SHACKLETON TO TEST POLAR FOOD

Unique Experiment Seeking Light Rations.

EXPLORE NORWAY GLACIERS

Food Consumed In a Day by Explorer Weighs but Thirty-five Ounces and Has Highest Nutritive Value-Ship For South Pole Expedition is Almost

London. - With the thoroughness which has always characterized his work Sir Ernest Shackleton is about to make a preliminary trial expedition under arctic conditions in the glaciers of Norway. This will be for the special purpose of testing the rations for his trip across the antarctic continent, which he hopes to make in four and a half months. No party ever started out without having food depots to make such a distance as that in a straight line, but Sir Ernest and his men have made special preparations for the attempt.

They have with the aid of the royal army medical corps evolved the "per-fect ration." It will average only thirty-five ounces daily as compared with the three pounds or more consumed by the average man, but it is believed it represents the highest nutritive value for polar travel.

Sir Ernest will be accompanied by five members of his staff when he goes to Norway to conduct experiments with these rations and also test his tents and motor sledges. The party will don polar kit and travel among the glaciers. While the cold will not be as intense as in the polar regions, the country will furnish the same sort of sudden blizzards as are experienced in

The party will test the effect and potency of the rations in most detailed fashion, Such an experiment never has been made before.

Shackleton's new ship, the Endurance, has been almost completely fitted feet longer than his last ship, Nimrod, of its class that will be constructed. five and a half feet thick, and the sides are two feet thick. The vessel has the latest triple expansion engines and will steam at the rate of ten be substituted for coal, which will mean economy if it is delayed in the pack, as the bollers can be kept warm and full heat generated quickly. When the oil has been used the tanks will be filled with water ballast. The Endurance will take on 100 tons of coal briquettes at the South Shetland islands, so it will enter the Weddell sea with full bunkers.

The second ship, Aurora, intended for the Ross sea side of the expedition, has been purchased and will be delivered at Hobart, Tasmania, at the end of August.

The Endurance, which is to operate on the opposite side of the antarctic, will leave England early in August for Buenos Aires, when it finally will start for the antarctic base in October, Most of the members of the expedition will leave England in the Endurance, but Sir Ernest Shackleton will travel later by mail steamer and join his ship at Buenos Aires.

The dogs, which constitute an important factor in the expedition, are a cross between a wolf and a Scotch stag bound and have been bred in northern Canada. The lightest of them will turn the scales at eighty pounds.

Couple Married by Mail. Superior. Wis. - Johannes Jacobus Kuyk after preliminaries which lasted several months is now a married man. His bride was Miss Maria Louise Grotendorst of Holland. They were married by mail. The bride is expected to arrive from Holland in the early summer. Final papers uniting the couple have arrived from Holland. A number of officials took part in the ceremony.

GOSPEL AUTOS IN CHICAGO.

Will Try to Reclaim Wealthy as Well as Penniless "Savages."

Chicago. - Gospel automobiles were put into service here on the theory that there were more "religious savages" in Chicago than in "darkest Africa." Moody Bible institute dedicated the first of several such gospel autos which will tour Chicago. The speakers will consider the wealthiest residence districts and the poorest tenement sections equally "savage" and will work in both. Five hundred men and women will take turns preaching every night for weeks, first in ghetto districts, then along the lake

"We expect the wealthy will listen to the sermons just the same as the poorer people," said the Rev. W. W. Ketchum, who preached to a crowd at North Clark and West Division streets

CONVICT MAY HARVEST CROP.

Kansas Governor Paroles Man Whose Family Needs Him.

Topeka, Kan. - Governor Hodges granted a parole of sixty days to W. F. Richards, a prisoner at the state penitentiary, so Richards might go to his home in Saline county and harvest his wheat crop.

Richards entered prison last January under a sentence of from one to five years for selling mortgaged property. He was heavily in debt and, according to reports to the governor, his family has been dependent upon neighbors.

Friends recently informed the governor the wheat which Richards planted last fall promised to yield an abun dant crop. The governor decided the family needed Richards for the next sixty days more than the state of Kan-

CUT OUT BREAKFAST TWENTY YEARS AGO

Hopeless Invalid Then, Now Haskell Is Robust at 74.

Norwich, Conn. — Mr. and Mrs. Charles Courtney Haskell have just been celebrating the twentieth anniversary of their adoption of a "no breakfast" rule.

Flaky rolls, fragrant coffee, crisp ba con and eggs and delicately browned griddlecakes may have tempted them in Norway. The vessel is eighteen to break the rule, but they declare they have never yielded.

Twenty years ago Mr. Haskell was shipbuilding. Mr. Haskell says he persuaded Wu Ting Fang to adopt the no breakfast rule.

During the most severe winter weather Mr. Haskell goes about generally carrying his hat, baring his head to the wind and storms and seeming to enjoy it and grow rugged by it.

Mr. Haskell was at one time a wealthy bookman. He published James G. Blaine's life when Blaine was run ning for the presidency and was said to have lost heavily when interest in Blaine slumped.

BURGLAR LEAVES A NOTE.

Writes That the Children Make Too
