

"The Perils of Pauline" at the Lyric

"The Perils of Pauline" is the title of a serial story now running in the Hearst papers, and over two hundred other newspapers throughout the United States, and which is being simultaneously released in motion pictures every other week by the Electric Film Co.

The Lyric Theatre has arranged with the Electric Film Co. to exhibit this set of pictures, and they will be shown every two weeks on Saturday, beginning this week.

The Hearst papers are offering $25,000 in cash prizes for the best solutions of the mysteries and ending of the story, so a tremendous amount of interest is being centered in these pictures by theatre patrons and readers of the papers running the story.

"The Perils of Pauline" is a film full of action, intense interest, wonderful situations, daring thrills, beautiful scenic effects, and the action of the story, as the plot develops, includes flying machine accidents, thrilling rescues, fires at sea, train wrecks, automobile accidents, in fact, about everything that can be introduced as a "thrill." In the first installment (three reels) to be shown this Saturday an Egyptian mummy, 5000 years old speaks: What Does the Mummy Say?

Two other pictures, "A Night at the Inn," a story of adventure long ago, and "Loves Old Dream," a John Bunny comedy, will also be shown, making a five-reel show. One, and possibly two musical numbers, will also be given at the evening show. Admission price for adults will be an advance to 25 cents. Children 15 cents.

Death of William Johnson at Madras

Tuesday evening, June 16, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. P. U'Ren, occurred the death of William Johnson, one of the old pioneers of this Central Oregon country, having come to this section over 35 years ago.

The deceased was born in Belfast, Ireland, January 16th, 1837, and received his early education in England, after which he spent several years in Australia, and in 1869 he came to California, which was during one of the gold rushes. Soon after this he married Mary Broches, who was accidentally burned to death in February, 1882, on their homestead, located across the flat from Haycreek store.

There were five children of this union—Mrs. Mary U'Ren of Madras, William Johnson of Antelope, Isaac of Laidlaw, Percy of Battle Ground, Wash., and one daughter who died when quite young.

Mr. Johnson has always been a very active man in public life, always taking an interest in politics and also has been several times connected with the present county offices at Prineville, both in office and assisting the officers in the handling of their offices when extra help was needed. He was also connected with, and it was largely through his efforts, that the only Carey act irrigation project in Oregon was carried to a successful completion. Last spring he was a delegate at the Irrigation Congress, representing the Swalley ditch, and much attention was given him owing to his experience along this line of work.

The funeral was held at the M. E. church and the remains were laid at rest in the Haycreek cemetery. Many of his old time friends were present to pay their last respects to the deceased.—Madras Pioneer.

WHY WEAK LUNGS?

The toll of tuberculosis is claiming more than 350 victims every day in the United States, yet few realize their grave condition until the critical period arrives. Overwork, worry, weakness after sickness, catarrh, bronchitis, tender throats—all exert the weakening influence that invites consumption. To guard against consumption, thousands of people take Scott's Emulsion after meals because its rich medicinal nourishment strengthens the lungs, puts vigor in the blood, and upbuilds strength to resist tuberculosis. Scott's Emulsion is nature's strength-builder. Refuse substitutes.

Think They Can Strike Artesian Water

Who will donate a lot for the purpose of testing the possibility of getting a strong artesian flow of water in Prineville?

Wagoner & Co., the well-known well drillers, will go down 500 feet, if necessary, to establish the fact that a definite artesian basin exists in the valley from Prineville down as far as O'Neil. Messrs. Slayton and Williams have artesian water on their ranches but the well-drillers are of the opinion that much stronger flows could be secured by going deeper. In order to test the matter the well-drillers will go down 500 feet but the owner of the lot must deed them the property if an artesian flow is struck. Any old lot will do for the test.

The Deschutes Power Co., which supplies Prineville with water has a group of 23 driven wells which were put down in 1899 within a radius of 100 feet. The deepest is 280 feet. The water is slightly alkaline. The material passed through in driving the well is as follows:

Soll	5 feet
Coarse gravel	20 "
White clay	1 "
Fine quicksand	2 "
Gravel	3 to 4 "
White clay	2 "
Volcanic dust	210 "

Water was reached at a depth of 32 feet but the supply continued to increase until a depth of 60 feet was reached. The main supply comes from the so-called quicksand, volcanic dust, found beneath the layer of white clay 32 to 34 feet below the surface. As the wells terminate in the water bearing stratum they do not furnish a complete test of the artesian conditions. The well-drillers want to go down to hard rock. Whether or not it can be found in 500 feet is the unknown quantity in the problem. The well-drillers will put their work up against the value of the lot in its solution.

The Ramsey Reception Very Pleasant Affair

About 100 people attended the reception given in honor of Rev. George Ramsey and his bride at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Belknap last Saturday evening. The bride was showered with lovely gifts, ranging from hand-painted china and cut glass to a can opener. There was music throughout the evening. All guests were served with ice cream and cake in the beautifully decorated dining room. The rainbow of promise with all its beautiful tints, extended across the tables. The occasion was greatly enjoyed.

Round About Journey for Prineville Flour

The Prineville Flouring Mills shipped 1000 pounds of flour by parcel post last Friday that will not net Uncle Sam's contractors much profit on transportation. The flour was sent to Antone over in Wheeler county, a postoffice 25 miles on the other side of Mitchell. The distance from Prineville is 70 miles, but the way Uncle Sam will take the flour will foot up about 500. The shipment will have to go to Redmond by stage, then over the Oregon Trunk to Portland and back again on this side of the Columbia river to Arlington, then out the Arlington branch to Condon. There is a two-horse stage from Condon to Fossil but from Fossil to Mitchell and from Mitchell to Antone a one-horse cart takes care of the business. The contractor from Fossil to Antone is the one that will have to grin and tote the flour.

Lewarks Encounter

Very Stormy Weather

Mr. and Mrs. Lewark, who left Prineville May 23 for an overland trip across the continent writes to the Journal from Laramie, Wyo., under date of June 20, that they have had a hard time of it. Roads have been terrific most of the way. In California they were fair except through the mountains. Within two miles of the summit of the pass between California and Nevada mud and snow drifts were so bad that the car had to be shipped from Soda Springs to Truckee, a distance of 13 miles. Nine other cars were in the same dilemma. Through Nevada it was cold, rainy and muddy. Drove through a blinding snow storm one day and could make but 45 miles. The Lewarks say that of all the country seen so far Oregon looks the best. Mr. Lewark was taken sick at Laramie and a delay of several days was expected. It will be some time before they reach their destination at Richmond, Va.

Prineville Defeated Bend Last Sunday

The baseball team went to Bend Sunday for a workout with the Bend team preparatory to the Fourth of July series with the Knights of Columbus of Portland. Although Bend has acquired two or three new players, including a pitcher, they failed to stop the locals who fattened their batting averages with a number of good solid bingles, which netted 15 runs. The Bend boys got only two runs off Tetherow's pitching. He was given fine support.

Saturday the locals defeated the Lamonta team 13 to 0.

The Prineville team goes to Grass Valley Saturday for a two-game series with that team and may possibly play the Moro team on this trip. Both towns have fast teams and have been defeating all comers, including several Portland teams. The locals will have the first real workout of the season in these games and will have to play in top form to win a majority of them.

Died

Thursday morning, June 25, 1914, Mrs. Mary Breese, aged 97 years.

The death of Mrs. Breese was not unexpected. She had been an invalid for 14 years. She was born in Scotland and came to America in 1850. She was married to John Breese in Ohio.

They came to Oregon in 1880. In 1884 they settled in Crook county where he remained until his death. Mrs. Breese's maiden name was Mary Rooke, whose great-great grandfather, Sir George Rooke, was the English Admiral who had command of the English and Dutch forces that captured Gibraltar in 1704. Mrs. Breese leaves three sons—R. W. Breese, of Prineville; George of Illinois, and William of Iowa.

Funeral services will be held at the Presbyterian church Friday, June 26, at 10:30 a. m.
