River and Harbor Bill, Carrying Large Appropriations. Opposed in Senate.

Washington.-The river and harbor bill, carrying one of the largest appropriations in recent years, will meet determined opposition in the senate this week

The bill on the face of it, as indorsed by the senate committee on commerce, carries about $53,000,000. Actually, however, the sum authorized will be much greater.

Examination of the bill shows that the "pork barrel" has been generously distributed to nearly every section of the country,

While opposition forces are massing their strength in the senate for an attack on the rivers and harbors bill, as the chief "pork barrel" measure of the year, a bill introduced in the house by Representative Rucker, of Missouri, strikes at the use of a "barrel" in national elections.

Would Limit Campaign Expenditures.

The bill limiting the use of the "barrel" provides for the control of campaign contributions and expendi-

It is a codification of the three existing federal laws with regards to campaign expenditures. It also contrains several new sections.

The most significant of these is the one which provides that no "political committee" may use in any state a greater amount than the aggregate contributed by the citizens of that state. Representative Rucker's report expressly states that the bill provides that this is not to limit the use of money for publishing literature, for advertising, or for any other campaign method which appeals primarily to the judgment of voters, but it is designed to prevent the collecting of immense contributions from corporations and individuals in the financial centers of the country for use in various states. In a word, it is aimed at the national "barrel."

House Seamen's Bill is Reported. A substitute for the La Follette seamen's bill passed by the senate was favorably reported to the bouse.

The bill substantially adopts the requirements agreed on by the convenlast January, as to lifeboats on ocean vessels, and applies these in modified form to United States vessels in ocean voyages on routes not more than 20 nantical miles off shore and on the the crater for 10 cents each. great lakes. It would require an ocean passenger steamer, at every AIR GRAFT COLLIDE; ocean passenger steamer, at every no more persons than there are accommodations in lifeboats and life rafts, at least 75 per cent of this equipment to be lifeboats. Cargo steamers would carry enough lifeboats for all aboard under existing regulations.

Committee Amends Anti-Trust Bill.

The senate judiciary committee deeided to eliminate from the house anti-trust bill words which lawyers say would legalize the blacklist.

The portions of the bill acceptable to organized labor were only slightly modified and their principal contention, for the limiting of injune labor disputes, was agreed to practically as written in the house bill.

The committee struck out language which would have banned injunction against picketing and attendance near the homes or working places of any person "for the purpose of peacefully obtaining or communicating information."

In the section relating to contempt proceedings it struck out the house provision limiting the punishment to a $1000 fine or six months' imprisonment. It was pointed out that in many instances contempt might be wilfully committed with the object of securing these comparatively mild punishments.

JUROR SEIZED AS SLAYER

Investigation of Girl's Death Under

Auto Has Dramatic Climax, Toronto.-The inquest over the death of Mary Mash, killed by being run down by a reckless motorist, came to dramatic termination by the arrest John B. Whaley, foreman of the jury investigating the case, on the charge of having killed the girl.

Whaley was traced by a piece of broken glass picked up on the scene which fitted perfectly the broken headlight on his automobile. The foreman was taken from the jury box to the prisoner's bar.

After the accedent Whaley drove on at great speed and escaped detection, is alleged. On leaving the garage he was served with a summons to act on the coroner's jury and was elected foreman. The entrance of detectives in the progress of the inquest and the arrest on a charge of manslaught er caused a profound sensation.

NINE MEN LOSE LIVES

Vienna .-- A military aeroplane accidentally rammed an Austrian army Parseval dirigible at the aviation field between Enzersdorf and Fischamend. sinking the great airship but itself going down to destruction as a result. of the accident, with a total loss of nine lives.

The two air craft were 2500 feet aloft when the accident occurred. The aeroplane was swooping past the dirigible with a safe margin of distance between the two when it suddenly awerved almost at right angles, presumably due to some mishap to the steering gear, and plunged at fall speed into the big gas bag amidships.

There was a terrific explosion and the airship took fire. The flames engulfed the biplane and in a few moments the remnants of both craft with their occupants crashed on the slope of a mountain.

The seven men on board the dirigible and the two with the aeroplane were all dead before those who rushed to aid them reached the spot. It was impossible to tell whether they were burned to death before they struck the ground or were killed by their Interpreting the county division law for G. B. Putnam of Bend, Attorney-General Crawford holds that if a county is to be divided into three counties, each of the two new countles must receive 65 per cent of the vote cast in its proposed boundaries, and 35 per cent of the vote cast in the balance of the territory, including the other proposed new county. In other words, the attorney-general holds that when two new counties are being created at the same time out of one county the percentage of the vote that must be obtained is the same for each proposed new county as though only one county was being 'created.

"We want to everlastingly kill off single tax; that's what this measure is for," declared T. J. Fording, of Portland, when he submitted a copy of a proposed constitutional amendment to the secretary of state. The measure, which Mr. Fording said would be initlated, bears the name of David M. Dunne. It proposes to amend section 1 of article IX of the constitution. The measure provides that no property, to exceed in value the sum of $300, shall be exempted from taxation, and that this provision, when once adopted, shall never be amended, except by two-thirds vote of all the electors who may participate in any general or special election wherein a change in the system of assessment and taxation is proposed.
