Samson at the Lyric Tomorrow Night

When "Samson" was produced by the Universal Film Co. it was conceded to be the most stupendous production ever attempted by an American picture company. The production of this marvelous picture required the investment of $100,000 and a caste of 2,000 people, many of whom are the most popular favorites of the screen, including J. Warren Kerrigan, the one and only matinee idol of the picture world, and his sister, Kathleen Kerrigan, of "Every Woman" renown.

This production in six parts is without doubt the portrayal of the most sensational story of ancient times, and in spectacular effects is equal to "Quo Vadis" and other masterpieces of film production.

Unlike many spectacular productions, however, "Samson" has a strong heart interest. Samson's desertion of his wife and his betrayal by the beautiful Delilah, combined with his breaking of the lion's jaw, slaying 1,000 Philistines, burning the corn fields and pulling down the great temple, are all true to the version and contribute to make this feature one of the greatest film productions ever attempted. This film has been shown in the largest theaters in the United States, including the Republic Theater, New York City, and all the principal cities of the country. It was shown at the Baker Theater in Portland for one week at advanced prices.

"Samson" will be at the Lyric for one night only, Friday, December 11th. Admission, adults, 25 cents; children, 15 cents.

Everybody Wants to be City Marshal

What's the matter with candidates for city offices? They are as scarce as hen's teeth. Outside of the marshalship there seems to be nothing stirring.

Dr. Edwards, J. B. Shipp and Judge Bowman have been mentioned for mayor but that is all. Anyone of them would make a good city official. Dr. Edwards is an old hand at the business and knows the ropes. Mr. Shipp is an experienced councilman and is familiar with city affairs. Judge Bowman will stay put no matter where you place him. Line 'em up on or before Wednesday, December 16, so that the names can be printed on the official ballot.

Lake M. Bechtell and Dr. Hyde are the only ones spoken of for city treasurer and recorder respectively. Both have served one year and have qualified for another. The American spirit of fair play generally gives competent officers a complimentary term.

The dearth of aldermanic aspirants is hard to account for. It looks like an easy job with something more than kicks in it. It will be noticed that all councilmen but one have cars. Councilman Elkins has two. Now we don't know whether there is any connection between a councilman and a car but if there is come out and get an auto.

The Music and Art Department of the Ladies' Annex had an unusually interesting program Tuesday afternoon. The roll call was answered by quotations from Van Dyke.

The club quartette, composed of Mesdames C. M. Elkins, T. E. J. Duffy, L. M. Bechtell and J. H. Rosenberg, sang "Sweet and Low." This was followed by a review of Ancient and Modern Church Music by Mrs. Robert Douglass.

The paper on Art for the afternoon was appropriate to the season—"Madonnas." Mrs. M. E. Brink's paper was exceptionally fine.

The quartette then concluded the program with the now famous war song—"It's a Long, Long Way to Tipperary."
