rest will be shipped as soon as the sheep arrive.

This makes the largest aggregate shipment of sheep from this point in some time and will be followed by probably fifty more cars in a week or ten days. It establishes the fact that the country tributary to Shaniko is not entirely depleted of sheep.

This shipment consists of about 35,600 sheep, mostly contracted for early in the spring to be delivered at this time, and represents a cash outlay of over $100,500.

Three-Game Series at Prineville the 4th

A dispatch to the Oregonian from Prineville says:

"A three-game series between the local baseball team and the Knights of Columbus nine, of Portland, is to be one of the main features of the Fourth of July celebration to take place here. R. C. Hughes, manager of the Portland team, completed arrangements with the local management last week.

"The Prineville team is composed of former college players from the East and Middle West. The home team has a record of defeating the Multnomah Club, O.-W. R. & N. Company Grays and the Weonas, all of Portland, and since then Henry McCall, son-in-law of Thomas W. Lawson, has strengthened the locals. McCall is said to have played second base on the Harvard University team and he was considered one of the heaviest hitters ever turned out at that institution."

Horse Thief Caught but Escapes from Train

Buck Lindsey didn't make a clean get-away with his horses. He did get across the mountains but officers were hot on his trail and nabbed him at Sweet Home. Buck had only seven horses left of the original twelve. He had sold five in short order. He took ten from Lake county and while passing the Millican ranch thought he might just as well have an even dozen so took two more. One of these he sold before he reached Sisters on the road over the mountains. You might say he sold it to one of Millican's neighbors so bold are his operations. The other he rode to Sweet Home.

The officers of both Lake and Crook counties were so close on his heels that it was a toss-up for some time as to who would get the $150 offered by Lake county for his apprehension. Deputy Sheriff Weandy and the Lake county sheriff got to Sweet Home about the same time and after considerable powwowing Buck was given to the Lake authorities for punishment. After that Crook county will see that he does not disturb fuzz-tails for another long term. Lindsey's home is at Albany, Oregon.

Lindsey is 30 years old and is well known in Prineville. While here he used to pose as a horse-thief detective. He worked for George Russell and also for E. H. Smith. While on the Smith ranch he decamped with one of Mr. Smith's horses and the owner never did get track of it. Buck was no novice at the horse rustling business.

Buck Jumps From Train and Escapes

Klamath Falls, Or., June 1.—Within a few minutes of the time he would be locked in the Klamath county jail, preparatory to being taken to Lakeview, Buck Lindsey, arrested at Sweet Home on a horse-stealing charge, made his escape from the train bringing him to Klamath last evening. He went into the car lavatory shortly before the train reached the station and jumped out of the window. He was not missed until the train stopped at the station.

The prisoner was in charge of Deputy Sheriff Walter Dent of Lake county. Four of the twelve horses Lindsey is alleged to have stolen were taken from Dent's Warner Valley ranch.
