

Obituary.

Mrs. Barbara E. Prose died at the home of her daughter at Sweet Home Saturday January 16. Mrs. Prose was born in Galia county, Ohio, March 31, 1839. With her husband she crossed the plains by ox team in 1864, settling at that time in Willamette valley. In 1879 the family moved to Washington buying land near Colfax. After fourteen years spent in Washington they came to Prineville and the remaining years of her life were spent here and with relatives in the Willamette valley.

A. Prose, her husband, died eleven years ago, and was buried at Arlie, where the body of Mrs. Prose was laid to rest Monday.

She leaves a brother, S. H. Norman of Junction City, three daughters—Mrs. Elizabeth Robinson of Coos Bay, Mrs. Martha Haptonstale of Falls City, Mrs. Katherine Burns of Sweet Home and three sons, S. A., W. H. and J. H. Prose, all of Prineville. Mr. and Mrs. Prose were both members of the United Brethren church since childhood.

Died.

George Walter Snoderly died Saturday in The Dalles from a complication of diseases. Funeral services were held yesterday at 1:30 from the residence of J. W. Boone in this city. Interment at Masonic cemetery. Walter was born on August 5, 1862, and had been a resident of Crook county for many years.

Besides a wife and son, he leaves his mother, two brothers, Fred and Wm. Snoderly, and sisters, Mrs. J. W. Boone of this city and Mrs. Schafer of Sherman county.

How the Teams Stand.

Five of the total of seven games have been played by all eight teams participating in the bowling tournament at the Commercial Club. A. Michel's team is leading, having a total of 10,022 pins. Jess Tetherow is second with 12 pins less, and S. G. Hinkle and Robert Osborne are third and fourth, each team being some fifty pins behind the leaders.

Card of Thanks

The family of the late Walter Snoderly desire to thank the many friends for their kindness and sympathy during their sorrow.

MRS. SARAH SNODERLY.
