Auto Turns Turtle Four Persons Injured

An unfortunate accident happened Thursday evening when a car driven by Miss Wagner was overturned in coming down the hill near the cemetery north of the city, throwing the occupants of the car violently to the ground and injuring all of them.

In the car at the time were Miss Wagner, Miss Claudia Wonderly, Miss Edith Wonderly, Miss Biggs and Mrs. M. R. Biggs. The car overturned on the curve in the roadway about half way down the hill, and fell onto Miss Claudia Wonderly. Miss Wagner had her right arm crushed just below the shoulder joint, and was otherwise bruised and cut.

Miss Biggs was painfully bruised about the head and face but will be about again soon. Miss Claudia Wonderly was likewise badly cut and bruised about the head and face, but her injuries are not of a dangerous nature. Edith Wonderly escaped without a scratch. Mrs. Biggs had her left arm dislocated at the elbow joint and may have received internal injuries, as she had not fully recovered from an operation for appendicitis.

The party was in Mr. Wagner's car and were accompanied by the Wilson car which was immediately at hand to summon aid and bring the injured ladies to the city.

Culver Gets the County Seat

Culver is the county seat for Jefferson county for the next two years. The selection was made Tuesday by the new county court at its first meeting.

The following officers were appointed and will hold until January, 1917:

Ira Black of Culver, sheriff.
W. E. Johnson of Madras, clerk.
D. W. Barnett of Madras, treasurer.
Ira Holcomb of Gateway, assessor.
Mrs. Lillian Watts of Gateway, superintendent of schools.
Dr. Snapp of Metolius, county physician.
Ed W. Mason of Madras, coroner.
Walter M. Eaton, surveyor.
Bidwell Cram of Gateway, stock inspector.

W. E. Johnson is a newspaper man, having been connected with the Pioneer for some time. D. W. Barnett is an old-timer and has been conducting a real estate business in Madras since that town was founded. Ira Black bought the Jesse Windom place, near Judge Springer's place, a few years ago.

Ira Black, J. M. King and Judge Springer have adjoining farms on the north slope of Grey Butte. Must be something in the location.

The Jefferson county court recommended to the legislature the following salaries for its officers:

County judge, $600.
Commissioners, $4 per diem and 10c per mile.
Clerk, $1200.
Sheriff, $1500.
Assessor, $1000.
Superintendent of schools, $900 per year and not to exceed $100 per year traveling expenses.
Treasurer, $800.
District attorney, $900.

The matter of deputies will be left entirely to the discretion of the court if the request of the court is followed.

Also recommending that monthly meetings be held instead of once in two months, which, if heeded by the legislature, will make the new county the only one in the state holding regular monthly meetings.
